Past editions of Rothmans Football Yearbook	1012

It seems only yesterday that we enjoyed the excitement of launching the first Rothmans Football Yearbook. It was in fact way back at the beginning of the 1970-71 football season, and this is our fifth edition.

Time has flown, and the state of football in this country has fluctuated. The boom in the game's popularity after England's World Cup victory in 1966 has gradually subsided due perhaps to disappointing national results, over-publicised terrace troubles and, too often, defensive football.

However, during this time the Rothmans Football Yearbook has grown from strength to strength and it has been satisfying to know that more and more followers of the game have made our publication a 'collector's piece' to be treasured each year.

Encouraged by the Yearbook's success, it was not surprising that when the opportunity arose we were pleased to participate in another football sponsorship, that of the famous Isthmian League. This was undertaken last season and full details can be seen on page 928. We have been pleased that our aims for more sporting and attractive football have been achieved in the Rothmans Isthmian League and look forward to the same incentives applied to two more competitions in the 1974-75 season.

INTRODUCTION

As the compilers of Rothmans Football Yearbook 1974-75, we have been delighted with the success and popularity of our previous editions, and with the very favourable response it has received from the public. In line with our established policy, we have again introduced several new items, making this series of books as complete a record of Association Football as possible. In this volume, there is a detailed account of the 1974 FIFA World Cup tournament, diagrams of the most interesting goals scored during the past season, pen-pictures of 100 all-time greats of world football, and special attention has been paid to the game in Scotland. We are especially proud to publish the complete line-ups of every international team to have represented the four home countries. This is a unique collector's item, which has never before been compiled in this easily accessible format. To satisfy many of our readers, we have included the international records of the Republic of Ireland players. Each section contains a feature article which deals mainly with the 1973-74 season. Our day-by-day Diary has also been designed to record detailed information concerning the major – and minor – events of the year.

Once again, we would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance received from various organisations, club secretaries, and officials. We are especially grateful to Mr Bob Baldwin of the Football League, Mr John Carvosso and Mr Mike McNamara of the Football Association, and Mr Tom Maule of the Scottish League, whose ready help in all matters has been vitally important in compiling this Yearbook. We would also like to record our appreciation of the efforts of Miss Ann Meader of the Bagenal Harvey Organisation.

In a comparatively short space of time, 'Rothmans' has become the bible of football, and is regarded as the most reliable and accurate volume of statistics by professionals and public alike. In this, our fifth edition, we have done our utmost to maintain these high standards, and we are confident that the reputation of the Yearbook will be further enhanced.

THE FINAL TOURNAMENT

The 1974 World Cup provided a tournament in which strong supposition finally became fact. At any time, at least up till the final stages got underway, West Germany stood as everyone's favourites to win, and form also decreed that when a World Cup winning goal was required, it would be Gerd Muller who supplied it.

So that was the way it happened. But the race for the new FIFA trophy was more of the kind when the favourite makes his burst over the last few yards than when he leads from start to finish. For the hosts fashioned such unconvincing form at the outset of the finals that Holland looked more suited to the world crown. At times both Helmut Schoen and his players looked incapable of withstanding the crushing pressure on them to succeed; on the field Schoen muddled with a variety of permutations; off it rumours spread that Beckenbauer, nominally captain and Schoen's lieutenant, was taking the decisions of a general. And defeat in a prestigious political match against East Germany only aggravated the sores in the home team's camp.

Yet Schoen's cocktail of selection found the right blend in time. He stood by Wolfgang Overath, such an influence in midfield in the World Cups of 1966 and 1970, though the terraces clamoured for the recall of Gunter Netzer. He stood by his belief in two wingers, though it meant persevering with Jurgen Grabowski, who only flirted with his best form, and Bernd Holzenbein whose youthful enthusiasm did not always compensate for his international inexperience. He stung more effort out of the swaggering Uli Hoeness by dropping him, and, in introducing the defensive strength and midfield power of Reiner Bonhof, he produced a player who, though he played just half of the tournament, became one of its outstanding individuals.

In Munich on July 7 that blend proved too strong for a Dutch side in a final that combined all the chillingly brilliant technique shown in many of the matches in the finals with the passion and tension that had not been present so often. Indeed from the first match it had been more a competition for the purist than for the man on the terrace. The excellence of the control of defenders and attackers alike allied to the belief in patience in the construction of the play severely rationed goalmouth action.

Absolutely typical was the opening match between Brazil, the holders, and Yugoslavia in Frankfurt. The third consecutive competition began with a goalless draw in which misses by Jairzinho for Brazil and Oblak, Petkovic, and Acimovic for Yugoslavia were rare highlights in a battle of attrition which had the coaches purring and the fans whistling. The weather, too, fired its opening capricious volleys, for the rain which fell was to darken the entire three and a half weeks and the Germans had used a computer to select the dates as the most likely to be dry!

The Brazil-Yugoslavia result held great domestic significance because of Scotland's involvement in Group 2. The Scots, at odds with themselves, the press, and West German officialdom during their run-in to the finals, had to begin their challenge against the unknowns from Zaire. Willie Ormond, recognising the need to score with goal difference a vital determining factor, gambled on the sharpness of Denis Law, but though Scotland won 2-0, hindsight showed that the margin was not sufficiently great. Zaire, excitingly athletic on the ball but naive and disorganised off it, twice threatened Harvey's goal but Kakoko and Kidumu squandered their opportunities. The blunt instrument of Lorimer's right foot was not so wasteful as Jordan set up his chance; a beautifully controlled knockdown header was met by a frightening volley that flashed past Kazadi. The African keeper was still stunned six minutes later when he allowed a Jordan header to slip through his hands over the line. But though 58 minutes remained, Scotland could not score again; it was to cost them a place in the Second Round.

Four days later in Gelsenkirchen, Yugoslavia were not so impotent. They led 6-0 at half-time and scored three more in the second half against a Zaire side so demoralised that Ndaye attacked the Colombian referee and was sent off. Kazadi was withdrawn after 20 minutes and no sooner had Tubilandu replaced him than he was picking the ball out of the net for the fourth goal.

Simultaneously in Frankfurt, the only victory Scotland could score over Brazil was in moral terms. After Brazil had fired the opening shots, Scotland dominated the game with a display of character inspired by a virtuoso Bremner performance. But the new Brazil, as hard and rugged as their predecessors were skilled, did not yield, and Scotland, for all the efforts of Jordan, lacked the penetration their midfield domination deserved. The goalless draw meant that Scotland had to beat Yugoslavia to be sure of qualifying; a draw would raise the question of goal difference. And if Brazil beat Zaire by three goals they would edge out Scotland.

As the two matches unrolled side by side the odds for a long while favoured Scotland. Incredibly Brazil, without a goal in their first two games, struggled to add to a 13th minute score from Jairzinho. Scotland began more positively against Yugoslavia, and Jordan shot against Maric with the best chance of the first 45 minutes. The half-time scores—Brazil 1, Zaire 0 and Scotland 0, Yugoslavia 0, meant that the Scots were through if there were no further goals in either game.

Brazil were still struggling to break down the massed African defence when 22 minutes into the second half Rivelino produced the first memory of Mexico with a violent scoring shot from 25 yards. And then within two minutes events on the two grounds ended Scotland's hopes. First Kazadi flopped over a gentle cross-shot from Valdomiro to give Brazil their vital third goal. Scotland now had to beat Yugoslavia. But suddenly a bolt from the blue-shirted Yugoslavs ended with Karasi, a substitute brought on to help ensure a draw, heading firmly past Harvey. Jordan's equaliser in the dying seconds gave some reward to a young striker who had proved his ability in the highest class and enabled Scotland, unbeaten, to hold their heads high. But Brazil and Yugoslavia went through from Group Two.

Group One was, as expected, a tale of the two Germanys, and surprisingly it was East Germany, supported by 3000 carefully selected supporters who were allowed to cross the Berlin wall on special trains, who proved the more impressive. Arguably the fittest side in the competition, their defensive strength mustered around skipper Bransch was supported by direct running forwards.

East Germany overcame some strong physical resistance to beat Australia, but had similar problems with Chile, only gaining a draw. West Germany were more in tune when they met the Australians, but they fell away after a strong opening in which Overath struck back at some of his doubters with a faultless half an hour which included a glorious goal from outside the penalty area and Cullmann heading in a Hoeness cross. Muller's first goal of the competition provided the only major event in the second period.

Chile had already drawn with Australia—a match that was held up by torrential rain, a minor demonstration, and then by a strange refereeing decision that allowed Richards of Australia to remain on the field for five minutes after receiving a second yellow card before the linesman pointed out the referee's mistake—and thus it was certain that East Germany and West Germany would appear in the second round before the two teams met in a match that had as much to do with politics as it did with football. Cynics might suggest that it suited West Germany to be beaten because it put them in the slightly weaker second round group—a possibility had only football been at stake. The match, played in Hamburg, was the first encounter between the halves of this divided nation, and thirteen minutes from time Jurgen Sparwasser struck in characteristic East German fashion. Following a sharp break from defence he carried the ball quickly into the West Germany penalty area, and when Maier committed himself unnecessarily he shot hard into the roof of the net. Memories of West Germany losing a game in the preliminaries before winning the World Cup in 1954 had little consolation in this context.

Group Three lived up to its promise of being the most open of the four. On the days of its final series of matches, it was still possible for any one of its four teams to qualify. Holland, apparently shrugging off their disputes with the Dutch FA over payment, began convincingly enough in a tough encounter with Uruguay. Rep scored twice in between dodging some furious South American tackling which culminated in the sending off of Montero-Castillo. But Sweden, showing no discomfort from fielding a somewhat elderly side only half of which were full-time professionals, held both the Dutch and Bulgarians to goalless draws, while Uruguay kept alive a slim hope with a draw against Bulgaria. But Uruguay, semi-finalists in 1970, could not contain Sweden, whose previous lack of goals had stemmed from missing chances rather than from not creating them. The tall Edstroem, a class apart in the air, revealed a deftness of touch with his left foot, scoring twice, while the pace and enthusiasm of Sandberg's running brought a third goal. Holland, too, recovered a taste for goals against Bulgaria: Neeskens thundered in two first-half penalties, and Rep and substitute de Jong doubled that total. Krol's own-goal would be the only time the 33-year-old Jongbloed would be beaten until the final.

Group Four happily did not live to expectations; there was little of the anticipated violence in the clashes between Poland, Argentina, and Italy. If the form of Poland eased the hurt of their dismissal of England, it was the Argentinians who captured the hearts. If their self-control stemmed from a political order, to ensure the 1978 World Cup would take place in their country, it was nonetheless welcome and it was heightened by some delightful football.

Italy had begun as if determined to emulate their feat of 1966 when they lost to North Korea. Now they conceded their first goal for thirteen internationals to, of all countries, Haiti before sanity prevailed and they scored three times themselves. Their draw with Argentina, presented to them by Perfumo's own goal, meant that a draw with Poland in their third game would take them easily into the next round. But their ageing side could not re-establish the impregnability of their defence, and Poland contrived two brilliant pieces of finishing.

Thus eight teams remained in the competition—not to contest the quarter-finals as on previous competitions—to compete in two Groups on a league basis, the winners of each to contest the World Cup final.

Group A totally belonged to Holland. They began by destroying Argentina in the best display of attacking football in the competition. Cruyff, Krol, Rep, and Cruyff again scored the goals, but those moments were just the icing on a very sweet-tasting cake. There was a completeness about their attacking play that defied marking; every outfield player looked at home in an offensive postion and there was little percentage in tight-marking Cruyff when defenders had similar goal-senses and were given the licence to exploit them. East Germany, for all their defensive poise, were equally powerless against the Dutch and Holland needed only a draw against Brazil to be in the final.

Brazil had regained some of their reputation, but they were now about to lose it again and more besides. A Rivelino free-kick had beaten East Germany, and two thrilling goals, from Rivelino again and Jairzinho, had undone Argentina even though Brindisi had become the first man to beat Leao in the competition. But now in Dortmund, the World Champions set out to hang on to their title with some calculated thuggery. Ze Maria showed his intentions with a rugby tackle on Cruyff; Mario Marinho assaulted Neeskens off the ball; and the gifted Luis Pereira persisted with a policy of physical intimidation until a scything chop on Neeskens saw him sent off. Holland, though no angels, kept their heads, and responded with two goals of the very highest class.

Group B produced a tussle between West Germany and Poland, and again though there was no official semi-final the two teams eventually met with a final place at stake for the winner. The hosts struggled for 38 minutes against Yugoslavia until they again had cause to be grateful to a long range goal from Paul Breitner. With the goal came composure and, with Yugoslavia showing little stomach for the fight, a comfortable win. Muller's persistence in the goal area brought him a second goal after Overath's superb through pass had freed Hoeness, who was on as a substitute after being dropped in the original selection for lack of effort.

Poland enjoyed a share of good fortune in beating Sweden. Lato chipped in another goal to give them the lead but only Tomaszewski saved them when he turned aside a penalty taken by Tapper. Deyna did not fail when he was presented with a similar chance against Yugoslavia, and though Karasi equalised, Lato's finishing power again settled the match in Poland's favour—this time with a delicate header from Gadocha's corner.

But the best football came when Sweden met West Germany in torrential rain in Dusseldorf. After 26 minutes Edstroem again exhibited his undoubted class with a looping volley which required the most perfect timing; Maier's flailing arm was no more than a gesture. But in the second half the character of the Germans brought them two goals in a minute, from Overath and from the splendid Bonhof, both after Gerd Muller had battled in the area for an opening. Two minutes later Sweden were level through Sandberg, but Muller, twirling like a top, made a goal for Grabowski and then, stumbling to the ground, won a penalty which Hoeness converted.

The venue but not the rain changed for the West Germany-Poland match.

In Frankfurt the kick-off was delayed for half an hour while the groundsmen mopped up water like at a Test Match in Manchester. But on a bog of a pitch quite unworthy of such an occasion both teams improvised brilliantly. Lato might have scored twice for Poland in the first half, and Hoeness should have given West Germany the lead in the second—but Tomaszewski held his poorly placed penalty.

But for the home crowd it was a short-lived sadness; Bonhof burst aggressively into the penalty area and as he was tackled the ball rolled to Muller. Extracting the very maximum time from the situation he set his sights and scored right-footed.

So to West Germany versus Holland on the Munich pitch which was home to six of the German side. No World Cup final could have begun more dramatically. There had hardly been a touch on the ball by one of the home players when Hoeness aimed a tackle and brought down Johann Cruyff a yard inside the penalty area; Englishman Jack Taylor's first decision of the match was to award Holland a penalty—a judgement as bold and brave as it was correct. Neeskens smashed his shot into the centre of the goal as Maier plunged optimistically to his right.

The World Cup had waited through nine finals for its first penalty, but it was only another 25 minutes before its second. Then as the competitive character of the Germans began to overcome the effects of that stunning opening, Holzenbein, playing as an orthodox left-winger, was allowed to slice deep into the Dutch penalty area. It was Jansen who at last accepted the responsibility of making a tackle, and he was out of range; Holzenbein seemed happier to fall to the ground than to brush aside what must have been a minimal contact and accept the challenge of shooting at goal. Jack Taylor duly awarded the penalty and Breitner, given the task after Hoeness's aberration against Poland, scored emphatically.

Immediately Jongbloed was in action again, making a thoroughbred save from Vogts that gave the lie to those who suggested that his selection was based entirely on his willingness to charge out of his goal to act as a new kind of 'sweeper'. But just before half-time Muller manufactured the product he has almost patented. A forward run by Bonhof from midfield took him wide on the right where he received the ball; and the power of his stride eased him past Krol. As he pulled the ball back from the bye-line Muller had come in a little too close to the goal so that it arrived slightly behind him—a problem that would have defied most other strikers in the world. But Muller checked, turned, controlled, pivoted back and shot past Jongbloed.

If West Germany had surged back to dominate the latter stages of the first half, they could not re-assert themselves in the second. Without ever finding the touch that had heightened their previous matches, Holland made enough chances to have given the game another twist. Rep missed badly twice; Maier saved instinctively from a spectacular Neeskens volley; the substitute Rene Van der Kerkhof blazed wide in front of goal.

So Helmut Schoen, second in 1966 and third in 1970, was at last a winner. Sadly the Dutch side is unlikely to play together again with so many of its stars engaged in foreign football and with a new manager. For so many of the millions who watched the World Cup their's was a complete team, but on the day they were caught out by the one type of player that they lacked. Because, true to form, Gerd Muller won West Germany the World Cup.

THE QUALIFYING COMPETITION

England's stunning failure to qualify from Group Five of the European Zone suggested the whole theme of the preliminary competition. If the 1966 winners were the most heralded team to fall by the wayside, other hardened competitors were also condemned to view the West German finale from a distance. Peru, excitingly promising quarter-finalists in 1970, lost their way; politics finally ended a Russian challenge that looked a fading cause after a 0-0 home draw against Chile; Portugal, Spain, and Hungary faltered at the final hurdle and Mexico, the hosts in 1970, fell behind Haiti in the race to West Germany.

England's demise also typified the slender margin between success and disaster at this level of play. Had Hector's last-minute header been inches either side of the course it took, the black cloud which, seconds later, burst over Wembley would have evaporated. Throughout the sections, similar split-second episodes decided the fortunes. Scotland, looking to qualify for the first time in two decades, had been drawn in a characteristically well-balanced group. Both they and Czechoslovakia seemed to have the measure of Denmark, until the Czechs, surprisingly, were held to a draw in the away leg. The Scots, then, needed two points from their two clashes with their Eastern European rivals.

There was not an ideal preparation to enjoy. The precious two wins over Denmark had been collected by a side welded together by the charismatic Tommy Docherty before he had been seduced south to wrestle with the problems of managing Manchester United. His successor, Willie Ormond, had to endure a St Valentine's Day massacre the first time he wore his new hat, Scotland slumping to 5-0 February thrashing from England. Worse followed in the form of a home defeat by Northern Ireland in the British International Championship. But a home win against Czechoslovakia would still be enough to open the path to the finals.

Amidst the patriotic electricity of Hampden Park, the first step was a stumble. Nehoda broke clear on the right, and though his skimming cross shot seemed less than threatening, it slipped under Hunter's dive and Czechoslovakia led. But by half-time the balance had been redressed. Ironically it was a Docherty man, the giant defender Jim Holton, who claimed the equaliser. Hurling himself into the pack with a defender's courage, he headed in a left-wing corner.

It was late in the second half when two critical incidents decided the spoils. As Scotland drove forward, they earned a free-kick within range of the Czech goal. After the statutory decoy work, Bremner's shot rebounded from the foot of a post. The width of that woodwork might have been the difference between triumph and tragedy, but while the Czechs were still sighing with relief, they allowed Morgan to centre the ball again. Then, amidst a disarrayed defence, Joe Jordan, with surely an unequalled pedigree as a scoring substitute, headed his country into the World Cup finals.

For Wales, their failure to qualify was inexorably entangled with that of England. In the final analysis, the 1-1 draw at Wembley in January 1973 was of little use to either side. Yet on the same night that Scotland beat Czechoslavakia, a Welsh win in Katowice would have taken Dave Bowen's Cinderella squad to almost certain qualification; only a massive England win over Poland at Wembley could have foiled them. As it was, Poland triumphed in a bitter, brawling, contest. Blame had to be equally apportioned. The Poles had not allowed the wounds from their defeat at Ninian Park to heal; then they had felt aggrieved at the latitude allowed to Welsh tackling, particularly from the pugnacious Hockey and Yorath. In Katowice, Rodrigues was ruthlessly kicked before the game had reached the thirty second mark.

If that was the cue for the battle to begin, Wales readily played their part, and paid the inevitable penalty when Hockey was provoked to futile retaliation, and sent off. Thriving on fanatical support, Poland beat Sprake twice before half time, through Lato and Gadocha. Domarski scored in the second half.

But if Wales at least got near enough to the fire to be warmed, Northern Ireland remained out in the cold. As if the handicap of having to play their home games in England wasn't enough, they lost their chance in the first two away matches. The 3-0 defeat in Bulgaria was perhaps predictable enough —so, might add the cynics, was the sending off of George Best—but the inexplicable 1-0 collapse against Cyprus put the task quite beyond reach.

Ireland, in fact, did not lose any of their other four ties, beating Cyprus at home, drawing home and away with Portugal, and drawing at home against Bulgaria. Had Cyprus been defeated in Nicosia, they might have proved a much greater threat to the two stronger nations. Bulgaria came through to win the group, winning all their home games and being unbeaten away.

In the other European sections, Groups One and Seven extended their plots into play-offs. In Group One Hungary, the favourites, began convincingly. As well as exacting full points from Malta, they obtained significant draws in Sweden and in Vienna. Sweden, their attack spearheaded by their 20-year-old scoring sensation Ralf Edstroem, exchanged points with the Austrians, Austria winning 2-0 in Vienna but bowing down 2-3 away with Sandberg scoring twice for the Swedes. But at home Hungary could only draw with Austria—and they needed a second-half equaliser from Balint to do so after trailing 1-2 at the break. Austria now had eight points, having played all their games, Hungary had seven, with just Sweden to play at home, and Sweden were in the worst position of all with five points and their two remaining games both away in Budapest and Malta. The permutations seemed endless. If Hungary beat Sweden, they would qualify. If Sweden won, they would qualify, provided, of course, they won in Valetta. If either of those two games were a draw then goal-difference could have its say, and so then could Austria have hers.

The Hungary v Sweden game was played on a balmy midsummer night, ironically at the same hour as Austria, as though to take their mind off the tension, entertained the touring Brazilians in a friendly. While the Nep stadium was jammed with attentive Hungarians and Swedes, the Prater Stadium in Vienna had a transistor radio for every other pair of ears.

As play ebbed and flowed in Budapest, the cheers or groans in Vienna reflected that match rather than any appreciation of Brazilian magic. And it was a classic encounter. Hungary first led with a goal from Kozma, then trailed when Kindvall and Sandberg scored for Sweden, then led again through Vidats and Zambo. But Edstroem, who had burst upon the international scene with eight goals in his first three internationals, still had time to stamp his trademark on the game—a textbook header from Sandberg's cross. A draw.

Hungary were out on goal-difference. And if the Swedes roared loud, the Austrians matched them. Sweden had to win by two goals in Valetta to qualify. One goal would mean a play-off.

One goal it was in a 2-1 victory, and Austria met Sweden on a sudden death basis in Gelsenkirchen. Appalling snowy conditions turned the game into a lottery in which Sweden finally drew the winning ticket. A Sandberg goal and a penalty from Bo Larsson gave the Swedes a lead which Hattenberger reduced. A thudding shot which rebounded off a Swedish post in the last minute only served to emphasise the closeness of it all.

In Group Seven, if the story-line had the same dramatic flavour, it also had the added spice of alleged corruption. At the end of a three-cornered fight between Spain, Yugoslavia, and Greece, Yugoslavia had to beat Greece in Athens by three goals to go past Spain on goal-difference. In the Karaiskakis Stadium, Bajevic and Karasi put the Slavs two goals to the good before three disasters overtook them—goals from Elefterakis and Katalinski (own goal) plus a skirmish which saw Bajevic sent off. But in the second half Surjak managed to put the ten men in front before Karasi, in a desperate finish, fashioned a last-minute goal. So 4-2 and a play-off with Spain.

So spineless was Greece's second half performance that rumours quickly circulated about bribery. An investigating committee found nothing to substantiate such claims, though the Greek Football Association fined its players for their feeble performance. Yugoslavia, meanwhile, met Spain in Frankfurt with a place in the last sixteen at stake and won with a goal from Katalinski.

Italy, Holland, and East Germany were other European qualifiers. Italy survived the ignominy of a 0-0 home draw with Turkey, a result which for a while increased Switzerland's prospects. But the Swiss found goalscoring beyond them and managed only two goals, in the 1-0 wins against Luxembourg.

Goals were no problem to Holland, who claimed twenty-four in four ties against Iceland and Norway. The group hinged on the two intensely competitive matches between Holland and Belgium; both were niggling affairs and neither produced a goal, so Holland qualified on goal difference. Belgium had the mortification of being eliminated without being beaten and without conceding a goal!

In dropping a point in Finland back in September 1972, Rumania lost their Eastern European battle with East Germany. Two goals from Bransch gave the East Germans their important home win over their closest rivals, and though Rumania evened up a sagging goal difference with a 9-0 home win over Finland, East Germany won the group with a 4-1 victory in Albania.

Politics, sadly, had its inevitable say in setting Group Nine. Russia convincingly beat off the challenge of Eire and France to earn the right to meet Chile in a final eliminator, the South American side having won their Group Three. Chile travelled to Moscow and obtained a creditable goalless draw, but the Russian authorities objected to playing the return in the Santiago stadium, which had been used as an internment camp following the coup against the left-wing government. After sending representatives to evaluate the political climate in Chile, FIFA ruled that the game had to be played. Arrangements duly went ahead, and at the appointed hour the Chilean team took the field. The Russians did not arrive, and Chile walked over into the finals. Ironically anticipating the non-arrival of their official guests, Chile had arranged for Santos to play them in a friendly—which the Brazilian club side won 5-0!

Elsewhere in South America, Uruguay, semi-finalists in Mexico, and Argentina, whose last World Cup tie in the finals had been the malevolent conflict against England at Wembley, emerged, as expected, from the bunch. Both were surprisingly stretched, by Colombia and Paraguay respectively, and the outcome of each Group hung on the result of the last match. Uruguay became in fact the first team to qualify, but again goal-difference was the only barrier to another upset. Colombia appeared to have lost their way when they could only draw home and away to Ecuador, but their final match was in Montevideo where they beat Uruguay. The winning margin was a goal by Ortiz but twice they hit the post and in the final reckoning those moments were decisive. Uruguay had won in Ecuador and drawn in Bogota, and needed to beat Ecuador at home by two clear goals to qualify. This they did with some ease. Morena's fourth minute goal undermined Ecuador to such an extent that Uruguay led by four on the hour and free-wheeled into the finals. Their euphoria, however, was short-lived. Within days half of the successful squad had been lured out of the country by lucrative offers to grace the club sides of Spain, Mexico, and Ecuador.

Argentina, who had surrendered meekly to Peru in the 1970 preliminaries, added a new dimension in preparation for their games with Paraguay and Bolivia. Two squads were developed, one to play the home ties and the away game in Asuncion, Paraguay, the other for special duty in the rarified heights of La Paz.

Paraguay had not been so adventurous, but by travelling to Bolivia well in advance of the Group's opening fixture they were sufficiently acclimatized to win 2-1. Argentina's regular troops then beat Bolivia at home with two goals apiece from their impressive forwards Brindisi and Ayala, and then drew in Paraguay. The auxiliary ranks, then, justified the special preparation—but only just. The players, many of whom had spent two months at altitude, gave a disjointed performance, but won through a goal by Fornari.

Paraguay repeated Argentina's home win over Bolivia, and so qualification rested on the last match in Buenos Aires. With goal difference equal, it was a definitive winner takes-all confrontation, and in such a tense atmosphere tempers were on a short fuse. Unpleasantness became ugliness as Paraguay set their sights on a draw and a play-off on more favourable ground. But strangely, as their defenders ran through a complete routine of gamesmanship and time-wasting, they took the lead through Escobar. Finally both the referee and the talented Argentinians adjusted to the situation. Ayala equalised before half-time, and he scored again in the second half. Guerini was Argentina's other scorer in a 3-1 win.

If there was little romance in the South American finale, the sections that had thrown up El Salvador, Israel, and Morocco in 1970 again spawned unlikely finalists. And happily there was no repetition of the 1969 Central American incident which began as a football match and ended as a war when El Salvador and Honduras were persistent adversaries.

This time the CONCACAF tournament, involving six nations, was held on the island of Haiti and played from start to finish in 15 days. El Salvador had failed to qualify, though Honduras were there again, but Mexico, finalists by right as host nation in 1970, now had to play to qualify. But the Mexicans, proficient four years earlier, showed little evidence of similar ability.

Once Mexico had managed unconvincing draws in their two opening games, the competition developed into a two-pronged battle between Haiti, in front of their own Port-au-Prince crowd, and Trinidad. The latter, naturally athletic and well organised, enthralled the neutrals with a 4-0 thrashing of Mexico. Haiti, with a squad welded together over a year's constant training, proved hard to beat, and in retrospect the tournament was won and lost when these two sides met early in the competition.

Haiti won 2-1, but it was a victory to test the imagination of cynical observers. Five times Trinidad had the ball in the net, but no less than four of the goals were disallowed by the referee from El Salvador. With high wire fencing and a large police contingent needed to control a fanatical local crowd, pressures on officials throughout the tournament were intense. Haiti's only defeat came when their success had already been decided; then Mexico beat them 1-0.

So in relation to 1970, it was a case of 'for El Salvador, read Haiti'. From Africa, it became 'for Morocco read Zaire'. But there, one constant remained; Blagoie Vidinic, coach to Morocco in Mexico, masterminded the development of the nation previously known as the Belgian Congo.

With just one team to qualify from the continent, Zaire had to negotiate two preliminary rounds before they won their place in a three-cornered final—Zambia and Morocco being the other two candidates for West Germany. The opening rounds were fired in Lusaka where Zambia first crushed Morocco 4-0, then lost 0-2 to Zaire, and Zaire quickly completed the double with the aid of a superb solo goal from Kakoko in front of a 70,000 Kinshasa crowd.

A win over Morocco would then suffice for Zaire, and it came in Kinshasa amidst controversy. With the match scoreless early in the second half, the Ghanain referee awarded the home side a goal after a scramble in the Moroccan goalmouth. The visitors protested vehemently that their goalkeeper had been fouled and that the ball had not crossed the line. Such was Morocco's demoralisation that they not only conceded two further goals but also withdrew from the return fixture.

If dejected Englishmen shook their heads in disbelief at the justice of a draw which allocated space at the finals for the likes of Haiti and Zaire, the progress of Australia induced new agonies. In 1969 their team of failed foreign professionals had come within a goal of a place in Mexico. Now, with the majority of their squad at least Australian-educated in their football skills, they climbed a hurdle that had been beyond England. Australia's challengers in the Asian final were South Korea, who had ended Israel's search for a second successive place under the World Cup spotlight. Australia had endured two draws with New Zealand before qualifying at the expense of Iran.

The dramas continued. In Sydney, Australia were lucky to hold South Korea to a 0-0 draw; in Seoul the Koreans headed the second leg by two goals after half an hour, only to be pegged back for a play-off. Then in the unlikely setting of Hongkong three days later, a scorching drive from Scotsman Jimmy Mackay put Australia through.

If the level of the play did not touch lauded heights, the Asian tournament captured the authentic flavour of the 1974 World Cup preliminaries. Throughout the world one moment of aberration or improvisation had been the ultimate difference between two teams. It looked well for the competition as the scene shifted to West Germany.

EDITORIAL

by Brian James

If the way to hell is paved with good intentions, then we must accept that the Football League's intentions for season 1973-74 were of the best: a three-up, three-down system of promotion and relegation was designed to encourage the spread of ambition, yet it succeeded only in infecting even more clubs with fear, which is the endemic disease of English football.

For many years it had been recognised that for the majority of League clubs the length of the season was largely illusory. Long before the final matches were due to be played, most had lost their meaning. Perhaps one or two clubs would be left with a mathematical chance of overtaking the leaders, a few more would be left to contemplate the fast-fading risk of disasters which could place them among those in peril. But for most, perhaps as many as a dozen, remaining fixtures were just formality. This was a situation which needed to be changed.

It is not hard to argue that the cure has proved more painful than the affliction. From about Christmas onwards two-thirds of the First Division clubs, the teams with nominally the greater talents, the teams who should be setting the standards if not the pace, were made to play looking apprehensively over their shoulders. With a month, and perhaps six games, left before the end of the season at least 12 of England's most famous sides were living daily with the notion that the loss of a key player or two, a vital match or two, could see them threatened. They sent for safety, striving for a cautious point at a time.

With hindsight, and this is why we must not blame the League too harshly, we can see that it could have been no other way. Football, like all competitions, is about carrots and sticks; three-up and three-down doubled the size of the stick yet made the only carrot—the League title—no more accessible. Protagonists of the scheme may support it still. They will argue that the final weeks of the season were more crucial than ever before; that crowds attending the finale were seeing matches of greater moment than usual, that especially in the lower divisions, issues were kept alive literally to the last kick.

Such claims deserve rebuttal. These late matches were more important, but were they better? On one Saturday of that last month, a quarter of the games finished as they had begun—goalless. The crowds were tempted by the importance of the matches, but were they entertained by the quality of the play? Is it better for the health of the national game that, say, Carlisle or Luton can reach out for honours . . . or that Tottenham, Arsenal, or Manchester City should dig in defensively to avoid disgrace?

Improbable successes by small clubs brave enough to seize their moment is a marvellous element of cup football, but in the long run it is the steady, year-by-year quality of the great and famous that gives League football its stability. The great clubs of the world – Real Madrid, Benfica, Santos, Ajax, Celtic – could never have reigned so long, or learned to play so beautifully had they been forced to live in leagues where survival was the first priority. English football has long been too competitive; three-down from the First Division simply made the prospect of improvement in standards and attitude much more remote.

Bertie Mee, manager of Arsenal, makes an interesting point about last season: 'Three-down was a failure. How else can you describe a situation in which a dozen of us, in charge of good teams if not among the best, got through the last month and then said "thank God, that's over"? In one small way I can illustrate the difference: over Easter I had four young players I wanted to bring into the first team, lads who are our future, who would have benefited from a few games in the top League ready for next season. I didn't give one of them a game . . . I dared not, not when we needed points to be sure. That tells it all about the mood. Fear and tension were the influences last spring. How can our football, English football, ever improve like this? One down, not three, would make more sense.'

Because it is unfair to complain without offering constructive alternatives, let us consider another way in which the final months could be given more meaning. At present the four places open to England in the UEFA Cup are awarded to those teams near the top who win neither of the two major prizes—the title or the FA Cup. Rewards for runners-up, in effect. Why not, instead, offer those places to the four teams who score the most goals? The effect of this would be to put high-scoring in every club's mind from the start. Winning 2-0 in August or September, they'd have cause to go for a third or fourth goal. But, more to the point, they would have new and different incentives to drive them on through March and April.

Last season teams as lowly-placed as West Ham or Chelsea would have been involved. Instead of going out each Saturday obsessed with avoiding defeat, they would have begun matches feeling that goals alone mattered. What more could a crowd ask than to be offered a match in which it knew the players had only one aim – the scoring of goals? What better publicity for the game than the discussion on the prospect of Rovers or United achieving their target of four goals a game for the last six matches? What could cause a greater ripple of anticipation than seeing an attack begin, knowing it would be pressed home at whatever risk? What is more certain than the fact that coaches would begin scouring their staffs for unpredictable marksmen in these vital last weeks, rather than choosing their teams from defenders likely to make fewest mistakes?

We have tried the stick – it landed with a dull thwack on the backs of men already cowed with apprehension. Why not offer this carrot? If nothing else it would ensure that English football would be represented abroad by teams who have obtained their passport into Europe by proving they can perform more adventurously than the rest, As a bonus, it might even, in time, give us a new breed of scoring footballers to enliven the England team.

will not play again. Banks will be offered a job on Stoke's coaching staff . . . Freddie Cox, the old Arsenal player, who managed Bournemouth until 1970, dies at the age of 52, following a heart attack . . . Plymouth sign Harry Burrows, the Stoke forward . . . Alec Stock, the Fulham manager, appeals to people inside football to stop knocking the game . . . Brian Clough joins London Weekend TV on a part-time basis. He will appear on both the 'On the Ball' and 'Big Match' programmes. Clough says, 'I merely switched channels. This is no different to the amount of TV work I have been doing in the last three or four years.'

8 Mick Jones, the Notts Co. defender, signs for Peterborough (£6000) . . . Ray Pointer joins Blackpool as trainer/coach . . . Ajax beat Tottenham 4-1 in a friendly in Amsterdam . . . The players win the argument over the right to appeal against a caution, but in future the appeal must be lodged within seven days of the match in question, and if it is frivolous, the player's club may be fined and the suspension could be increased by one match. Basically the same points system will operate as last season, but clubs with poor disciplinary records will be heavily fined.

11 Bristol R. beat West Ham in the Watney Cup on penalties—6-5! Stoke win 1-0 at Plymouth and the two Second Division clubs Hull and Bristol C. are safely through into the semi-finals . . . Alan Hardaker says on television that he is optimistic concerning attendances in the coming season. 'The three-up-and-three-down system is a step in the right direction, but I'd like to see some pruning of international and European football. The League must remain strong because it is the root for our football.' . . . Colchester sign Paul Aimson from AFC Bournemouth for £10,000.

13 Bolton publicly state that Jimmy Armfield must stay with the club as manager for the three-year term of his contract. This is in answer to rumours which link Armfield with Sheffield U. . . . Following a wave of violence at football matches during the week, police will film crowds leaving stations and car parks at Coventry's home game v Spurs on August 25. Len Shipman, President of the League says, 'Violence on the terraces must be strangled at birth early this season. The League, police and local authorities must get together to work out a plan to stop this type of behaviour.'

14 Preston buy Francis Burns from Southampton for £35,000 . . . Hull beat Bristol R. 1-0 in the semi-final of the Watney Cup through a goal scored by Malcolm Lord. . . Arsenal are beaten 1-0 in a friendly by the Norwegian amateurs Frigg Oslo. Peter Storey is sent off, Pat Rice booked, and Alan Ball injured.

15 Manchester C. report a profit of over £250,000 for the year ending May 31 . . . A Sunday League amateur side play at Mainz, W. Germany, where they are mistakenly billed as 'Wolverhampton'. The locals put out their strongest side, thinking that they will face 'Wolves' with Dougan and Co. In front of a sizeable crowd, Mainz win 21-0! . . . Stoke reach the Watney Cup Final by beating Bristol C. 4-1 . . . Peter Storey is not reported to the FA concerning his sending-off at Oslo, as it was a friendly match.

16 Ajax have accepted a staggering £900,000 bid for Cruyff from Barcelona. Half of of the transfer fee goes to the player. The Dutch FA veto the move because the official transfer season is over and no Dutch player can change clubs until December 1. As a consequence of this decision, all members of the Netherlands Players Union Management Committee resign . . . Billy Bingham fines three of his players for being 45 minutes late back in their hotel after an evening out in Sweden. Harper, Kenyon, and Bernard are each fined a week's wages.

17 Millwall's League game at Preston on September 10 is put back a day because Bobby Charlton, Preston's manager, has to attend a dinner given to him and his brother Jack at the National Sporting Club, and Prime Minister Edward Heath is amongst the guests . . . Three Swindon players are sent home by manager Les Allen from their West Country tour for disciplinary reasons . . . Frank Clarke joins Carlisle from Ipswich for a fee of £35,000.

18 The FA emergency committee will decide whether to accuse Brian Clough of bringing the game into disrepute. They sent him a letter asking about an article he wrote in the Sunday Express concerning the suspended fine imposed on Leeds. Clough says, 'They are leaving a loophole. But I shall not take it.' . . . Gordon Banks officially confirms that he is retiring from active football. Banks, capped 73 times, will stay in football as a coach . . . Cambridge walk off in the 58th minute of a pre-season friendly v Colchester, but complete the match after two minutes' stoppage. Manager Bill Leivers says that he lost his temper after a goal was allowed to stand against his team, but decided to finish the game for the crowd's sake . . . Wolves beat Arsenal 3-1 in the FA Cup third place play-off at Highbury, and Burnley win the Charity Shield match 1-0 at Maine Road v Manchester C. . . . Celtic beat Rangers 2-1 in the Scottish League Cup, and when the visitors score their goals late in the game, hundreds of supporters invade the pitch . . . Trouble spots in England—Huddersfield, York, and Hereford. 34 people are arrested after the Huddersfield v Leeds game; at York, fighting on the terraces spreads on to the pitch, and 95 Oxford fans are held by the police when their train back to Oxford is stopped at Worcester.

20 Len Shipman, President of the Football League, says that the time has come for the Government to bring back the birch to deal with soccer hooligans. 'Ruthless action is imperative,' he says, 'fines will not stop the violence.' But the police put the blame on the antics of the players during the game. The Police Federation Journal writes, 'When an England player in an international match is seen by millions of TV viewers to spend most of the first half trying to intimidate the referee, and gets himself sent off after attacking an opponent, what happens? He is picked again and only prevented from playing again by higher authority. Can we wonder at the behaviour of young hooligans, who, after all, are not paid large sums for playing the game?' . . . Joe Kinnear wishes to leave Spurs but Nicholson says that he needs all his first team squad members.

21 Alan Hardaker says that the answer to soccer hooliganism is 'seats only' stadiums. The League Management Committee might grant financial help to clubs which cannot afford to install seats on their terraces . . . Chelsea are fined £750 and Ron Harris £25, because the player appeared in a friendly match last season when under suspension.

22 Manchester U. put the former England player David Sadler on the transfer list at £45,000 . . . Don Revie asks the FA to send an assessor to Leeds' away matches. Revie says, '70% of our bookings were on away grounds last season. The assessor would submit a report to me giving a personal view of any incident in which my players are cautioned.' . . . According to a Nairobi News Agency, a witch-doctor wrote to Sir Alf Ramsey and offered his help in getting England into the World Cup finals. He wrote, 'I, Shariff Abubakar Omar, am the leading witch-doctor in East Africa with international repute in football and other matters. I have helped Kenya and Uganda national teams to win trophies in the past.'

23 Tip and Tap, the 1974 FIFA World Cup mascots are officially 'introduced' at a press reception by Sir Stanley Rous. 'It is a very expensive business to stage a World Cup. We need all the revenue, so we must restrict souvenir piracy,' said the FIFA President . . . Derek Dougan suggests a 'peace-formula' on the eve of the new season. He proposes monthly meetings between all interested parties—players, managers, legislators, referees—to iron out the game's problems . . . David Payne (C. Palace) signs for Orient for £20,000.

24 Chelsea drop Alan Hudson for the opening League match at Derby, but Ian Hutchinson is back in the team . . . John Jackson and Iain Phillip are the surprise omissions from the C. Palace team . . . West Ham sign Paul Sussans, a 23-year-old amateur forward, as a full pro. He is a University graduate, a former Corinthian Casuals player, and according to manager Greenwood, is 'an exceptional prospect', 25 A good start for the pre-season favourites in the First Division. Leeds, Liverpool. Arsenal, and Derby all win their home matches . . . Denis Law scores twice for Manchester C. against Birmingham and Derek Dougan gets two goals v Norwich...

Burnley win 2-0 at Sheffield, but the other promoted team, Q.P.R., only draw at home with Southampton . . . The first league goal of the '73/'74 season is scored by John Woodward of York City, who nets after 70 seconds . . . Brian Hornsby comes on as sub. for Arsenal three seconds before the final whistle . . . Sadly, football hooliganism still makes the front pages—at Derby there is a battle between Chelsea and Derby supporters on the pitch! The police are powerless to stop it, but later eight youths are arrested . . . Manchester U. fans cause damage at Euston station and there are other trouble-spots . . . Hugh Curran (Oxford) and Ian Lawther (Stockport) are sent off . . . The official attendance figures show a drop of 35,000 compared with last season.

27 Nat Lofthouse joins the Arsenal scouting staff . . . Mervyn Day makes his league debut in goal for West Ham . . . Bobby Charlton signs his old clubmate Nobby Stiles from Middlesbrough for £20,000.

28 Peter Kitchen (Doncaster) gets the first hat-trick of the season in a League Cup match at Nottingham, where the Fourth Division club surprisingly beat Notts Co. 4-3.

29 George Eastham is booked for the first time in his 18-year career at Manchester where United beat Stoke 1-0 . . . Holland beat Iceland 8-1 in a World Cup match at Deventer.

30 Brian Clark (AFC Bournemouth) signs for Millwall for £35,000 . . . The Football League asks clubs to cooperate in rearranging fixtures during the season in view of the World Cup . . . If games are postponed for any reason, they should be fitted in the fixture list as soon as possible . . . Stoke is to ask the Football League not to appoint ref. John Hunting to any of their matches this season.

31 The Alan West transfer from Burnley to Sunderland falls through due to medical reasons . . . Billy Jennings, the young Watford player, gets the first League hat-trick of the season—his goals give a 3-2 away win to his club at Southend.

September

1 Leeds beat Tottenham 3-0, their second win in London in five days, and they are the only 100-per-centers in the First Division. Allan Clarke is carried off in the second half with a bad leg injury . . . Two players are sent off—Billy Wilson (Portsmouth) and Barrie Murphy (Barnsley) . . . A missile thrown from the crowd after the final whistle at Millwall knocks out Jim Cumbes, the Aston Villa goalkeeper . . . Hearts centre-forward Don Ford scores a hat-trick of penalties in his team's 3-2 away win at Morton.

3 Prompted by the Football League, the clubs promise support to Sir Alf Ramsey. League Cup ties will be brought forward to give time for an England get-together before the vital World Cup match against Poland on October 17.

4 Sheffield U. register the new season's biggest First Division win—5-0 v Arsenal!

5 Alan Hardaker attends the UEFA conference, specially convened to discuss the fall in attendance figures throughout the Continent. The English League Secretary blames the coaches for the decline in interest. 'We have to re-educate the coaches in order to make the game more interesting. There has been too much concentration on defence and not enough on attack.' . . . Leeds are the only club in the First Division with full points after four matches. They beat Wolves 4-1, and Derek Parkin is sent off . . . W. Germany beat Russia 1-0 in a friendly at Moscow.

6 Ted Croker takes over from Denis Follows as FA Secretary . . . George Best reports back to Manchester U. and will begin training next Monday . . . Johan Cruyff makes his debut in a friendly for Barcelona. The Spanish club wins 6-0 against Circle Bruges . . . Norwich sign Les Wilson, the ex-Bristol C. player, on a free transfer.

7 Alan Hunter, the N. Ireland international, is put on the transfer list by Ipswich.

8 Leeds beat Birmingham 3-0 with a Lorimer hat-trick, and lead the First Division with maximum points after five matches . . . Rotherham inflict an 8-1 beating on Crewe. 'Go home to bed, just keep out of sight,' says Jimmy Melia, the Crewe manager, to his players after the match . . . Everton coach Stewart Imlach is booked by referee Pat Partridge after his team lose 2-1 at Derby. Imlach admits that he called the official 'a cheat'.

10 Alan Ball claims that he is the victim of a personal vendetta being waged by Welsh referee Clive Thomas, who booked him on September 8 in the Leicester match. Ball indicated during the match that one of the linesmen needed spectacles, and was cautioned for 'ungentlemanly conduct' . . . George Best reports for training at Old Trafford.

11 Eddy Kelly, the Arsenal player who threw his shirt at the trainer's bench in disgust on Saturday when he was substituted, comes on the field bare-chested against Sheffield U. at Highbury. To the crowd's amusement, he pulls on the No. 11 jersey just before the start of the game, which the Gunners win 1-0 with a late Kennedy goal. Malcolm Allison decides to move the touchlines 3 yards and narrows the pitch at Selhurst Park. C. Palace draw 0-0 with Aston Villa—their first point and first 'shut-out' of the season . . . Leeds still have a 100% record—they win 2-0 at Molineux.

12 Alan Durban, the Welsh international, moves to Shrewsbury from Derby for a reputed fee of £12,000 . . . Steve Burtenshaw offers his resignation as Arsenal's first team coach and it is 'reluctantly accepted by the Board'. During the last two seasons, since Burtenshaw took over from Don Howe, Arsenal reached the Cup Final once in 1972 and were runners-up in the league last season. Later it is announced that Bobby Campbell, the Q.P.R. coach, will take over the Arsenal job . . . Alex Stepney scores from a penalty at home against Leicester, but the visitors win 2-1 . . . Gillingham score seven goals in a Fourth Division match against Scunthorpe . . . Ken Wallace moves from Hereford to Exeter on a free transfer . . . In the first European competition match of the season Ards beat Standard Liege 3-2 in the UEFA Cup . . . Holland win 2-1 at Oslo against Norway and need only one point against Belgium to qualify for the World Cup Finals.

13 Polish star Lubanski has a knee operation and is out for the season. He will not be available to play for Poland against either Wales or England.

14 Brian Bromley joins Reading from Brighton for a £10,000 fee . . . Bobby Moore is pressing for a transfer from West Ham! The England captain tells manager Ron Greenwood that he 'would not be against a move'. According to reports, Brian Clough would like to sign Moore and move Colid Todd to midfield.

15 Bobby Moore is dropped against Manchester U., and West Ham lose 3-1 at Old Trafford . . . In the Second Division five clubs are joint top with seven points—amongst them are Aston Villa and Sunderland, both pre-season favourites for promotion . . . In Scotland, Celtic beat Rangers 1-0 with a Jimmy Johnstone goal... Argentina draw with Paraguay 1-1 in a World Cup match.

17 Middlesbrough sign Bobby Murdoch, Celtic's Scottish international, on a free transfer . . . Denis Law is included in the Scotland squad for the decisive World Cup tie v Czechoslovakia and Mike England is named as skipper of Wales for the Poland match . . . Jim Hall scores four goals for Peterborough against Doncaster—the best individual haul of the season. Other hat-tricks are registered by Bobby Shinton (Walsall) and Terry Eccles (Mansfield) . . . Two Walsall directors, Arthur Foxall and Don Anderson resign . . . Southern League Romford are involved in Cup 'walk-out'. In an Essex County Cup match at Chelmsford the score is 1-1 at the end of 90 minutes, and when the home team stays on for extra time, Romford refuse to continue, saying that there is no rule to play extra time.

18 Bobby Moore is not for sale! That is the latest announcement from the West Ham board. The England captain is included in Sir Alf Ramsey's squad for the Austrian match, together with team-mate Trevor Brooking. Other comparative newcomers besides the Hammers' forward, are Osgood and Kevin Hector . . . Bristol C. goal-keeper Ray Cashley scores a freak goal against Hull in a league match. His huge 100-yard clearance bounces past Jeff Weelands, the Hull 'keeper, into the net. City win 3-1 and are top of the Second Division table. Their neighbours Rovers win 2-0 at Shrewsbury and they are leading the Third Division.

19 West Ham sign Sunderland full-back Keith Coleman for £20,000 . . . A good start for British teams in European football; although Leeds and Liverpool only draw their away fixtures, Sunderland win 2-0 at Budapest and Spurs beat Grasshoppers 5-1 at Zurich! Highest scorers are Celtic—6-1 winners v Turku in Finland.

20 The transfer market is beginning to wake up—Everton sign Dave Clements, Sheffield W.'s Irish international for £80,000, Birmingham pay £40,000 to Huddersfield for Dennis Clarke, and Walsall keep on loan striker Alan Buckley from Nottingham F. for £20,000.

21 John Boyle, the Chelsea player, has been loaned to Brighton, but Dave Sexton makes it clear that the player is not for sale . . . Derby sign Everton defender Henry Newton for £100,000.

22 Kevin Hector scores a hat-trick in Derby's 6-2 win over Southampton . . . Leeds drop a point for the first time this season—Manchester U. draw 0-0 at Elland Road. Jim Holton and Joe Jordan are booked, so Leeds blot their record in that respect as well! . . . Still without a win are West Ham, Birmingham, and Stoke in Division 1, and C. Palace in Division 2. Palace are 2-0 up at home v Cardiff, but the teams finish level at 3-3 . . . A Notts Co. penalty is taken at Portsmouth by three different players and all fail to score. The first re-take is ordered because the goalkeeper moved, the second because the referee didn't give a signal . . . All three Liverpool goals are scored by their full-backs against Chelsea—Lawler gets two and Lindsay one.

23 Television commercials are screened to advertise the England v Austria match at Wembley. The advance sales are poor and the FA decide to make a bolder bid for customers.

24 Palace buy Derek Jeffries from Manchester C. for £100,000.

25 Bobby Moore has been dropped from the England team against Austria, but he is one of the five substitutes named. Hunter takes over from him in the back four and Martin Peters is the new skipper . . . Denis Law is included in the Scotland team v Czechoslovakia, and Tommy Hutchison of Coventry will collect his first cap in the same match . . . In Portugal, George Best plays 45 minutes in the Eusebio testimonial match. The score is 2-2 between Benfica and an International XI.

26 Scotland qualify for the World Cup Finals for the first time since 1958. They beat Czechoslovakia 2-1 at Hampden Park with goals by Jim Holton and Joe Jordan. The visitors go ahead through Nehoda, but Scotland equalise before half-time. In the 75th minute sub Jordan heads the winner . . . Poland beat Wales 3-0 at Chorzow. Trevor Hockey is sent off, but according to the reports several players of both sides deserved the same fate. Now England must beat Poland in October at Wembley to reach the Finals. England have a highly encouraging warm-up game against Austria. Only 48,000 people see England win 7-0—the highest score against a foreign side since 1961! After the match Sir Alf Ramsey says that he is delighted by the team's performance, but will not commit himself to name the same eleven for the Poland match. 'I've been manager of England for ten and a half years and people are always telling me that I'm no good. They pick teams for me, they write letters. But I'm afraid they'll have to wait to know the team I'll play against Poland.' . . . In other World Cup matches, N. Ireland draw with Bulgaria, Switzerland beat Luxembourg 1-0, and E. Germany defeat Rumania 2-0. The Russia v Chile play-off match ends in a goalless draw in Moscow . . . Palace sign Roy Barry from Coventry for a £45,000 transfer fee . . . John Richards is sent off in Lisbon, where Wolves beat Belenenses 2-0 in the UEFA Cup.

27 Brentford sign Dave Metchik, who was previously with the Atlanta Apollos in the USA . . . Jimmy Hagan leaves Benfica after an argument concerning the selection of players for the Eusebio testimonial match. He has been the manager of the club for two seasons and won the championship with them in both seasons. Hagan says that he would like to work in English football.

28 A newspaper campaign calls for the live televising of the crucial England v Poland game. The ITV channel has the right to show highlights of the match, but they can only show the entire game live if the BBC agrees. The Corporation would only give its consent if both companies—the BBC and the ITV—could show the match... Tony Book has been named as the assistant manager of Manchester C.

October

1 ITV bid £50,000 for the right to televise the England v Poland match live . . . Scunthorpe pay £12,000 to Blackpool for Chris Simpkin . . . Don Ford of Hearts replaces the injured Colin Stein in Scotland's squad v Czechoslovakia in Bratislava. As Scotland have already qualified, this World Cup tie is of very little importance... Phil Parkes (Q.P.R.) is the only newcomer into the England party for the decisive Poland match. Alan Ball will train with the squad, although he is suspended by FIFA . . . Birmingham pay a record £100,000 fee for a goalkeeper when they buy Gary Sprake from Leeds.

2 Leeds sign David Stewart, the Ayr goalkeeper, for £30,000 . . . Shock start to the second round of the League Cup—Tranmere beat Arsenal 1-0 at Highbury and Manchester C. draw 0-0 at Walsall! . . .

3 All six English teams progress into the second round in the European competitions. Tottenham have the highest aggregate win—9-2 over Grasshoppers, Leeds are the highest scorers of the evening—6-1 v Stroemgodset of Norway, but Ipswich earn most praise for their 0-0 draw in Madrid v Real.

4 Alan Ball sustained a serious injury against Tranmere and might be out of football for six weeks . . . Len Stringer, Brighton's Joint Chairman, has resigned for personal and business reasons.

5 Ron Greenwood drops goalkeeper Ferguson and defenders Lock and Tommy Taylor from the West Ham team against Burnley . . . Brian Clough signs the Luton defender Ken Goodeve for Brighton for £20,000.

8 A day of records in the Football League—attendances are the worst for a Saturday this season and Tottenham have their lowest gate, 14,034, for 20 years. Yet the Liverpool derby draws 56,098 people to Goodison Park . . . Two players are carried off and five booked in the grudge match between Birmingham and Newcastle . . . Leeds equal Liverpool's 24-year-old record by remaining unbeaten in the First Division for 19 games. York City equal a record of 47 years standing by not conceding a goal in eleven consecutive matches . . . Bristol R. are the other record-breakers—an unbeaten start of 20 games in Division Three . . . Ray Treacy moves from Swindon to Preston for £30,000. Mel Machin, John Benson, and Fred Davies will follow their old boss John Bond to Norwich from AFC Bournemouth. The Third Division club will get Clive Payne and £40,000 from Norwich.

10 Freddie Goodwin, the Birmingham manager, advocates the introduction of a 'sin-bin' in football. He thinks that Saturday's scandalous game between his club and Newcastle might have been saved if a few players were put in the 'cooler'. Ted Croker, the FA secretary, says, 'There were one or two players on the pitch in that game who made me feel ashamed to be a member of the same profession.' . . . Peter Baldwin, who refereed the Notts Co. v Orient match, was apparently attacked and spat upon after the game by several Nottingham supporters.

11 Len Shipman, Football League President, aged 72, is seriously ill in hospital . . . Alan Ball of Arsenal faces disciplinary action by the FA because in a newspaper article he has made disparaging remarks about referees.

12 Five headed goals give Tottenham a 5-1 UEFA Cup third round second leg win over Dinamo Tbilisi of Russia . . . Ipswich are also through to the quarter-finals, thanks to a 2-1 win at Enshede v Twente, but Leeds lose to Setubal on a 3-2 aggregate. Top attendance of the round is at Leipzig, where 80,000 people see the local team beat Dusseldorf 3-0!

14 Football loses the 'generator game'! Strict instructions are issued by the Government that all the matches must be played off in daylight and no private generators can be used . . . Wolverhampton's attempt to suspend the league programme is not backed up by the other Midlands clubs. Wolves call a meeting in order to draft a proposal, but the majority of the clubs in the area decide to abide by the League's decisions . . . Haiti qualify for the World Cup finals as representatives of the CONCACAF countries . . . Mexico are beaten twice in the round-robin and are eliminated.

15 Leeds break a 24-year-old record with a tremendous display at Stamford Bridge. They beat Chelsea 2-1 and in 20 league matches they have only dropped six points and, of course, remain unbeaten.

16 A special meeting of the League Management Committee decides to carry on with the programme as scheduled, despite the energy crisis and the railway strike.

18 John Boyle of Chelsea has joined Orient on a free transfer . . . Derek Dougan attacks the Minister of Sport in a magazine article saying that Eldon Griffiths has had plenty of time to study the Chester report, but he has done nothing to further the cause of soccer.

19 The Football Association asks the Home Office for special permission to stage matches on Sundays. It has been pointed out that due to the three-day working week regulations, games might have to be played off during every day of the week, whenever electricity is available for the dressing-rooms, offices, etc. On Sundays there will be a more guaranteed access to power, although the current railway go-slow might still affect attendances . . . Yugoslavia beat Greece 4-2 and now have to play off against Spain for a place in the World Cup finals . . . . Plymouth beat Birmingham 2-1 at St Andrews and reach the semi-final of the League Cup.

20 Manager Ronnie Allen and his assistant David Burnside are sacked at Walsall for economy reasons . . . C. Palace sign Mick Hill of Ipswich for £36,000 . . . The Government has turned down the request for Sunday soccer. Alan Hardaker, who is not in favour of the move, is angry, not with this decision, but at the general attitude to football. 'We have been classed as an industry for the purpose of the Industrial Relations Act, but not for the purpose of using generators!'

21 Some clubs might still consider playing on Sundays and selling programmes at higher prices instead of charging for admission . . . Brighton sign two Burnley players, Henry Wilson and Ron Welch, at the joint fee of £70,000 . . . Preston have been fined £200 and one point was deducted from their league total for fielding an unregistered player in a match against Oxford on November 17. Dave Carrick, signed during the same week from Witton Albion, was the substitute but his registration wasn't yet endorsed by the league. This is only the fourth time that the league has taken points away from clubs. Sunderland once lost two points, Stockport two and Peterborough 18.

22 Arsenal and Burnley attack the FA's decision to sanction Sunday football. Bob Lord: 'Clubs are bringing the game into disrepute if they are getting round the Sunday Observance Act by selling programmes.' Bob Wall: 'Playing football and making profits on Sundays is wrong. We will not disturb the peace and quiet of the neighbourhood of Highbury on that day.' FIFA's referees' committee is to ask the International Board to alter the laws of the game so a player cannot be offside from a free kick. Experiments will be carried out before this important change can be discussed next June . . . Billy Bremner is presented with a silver salver to mark his 500th League appearance for Leeds . . . The usual drop in attendances immediately before Christmas is even more marked today than in other years. Several clubs have their lowest gates of the season and at Hartlepool only 832 people turn up—the worst attendance in the club's history.

24 On Christmas Eve, Sheffield W. dismiss Derek Dooley, who has been their manager for two years . . . West Ham sign Mick McGiven from Sunderland. The player has been on loan to the London club and a £30,000 fee made the move permanent.

26 An unexpected boom in attendances on Boxing Day—727,110 people see the 46 league games—easily the best total of the season . . . Brian Yeo scores a hat-trick for Gillingham and is the first player to register 20 goals this season . . . Leeds win at Newcastle and stretch their lead to nine points on top of the table . . . In the other divisions Middlesbrough lead by seven points, Bristol R. by three, and Peterborough by one . . . Martin Chivers is dropped by manager Nicholson, but comes on as a sub 20 minutes from the end of the 0-0 draw at home v Q.P.R.

27 Yugoslavia threatens to pull out of the World Cup if FIFA insists on their plan to stage the Spain v Yugoslavia play-off match on January 16. The Eastern Europeans are having their winter break and won't restart their league until early March . . . Cambridge have decided to play off their FA Cup tie v Oldham on Sunday morning (Jan 6)—with FA approval! . . . Norwich boss John Bond buys his old West Ham team-mate Johnny Sissons from Sheffield W. for £30,000.

29 Manchester U. sign Stewart Houston from Brentford. The £55,000 fee is a record for the Fourth Division club . . . Paul Cheesley joins Bristol C. from Norwich for £30,000, and Ernie Hunt of Coventry goes to Bristol C. for a months' loan . . . Middlesbrough establish a new club record of 22 consecutive unbeaten league matches . . . Nearly 50 players are booked and two sent off on the last Saturday of 1973.

January 1974

1 The first-ever full New Year's day programme is welcomed by huge attendances. 668,942 fans see the 44 League matches.

3 Sensational news from Chelsea—both Osgood and Hudson are put on the transfer list. They were left out of the team's New Year's day match at Sheffield and were told to train with the reserves. This morning, manager Sexton asks them to join the first team squad in preparation for the Cup tie v Q.P.R. on Saturday. Both players refuse and are immediately suspended for one week. In retalation, they ask for a transfer, and after consulting his board of directors, Sexton agrees . . . It is reported from Manchester that George Best has failed to turn up for training . . . The decision of the FA to let the fourth round Cup draw be televised live at 4.50 p.m. on Saturday is attacked by the Press, and many people inside the game. Arthur Page, the Orient chairman says, 'It is ridiculous. It might encourage people to stay away from the matches if the weather is bad. There are too many amateurs running the game today, they do not look far enough.'

5 Scotland have drawn Zaire, Brazil, and either Spain or Yugoslavia in the World Cup Finals . . . The usual shocks in the FA Cup include Boston's draw at Derby, and amateur Hendon's draw at Newcastle . . . The day's biggest attendance is in Glasgow, where Celtic beat Rangers 1-0 and lead the league by seven points . . . Peter Thompson has joined Bolton from Liverpool for £18,000.

6 An historic day for British professional football. Four FA Cup ties are played on this Sunday and are welcomed by large attendances. Nearly 40,000 people see the tie at Bolton v Stoke—a staggering 20,000 above the normal gate figures of the Lancashire club. The first-ever Sunday match kicks off at 11 o'clock at Cambridge, where 8479 people—easily the club's best crowd of the season—see the home club draw 2-2 with Oldham . . . Ted Croker, FA secretary, says, 'Football is the national game and we should be concerned to give the public what they want when they want it. A lot of people do want to watch football on Sundays.' But Alan Hardaker is less enthusiastic: 'We must not have our heads too high in the clouds. Bolton, for example, played the only game in Lancashire and it was a novelty. I would want to see a lot more Sunday football in other parts of the country before I become convinced.'

7 Stewart Jump joins C. Palace from Stoke for a £70,000 fee.

9 The holders, Sunderland, are out of the FA Cup. They are beaten 1-0 by Carlisle at Roker Park . . . Hereford beat West Ham 2-1, but amateurs Hendon lose against Newcastle . . . Bob Stokoe and Bill McGarry complain about the referees in strong terms after the Cup replays. Stokoe says that as Pat Partridge hails from only 30 miles from Sunderland, he should not have been appointed. Wolves' manager, McGarry, says, 'Kirkpatrick caused us to lose the tie against Leeds. He should have given us two penalties.' . . . Alan Ball is fined £75 by the FA for bringing the game into disrepute by denigrating referees in a newspaper article.

10 Derby bid £300,000 for Peter Osgood. The deal would involve Roger Davies, who would be valued at £125,000. Chelsea accept the offer, but the England forward would like to consider all enquiries first.

12 Stoke sign Alan Hudson for £240,000 and are back in the race for Peter Osgood. Osgood plays for Chelsea reserves at Stamford Bridge and is taken off after 18 minutes with a groin injury . . . Leeds and Bristol R. are still unbeaten . . . Terry Cooper, the ex-international full-back, plays his first full game since breaking a leg, coming through a reserve game without injury . . . Manchester U. suspend George Best for two weeks, and put him on the transfer list . . . At Portsmouth, the floodlights are switched on, powered by mains electricity after the generators fail. As this is against Government regulations, the Chief Constable of the County has reported the club.

14 The Football League notifies clubs that during the emergency they can play their League matches on Sundays, but they must notify the League before the previous Wednesday, and both clubs must agree . . . Blackburn appoint Gordon Lee as manager, and the ex-Port Vale boss is offered a two-year contract . . . Barry Powell of Wolves, who was originally selected for Wales, has been drafted into the England Under-23 squad in place of the injured Len Cantello. Barry is the son of the former Welsh international Ivor Powell, but as he has already played for an England Youth team, he is not eligible for Wales . . . David Peach, 22-year-old Gillingham defender, signs for Southampton for a reported fee of £50,000.

15 Chelsea agree to play their League game at Stoke on Sunday, January 27—the first Division One match to be staged on a Sunday in England.

16 Sidney Brickman, the wealthy chairman of Southern League club Tonbridge, wants to sign George Best and has offered £100,000 for him. Tommy Docherty has spoken to Brickman, but regards the bid as a publicity stunt . . . Ajax win the new 'Super Cup' by beating AC Milan 6-0 (6-1 on aggregate) in Amsterdam.

17 Chelsea buy back Charlie Cooke from C. Palace for £17,000. 16 months ago Palace had paid around £85,000 for the player . . . After last night's disappointing 0-0 draw against Wales in the Under-23 international, Sir Alf Ramsey says that the players need some incentive on this level, and that is why England have entered the junior version of the European Championship.

18 The Football League asks the clubs to vote on a new deal offered by the TV companies, which would guarantee £3½ million in the next three seasons. Gerry Loftus, ITV's chief negotiator, emphasises that the companies cannot offer more money: 'Clubs do not appreciate how much is brought into football by advertising—mainly from TV coverage.'

19 A day of drawn games in the First Division—eight matches end as draws . . . Both Leeds and Bristol R. are still unbeaten—after 26 games each—but York City are beaten for the first time in 21 matches . . . Mike Channon is Division One's current top scorer with 16 league goals . . . Real Madrid manager Miguel Munoz has resigned and it has been suggested that the Spanish club has approached Don Revie.

20 The first ever Sunday Football League matches have attracted large gates. All twelve clubs have recorded above-average figures, and several more Sunday fixtures are planned during the emergency.

21 Melwyn Griffith, the Welsh FIFA referee, who was in charge of the legendary 'Matthews Cup Final' in 1953, has died at the age of 65.

22 Danny Hegan has been fined two weeks wages by Sunderland, because he went absent last week.

23 Alan Hudson is in dispute with Chelsea over his 5% transfer cut. The club claims that the player asked for a move, but Hudson says that he did not put his request in writing and is therefore entitled to £10,000. The Football League confirm that the player will not get the money, but he is entitled to contest the case before the Independent Tribunal.

24 Newcastle pay £150,000 for Preston striker Alex Bruce . . . Malcolm Allison wants London clubs to play Saturday and Sunday on a rota basis, and would like Palace and Chelsea to pioneer the idea . . . TV sports executives have delivered a blunt ultimatum to the Football League clubs. Sam Leitch of the BBC says, 'We have tendered our final offer to the clubs. There isn't a single penny left in the kitty. If the clubs say "no" to the new contract, then there will be no more League matches on the screens of either BBC or ITV'.

25 'If I can't get into a struggling team like Manchester United, it is time to quit,' says George Best, who has retired from football . . . Bob Lord has slammed the TV companies for their high-handed ultimatum. 'If it has come to a showdown, then let's have a showdown. I am not against soccer on TV, but we are giving this facility for far too little money.'

26 Generally a bad day for First Division clubs in the fourth round of the FA Cup. Newcastle draw with Scunthorpe and Liverpool draw with Carlisle at Anfield . . . A John Richards' goal puts Wolves in the League Cup Final—their first appearance at Wembley since 1960 . . . Ernie Hunt has signed for Bristol C. and leads the team to a 1-0 win over Hereford . . . Terry Cooper plays for the Leeds first team for the first time since April 1972.

27 Another massive vote for Sunday football—increased attendances at every ground! Coventry have their highest Cup gate for 11 years . . . Alan Hudson, playing for his new club Stoke against Chelsea, is brought down in the 81st minute, and Geoff Hurst converts the hotly disputed penalty. It is enough to give victory to Stoke.

29 Steve Burtenshaw, the Q.P.R. coach, has been appointed as the new manager of Sheffield W. . . . League clubs are pushing ahead with plans to play on Sundays, despite the fact that Saturday is no longer an emergency working day.

30 Jimmy Hogan, arguably the outstanding coach of the pre-war era, dies aged 92 . . . Newcastle have reached the Fifth Round of the FA Cup for the first time for 13 years with a 3-0 win at Scunthorpe . . . Jimmy Allan, the 19-year-old Swindon goalkeeper, is the first league player to refuse to play on Sundays for religious reasons . . . Everton sell Joe Harper to Hibernian for £120,000—a record sum for a player going from England to Scotland . . . Stanley Kinder, the Huddersfield chairman has resigned.

February

1 Terry Garbett has moved to Sheffield U. from Blackburn for £35,000 . . . Noel Cantwell has signed a three-year contract with Peterborough and has said that if any other club wants him as manager, they will have to pay a transfer fee to the 'Posh'.

2 Only 18 goals are scored in the First Division, and seven of the matches end in a draw. Ipswich beat Southampton 7-0—their best-ever win in Division One . . . Leeds are still unbeaten, but Bristol R. are defeated at Wrexham . . . Frank Munro, the Wolverhampton defender, is sent off at Molineux during a match against Stoke . . . Derek Dougan says that if the club chairmen veto TV for next season, members of the PFA might withdraw their labour. They have collected £25,000 each year from this source and the money is used for the education of players in different trades. Dougan has complained that the PFA was not consulted concerning a possible TV black-out.

3 The Football League has rejected the three-year offer from the BBC and ITV. The voting is 28 against and 18 for the offer, and it means an end to Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon football on TV next season. Both companies have expressed their disappointment over the decision, but they have restated that they are not in the position to make an increased offer . . . Once again, above average crowds attend today's (Sunday) 17 league matches.

5 After days of wrangling, the Bournemouth board agrees to sell Phil Boyer to Norwich for £150,000. Boyer and McDougall have played together for York City and Bournemouth, and now they will team up for Norwich.

6 FA officials wish to ensure that every First and Second Division manager will go to the World Cup. Ted Croker says, 'We hope to have about 30 coaches based in a sports centre in Cologne. We should learn everything we can. It will be nice to say, when we qualify in 1978, that we were ready to look and learn in 1974.'

7 Brian Clough has accused his players of not knowing their own trade. He has also said that the players have shirked all moral responsibilities. He is backed up by assistant manager Peter Taylor . . . Peter Hindley, 29, has joined Coventry for £35,000.

8 Brian Greenhalgh, leading scorer at Cambridge, has joined Bournemouth for £38,000 . . . Nine Ajax players are planning a World Cup boycott because they regard the bonus payments as 'insufficient' . . . Three British referees—Jack Taylor, Clive Thomas, and Bob Davidson—have been invited to officiate in the World Cup finals . . . Derek Dougan has responded to Brian Clough's attack on his Brighton players: 'He shouldn't criticise his players publicly, unless he allows them to answer back.'

9 60,025 people—the largest league attendance this season—see Leeds beat Manchester U. 2-0 at Old Trafford. United are bottom of the First Division and Leeds lead the field by nine points.

13 Yugoslavia beat Spain 1-0 at Frankfurt and qualify for the World Cup Finals.

14 Bob Latchford has signed for Everton for an estimated record transfer fee of £350,000—Everton defenders Howard Kendall and Arthur Styles, plus £80,000 cash, make up the fee. Freddie Goodwin, who a few weeks ago vowed that he would not sell Latchford or Francis, has defended the move by saying that no players are available for money and he had to settle for an exchange deal . . . Peter Osgood will play for Chelsea against Aberdeen in a friendly, but remains on the transfer list . . . Bournemouth have signed the Plymouth winger Alan Welsh for £30,000.

15 Bertie Mee says that English football needs a 'dictator': 'Too many clubs—perhaps understandably—are acting out of self-interest. We have to have a more positive professional leadership.'

16 David Smallman scores the winning goal for giantkillers Wrexham in the FA Cup fifth round tie at Southampton. Leeds draw at Bristol C., but Liverpool beat Ipswich 2-0 at Anfield.

18 The Football v Television war continues. Q.P.R. last night banned the cameras from their replay against Coventry because they felt that an early announcement on TV might harm the gates. Bob Lord of Burnley demands £10,000 for the televising of his club's sixth round tie v Wrexham. 'I have never said that we should not have TV football, but if matches are screened, the TV companies must pay adequate compensation. There is no possibility of the figure being reduced.' Both BBC and ITV have a written agreement with the FA that all four quarter-finals of the Cup will be covered, but apparently Burnley do not feel obliged to comply with this contract . . . Gordon Dunwoodie, secretary of the Scottish Players Union, says that talk of a strike during the World Cup is premature. Earlier it was suggested in the Continental Press that the players might attempt to boycott the World Cup, unless their demands (freedom of movement, limited contract periods, pension schemes etc.) are granted.

19 Bristol C. beat Leeds at Elland Road in a sensational F.A. Cup replay. Don Gillies scores the only goal of the match in the 73rd minute . . . In London, Q.P.R. beat Coventry 3-2—the winning goal is scored from a free-kick by Stan Bowles seconds before the final whistle . . . Celtic pay £30,000 to Sheffield United for Jim Bone . . . John Evanson has moved from Oxford to Blackpool for £40,000.

20 Derby have signed Bruce Rioch from Aston Villa for £200,000 . . . Ted Croker states that clubs must honour the FA's contracts with the TV companies, or opt out of the competitions. But the FA will not put pressure on Burnley because it is understood that the clubs have the option on whether to allow the cameras into their grounds.

23 Leeds unbeaten League record ends at Stoke. The visitors take a two-goal lead early in the match, but Stoke equalise before half-time. Dennis Smith heads the winning goal in the 67th minute . . . Liverpool draw at Newcastle and are now eight points points behind Leeds with one game in hand . . . Spain beat W. Germany 1-0 in a friendly.

25 Ted Croker, FA secretary, calls for the introduction of professional referees and the permanent establishment of Sunday League football . . . Brian Clough says that TV must be banned from the grounds for at least six months to see the effect on attendances. 'I would like to see TV commentators—including myself—on the dole.'

26 Two players, Jackson of Notts Forest and Heppolette of Orient, are sent off at Nottingham, where Forest beat Orient 2-1 . . . W. Germany draw 0-0 with Italy in Rome. This is the 11th consecutive match in which Italy have not conceded a goal and 'keeper Dino Zoff, of Juventus, remains unbeaten for 1017 minutes.

27 The England Youth team beat Holland 1-0 and need only one more point to qualify for the Finals of the UEFA Youth Tournament in Sweden.

28 Preston pay £70,000 for Mike Elwiss of Doncaster . . . The sage of discontent at Chelsea continues. Tommy Baldwin is fined two weeks' wages and Ian Hutchinson is on the transfer list. Hutchinson says, 'This thing has been dragging on for weeks.'

Chelsea have not told me how much they think I'm worth on the market.' Osgood has confirmed that he is also determined to get away and is worried about the approaching transfer deadline . . . Alan Hudson is recalled into the international reckoning and is included in the England U-23 squad v Scotland. Ian Gillard of Q.P.R. is a newcomer in the party . . . Swindon sack Les Allen following a series of disappointing results. Swindon are bottom of the Second Division.

March

1 Mansfield striker Dudley Roberts signs for Scunthorpe.

2 Wolverhampton win the League Cup with a dramatic late goal by John Richards. It brings the first major honour to manager Bill McGarry, skipper Mike Bailey, and star striker Derek Dougan. After the final whistle, Rodney Marsh walks into the dressing room snubbing the usual presentation of tankards to the runners-up . . . Billy Bonds scores his first-ever hat-trick against Chelsea, on an afternoon when he is presented with 'Player of the Month' awards by both London evening newspapers . . . Two players, Bobby Kerr and Denis Tueart, are sent off at Sunderland in the local derby v Middlesbrough, and Millwall manager Benny Fenton is warned by the referee at Portsmouth, where he runs on to the pitch to remonstrate with one of the Pompey players. Fenton is told to leave the bench and take a seat in the stand.

4 After a four-hour board meeting at Chelsea it is reported that the club has decided to keep Osgood and dismiss manager Dave Sexton, who during his six years at the London club won the FA Cup and the European Cup-Winners' Cup with them. With several star players on the transfer list and the team in the relegation zone, the situation has reached crisis point, and the directors appear to have sided with the discontented few. As one player put it to an Evening Standard reporter: 'Osgood has proved to be greater than the club—and Dave Sexton' . . . The PFA have announced their selections for their awards. Player of 1973 is Norman Hunter, and Young Player of 1973 is Kevin Beattie. Special awards for services to football go to Bobby Charlton and Cliff Lloyd.

5 The situation at Chelsea changes completely. Brian Mears states that Sexton is staying with the club and there has been a misunderstanding by the Press. Later, the manager confirms that he has no intention of leaving, and Osgood is still available for transfer. The break between the club and player seems final, as the England international asks for his cards and says that he'll retire from football.

6 Roy Stewart of Glentoran, who played against Moenchengladbach in the Cup-Winners' Cup tie yesterday, dies after a heart attack . . . Both Ipswich and Tottenham win their matches in the UEFA Cup . . . Shock result of the European Cup – Red Star Belgrade 0, Atlètico Madrid 2 . . . Danny Williams is back at Swindon as manager. His present club Mansfield have reluctantly released him from his contract.

7 Aldershot sign Leicester defender Joe Jopling for a club record £13,000 fee . . . Dave Stainforth joins Bristol R. from Sheffield U. for £25,000 . . . Denis Tueart of Sunderland is on the transfer list, and his colleague Micky Horswill has also put in a written request for a move.

8 West Ham put Bobby Moore up for sale! The former England captain says that he would like to find a new club and a fresh challenge before next Thursday's transfer deadline. Manager Ron Greenwood pays this tribute to Moore: 'Grateful is hardly the word for what he has done for the club and football. He is a splendid advertisement for the game.' . . . Denis Howell is the Minister for Sport in the new Labour Government.

9 Cup drama at Newcastle! Nottingham F. are awarded a penalty in the second half and the vehemently protesting Pat Howard is sent off. Lyall scores from the spot to put the visitors 3–1 up, and the crowd invades the pitch. Referee Gordon Kew takes the players off the field, but after an eight-minute break, play resumes. Ten-man

Newcastle then score three times to win the quarter-final 4–3! . . . At Q.P.R., third choice Leicester midfielder John Waters, a 20-year-old Eire youth international, scores both goals in a 2–0 victory. It is Waters' first-ever game for the first team! . . . Burnley and Liverpool end the cup runs of Wrexham and Bristol C. respectively . . . Leeds are back on the winning trail. They beat Manchester C. 1–0 through a disputed penalty.

10 Three Plymouth players are sent off in a League match at Port Vale. Referee Kevin McNally gives marching orders to Steve Davey (17th minute), and David Provan and Bobby Saxton in injury time.

11 Nottingham F. ask for the annulment of last Saturday's Cup result at Newcastle. But the draw for the semi-finals includes Newcastle and a decision will be made later. Leonard Conroy, one of the pitch-invaders, is sentenced to six months imprisonment for breach of the peace and assaulting a police officer . . . Harry Gregg, manager of Swansea, is also in court – for swearing at a referee. He pleads guilty to using indecent language and is fined £20 . . . Another substantial package deal takes Denis Tueart (£250,000) and Micky Horswill (£100,000) from Sunderland to Manchester C., and Tony Towers moves from Manchester C. to Sunderland for £125,000 . . . Sir Alf Ramsey includes Stan Bowles, Duncan McKenzie, and Denis Tueart in his squad for the Inter-League match against Scotland and for the full international friendly in Lisbon v Portugal.

12 36,099 people turn out for the George Armstrong Testimonial match at Highbury. Barcelona beat Arsenal 3–1 ,with Johan Cruyff playing a star part in their victory.

13 Peter Osgood signs for Southampton in a £275,000 deal . . . Other transfers to beat the deadline: Nigel Cassidy, Oxford to Cambridge for £28,000 and Dave Simmons, Cambridge to Brentford for £12,000 . . . The England youth team lose 1–0 to Wales and are eliminated from the 'Little World Cup' Finals. England have won this UEFA Tournament for the last three years! . . . Cardiff qualify for the Cup-Winners' Cup next season by reaching the Welsh Cup final – opponents Stourbridge are English . . . Brian Clough is back from Iran, where the Shah of Persia offered him a £400 per week job to run the national team. Clough has decided to stay with Brighton . . . Chelsea beat Burnley 3–0 in front of their lowest league gate for 36 years – 8171 . . . Trouble at Manchester, where United and City draw 0–0. Doyle and Macari are sent off after a fracas, but they both refuse to leave the field. Referee Clive Thomas takes both teams off the Old Trafford pitch, but the game resumes after seven minutes with 10 men on each side. Four other players (Holton, Summerbee, Forsyth, and Bielby) are also cautioned.

14 Swindon sign Peter Eastoe, the Wolverhampton striker, for a club record fee of £100,000 . . . Jim McCalliog moves to Manchester U. from Wolverhampton for £60,000, and on the last day of transfer deals, Tony Bailey (Derby) goes to Oldham for £8000, Cambridge pay £30,000 for Bobby Shinton of Walsall, and the young Manchester U. full-back Roy O'Brien joins Notts Co. for £40,000 . . . Sheffield U. manager Ken Furphy buys Chesterfield goalkeeper Jim Brown for £60,000, and Blackburn striker Tony Field for £75,000 . . . But the move of Bobby Moore to Fulham creates the biggest sensation. After 16 years service with West Ham, Moore is sold at the give-away price of £25,000. Moore himself collects a hefty £20,000 signing-on fee and is guaranteed about £17,500 wages for the next two seasons . . . A special FA commission annuls the result of the Newcastle v Nottingham F. Cup tie and orders the match to be replayed on a neutral ground.

15 'League clubs spent an estimated £7,215,000 on 177 major transfer deals up to last night's deadline – £1 million less than in the previous year,' – writes the Daily Express . . . Newcastle are fuming over the FA's decision. Joe Harvey, manager, says: 'Diabolical! If the result doesn't stand how can the sending off and booking still stand?' Malcolm Macdonald, in a BBC radio interview says: 'My reaction is one of disgust, but not surprise. I half-expected a ridiculous solution, and they came up with one. The FA have taken all integrity away from referee Gordon Kew.'

16 Liverpool beat Leeds 1–0 and narrow the gap at the top of the table . . . Four players are sent off – John Dunn (Charlton), Steve Piper (Brighton), Ken Stephens, and Bruce Bannister (both Bristol R.) . . . Sunday football is banned for the rest of the season by the FA – only four games, which have already been arranged for March 24, are exempt.

18 At Everton, Newcastle draw 0–0 with Nottingham F. after extra time, and the teams will meet again at the same venue on Thursday . . . Brighton are holding both Brian Clough and Peter Taylor to their contracts. Clough says: 'Of course I wanted to go to Iran, but the Board vetoed the move. I'm staying at Brighton to do a job, I am not saying I'm happy here.'

19 Bobby Moore makes his debut for Fulham. It is an unhappy occasion as visiting Middlesbrough win 4–0 at Craven Cottage! . . . At the initiative of Denis Howell, Minister for Sport, a special committee is set up to study player discipline and crowd behaviour. The members of the committee are Alan Hardaker, Ted Croker, Ron Greenwood, Eddie Plumley, and Walter Winterbottom. Sir Alf Ramsey puts forward a three-point plan to improve England's standing on the international rating list. He wants at least three days to prepare for a friendly international, a week for World Cup and European Championship matches, and an average of one international a month during the season. He adds: 'There has to be a decision – club or country? Seven players have dropped out of the squad selected for next Wednesday's Inter-League match. We were told they are injured, but I suggest they will be fit to play this weekend.'

20 Derek Dougan attacks the Denis Howell 'working party'. In a Daily Express interview he says: 'I'm terribly disappointed in Howell. When he came into Government again I expected two quick decisions – an immediate lifting on the energy ban and the re-opening of the Chester Report. If he really wants to help football–and crowd behaviour – he should persuade his colleagues to pour some money back into the game. Then we could have 80 per cent seating in all grounds and our biggest crowd problem would be over.' . . . Rothmans will extend their sponsorship to the Northern and Western Leagues next season. . . The 'new look' Football League team beat the Scottish League 5–0 at Manchester . . . Celtic reach the European Cup semi-final by beating the Swiss club Basle 4–2 in extra-time – Steve Murray scores the decisive goal . . . Tottenham are in the last four of the UEFA Cup, but Ipswich lose on penalty-kicks to Lokomotiv Leipzig.

21 After 300 minutes of football, Newcastle fight their way into the semi-finals of the FA Cup. They defeat Nottingham F. 1–0 with a Malcolm Macdonald goal.

23 Middlesbrough make certain of promotion with a 1–0 home win against Oxford. Jackie Charlton, in his first season as manager, leads the club back into the First Division after 20 years, and is chaired off the field by his players . . . Leeds lose at home to Burnley 1–4 – their worst home defeat under Don Revie . . . Liverpool win at Wolverhampton and the gap now is only four points at the top of the table . . . Referee Iowerth Jones is attacked by the fans after the Orient – Sheffield W. (0–1) match and will report the home club to the FA.

25 Jack Mansell is appointed as assistant manager of Q.P.R. . . Arthur Page, chairman of Orient for seven years, is to resign at the end of June . . . George Cohen, the ex-Fulham player, takes over Tonbridge, the Southern League club.

26 At Brentford, Frank Davis – 46 years a director – chairman Walter Wheatley, and vice-chairman Eric Radley-Smith are voted off the board. Ron Blindell, 18-year-old son of Ronald Blindell, who once bailed the club out of trouble, Poyton, and Colin Wheatley are the only directors still in office and the club faces a 'constitutional crisis.' Brian Lane, manager of the 'Yes' pop group, offers financial help, but his bid cannot be considered until a board with a quorum is elected.

27 A Scotland team – without the Leeds contingent – loses 2–1 against W. Germany in Frankfurt . . . Celtic decide not to play a benefit match for Tony Green at Newcastle because of the recent crowd troubles at that ground . . . Deputy referee Bob Armstrong books seven players at the Crewe v Reading game in Division 4.

28 Newport are fined £200 and have a point deducted by the Football League for playing an ineligible player . . . Leeds are to fight a two-match suspension given to Norman Hunter. They will apply to an Independent Tribunal, so Hunter can play in the vital Easter programme while his appeal is considered. However, a similar ban for Allan Clarke is not contested. Clarke was booked by referee John Homewood during the Stoke match, and was reported to the FA for remarks made to the official after the game.

29 Halifax are allowed to postpone their league match v AFC Bournemouth, because injuries and illnesses have reduced their squad to ten players only.

30 Middlesbrough are champions of the Second Division after winning 1–0 at Luton . . . Newcastle reach the Cup Final for the record 11th time, by beating Burnley 2–0 with two Malcolm Macdonald goals . . . Leicester and Liverpool draw the other semi-final and as they will replay on Wednesday, several players withdraw from Ramsey's Portugal-bound squad . . . Leeds lose their third successive league match – 1–3 at West Ham.

April

1 The Daily Express writes: 'Exeter C. have refused to play at Scunthorpe tomorrow, and risk expulsion from the Football League. The League ordered them to fulfil the fixture even though nine of their professionals are unfit and have medical certificates to prove it.' . . . Brighton are also at loggerheads with authority. Both of their goalkeepers are out for the season, but the league will not sanction the registration of another player . . . Bell is out of the England party after the club doctor diagnoses shingles, and Alan Ball is called in . . . Denis Law turns down a move to Motherwell, and hopes to fight his way back into the Manchester C. team.

2 Sir Alf Ramsey selects six uncapped players for England v Portugal in Lisbon. Brooking, Bowles, Watson, Parkes, Dobson, and Pejic are definite starters . . . Sir Alf bitterly criticises the system which forces him to make nine changes in his squad. 'There is only one thing to do – punish the clubs concerned. If a player does not report for an international match or a training session, he should not be permitted to play for his club on the following Saturday.' . . . Dave Webb says in a newspaper interview that he wishes to leave Chelsea, and is subsequently dropped by manager Sexton for Wednesday's league match at Tottenham.

3 Following Ramsey's outburst, the Leeds players–Madeley and Hunter–assert that they were 'genuinely' injured. Madeley says: 'Sir Alf once told me that unless I was 100 per cent fit I should drop out of the England squad. Who would be foolish enough to pass up a chance of earning £100?' Len Shipman says that the FA cannot compel clubs to release players for friendly international matches . . . After all the heated arguments, the game itself – a tepid affair in front of a small crowd – ends in a goalless draw . . . At Birmingham, Liverpool beat Leicester 3–1 and are back at Wembley for their fourth Final since the war.

6 A day of hat-tricks in the Football League – Kenny Burns, Barry Butlin, Dennis Booth, and the young Grimsby forward Lumby, all score three times . . . It is rumoured that Tottenham will make Bill Nicholson their general manager and appoint a younger man to run the team.

8 Frank O'Farrell is the new national team manager of Iran . . . Alan Hardaker attacks the appeal system: 'Disciplinary hearings are not a court of law. People are not under oath and there are plenty of cases where things are said that are not true.' Mervyn Day, the 18-year-old West Ham 'keeper, is included in the England U-23 touring squad . . . A replica of the FIFA World Cup trophy is officially unveiled at a press conference in London by Sir Stanley Rous. The original – valued at £17,000 – is deposited in a Frankfurt bank vault.

9 Q.P.R.'s assistant manager, Jackie Mansell, leaves the club after a mere three weeks, because of a 'personality clash'. Previously this season, Bobby Campbell and Steve Burtenshaw also left the club to take appointments elsewhere . . . The Cup finalists, Liverpool and Newcastle, have decided to ask the FA to allow extra time in the final, and if the game is still at a deadlock after 120 minutes' football, the re-play should be at Sheffield and not at Wembley as planned.

10 Three Atlètico Madrid players are sent off by referee Dogan Barbacan of Turkey at Parkhead in the European Cup semi-final first leg. Four others, and two Celtic players, are cautioned in a scandalous match. The Spanish club is managed by Juan Carlos Lorenzo, who was in charge of Argentina during the 1966 World Cup, when his players were described as 'animals' by Sir Alf Ramsey.

12 Ron Saunders is sacked by Manchester C. – Tony Book is the new manager. City draw with Liverpool 1–1, only hours after the official announcement . . . Swindon are relegated into the Third Division following today's matches . . The Good Friday attendances are high – over 120,000 people see the four First Division games.

13 Easter Saturday – the neck-and-neck struggle continues for a promotion place from Division 2. and against relegation from Division 1 . . . Manchester U. continue in winning form by beating Newcastle 1–0. After this match Joe Harvey strongly criticises his players, saying that they are concentrating too much on the Cup final, and now the club is in a precarious position near the foot of the table.

15 Gillingham beat Bradford 2–0, and the club scoring record for a season has been bettered . . . Manchester U. continue their fight against relegation with a 3–0 victory over Everton.

16 'Celtic have asked their supporters to stay away from the European Cup semi-final second-leg, because they feel the situation is too dangerous, too explosive', reports the Evening Standard.

17 Atlètico Madrid are warned about their future conduct by UEFA and six of their players are banned from the return leg v Celtic . . . W. Germany beat Hungary 5–0 in a friendly, Belgium and Poland draw 1–1, and Brazil defeat Rumania 2–0.

18 Sir Alf Ramsey names a 20-player squad for the seven international matches to be played between May 11 and June 3. Surprise omissions—Nish, Storey, and Phil Parkes of Q.P.R., who is wanted for his club's overseas tour.

19 Bob Wilson, the Arsenal goalkeeper, announces his retirement. He'll finish playing at the end of the season, and will work for the BBC on a part-time basis . . . Referee John McCree is attacked at the end of a Southern League match by the fans at Dartford. He is taken to hospital with severe injuries . . . After a 12-year absence, Bristol R. are back in Division 2 . . . The FA of Wales advertises in the national press for a full-time team manager.

20 In the last Amateur Cup final – the 71st – Bishop's Stortford beat Ilford 4–1 at Wembley . . . All footballers will be classified as 'players' in future . . . Brian Yeo scores twice for Gillingham and is the first player to get 30 league goals this season . . . Several promotion and relegation issues have been decided, but the championship and relegation places in Division 1 are still in the balance . . . 'The Charity Shield match will be played at Wembley next season, and the FA are looking for a sponsor,' says Ted Croker, secretary.

22 Newcastle are banned from staging FA Cup ties next season at St James' Park. If they are drawn at home, the match will be played on their opponents' ground. This is the punishment meted out for last month's pitch invasion, but the club is allowed to keep their share of the gate from the two replays with Nottingham F . . . Lord Westwood, Newcastle chairman, has welcomed the verdict. The local MP Mr Geoffrey Rhodes called it 'a brutal, idiotic decision. I believe the FA Cup Committee has taken leave of their senses and should be removed from office at the earliest opportunity,' he says . . . The BBC refuses to consider sharing the World Cup matches with ITV – several games will be shown simultaneously on both channels.

23 The FA grants the requests of both Liverpool and Newcastle – extra time will be played in the Cup final in case of stalemate after 90 minutes . . . Charlton sack manager Theo Foley after a four-year stay with the club . . . The league clubs, once again, reject the TV companies' offer, and unless a further meeting is held before the end of the month, there won't be any televised league football next season.

24 Denis Howell, the Minister for Sport, says that he is willing to act as a mediator between the Football League and the TV companies to achieve a compromise in the present dispute. Eldon Griffiths, the former occupant of Mr Howell's job, writes to the BBC complaining about the saturation coverage of the World Cup . . . Leeds are the champions! They clinch it without kicking a ball as Arsenal beat Liverpool 1-0 at Anfield with a Ray Kennedy goal . . . Tottenham are through to the UEFA Cup final, but Celtic lose 2-0 at Madrid.

25 The Football League fines Exeter £5000 for failing to play Scunthorpe on April 2, when they had nine players ill with 'flu. Exeter also have to pay over one thousand pounds compensation to Scunthorpe and the two points are awarded to the Lincolnshire club . . . Norwich are fined £1000 for making an illegal approach to Phil Boyer – a player they later signed from Bournemouth.

26 Ian Mellor joins Brighton for a club record transfer fee of £40,000 . . . Lou Macari and Mick Doyle are fined by the FA for refusing to leave the pitch when they were sent off in the Manchester local derby.

27 After 36 years in Division 1, Manchester U. are relegated. Denis Law, their former player, scores the only goal of the local derby for City, and five minutes from the end the crowd invades the pitch. Referee David Smith takes the players off the field and abandons the game . . . Birmingham escape through a 2-1 home win over Norwich, but Southampton are down despite a 3-0 win at Goodison . . . Champions Leeds celebrate in style, beating Q.P.R. 1-0 in London . . . It is alleged in a Sunday Times article that Portuguese referee Lobo was offered a bribe (which he refused) to favour Juventus at Derby in last season's European Cup semi-final. UEFA admit that the approach, which was made by a man not officially connected with the Italian club, has been reported to them and there will be a full investigation . . . Celtic are Scottish Champions for the ninth successive season . . . Australia beat Uruguay 2-0 in a warm-up match – one Australian player is taken to hospital allegedly suffering from a karate blow.

28 Denis Howell calls for an emergency meeting for all parties concerned to discuss the riot at Manchester . . . Ian Callaghan of Liverpool is the 'Footballer of the Year'.

30 New offer brings hope that league soccer will be televised next season . . . Bob Wilson plays his last game for Arsenal – a 1-1 draw v Q.P.R. at Highbury. Alan Ball breaks his leg in this match and is out of the England squad . . . Palace are relegated for the second successive year . . . Graeme Souness is a surprise choice for Scotland's World Cup 40 . . .

May

1 Sir Alf Ramsey is sacked as England manager. The full FA statement says: 'The committees of the FA who have been considering the future of English football have examined some aspects in detail and progress has been made. At a meeting on February 14 the executive committee set up a sub-committee with the following terms of reference: "To consider our future policy in respect of the promotion of international football. Following meetings, a unanimous recommendation was submitted to the executive committee that Sir Alf Ramsey should be replaced as England team manager. This recommendation was accepted unanimously by the executive committee. He had been informed of this decision. For practical reasons his duties will cease with effect from April 30. A new manager will be appointed in due course, but it has not been possible to take any positive action on this matter until this announcement has been made. In view of the forthcoming international matches in the home international championship, against the Argentine and a three-match European tour, it was decided that a caretaker manager should be appointed. With the approval of Coventry City, Mr Joe Mercer has agreed to undertake this task. It should be stated that he does not wish to be considered for the job of permanent manager, so immediate steps will be taken to appoint a new England team manager as soon as possible. The Football Association wishes at this time to record its deep appreciation for all that Sir Alf has accomplished and the debt owed to him by English football for his unbending loyalty and dedication and the high level of integrity he has brought to world football.' Under Ramsey, England played 113 internationals, winning 69 and losing 17. Sir Alf, who is away on holiday, will not comment on the circumstances of his dismissal . . . Atlètico Madrid are fined £14,000 by UEFA for their unsporting behaviour at Glasgow, when three of their players were sent off . . . Jimmy Andrews is the new manager of Cardiff.

May

2 Six Tory MPs put down a motion in the Commons inviting MPs to record their appreciation of Sir Alf Ramsey. Several other commentators, including former FA Secretary Denis Follows, attack the FA Committee for the timing of the dismissal. However, well-informed people state that Ramsey could have stayed until his contract expired – June 1 – but he refused to do so . . . Brighton sign Fred Binney from Exeter for £25,000 plus defender John Templeman and midfielder Robertson.

3 Tommy Docherty signs Stuart Pearson from Hull for £170,000 plus striker Paul Fletcher, who is valued at £30,000 . . . The result of the Manchester U. v Manchester C. match stands – 0-1 when abandoned in the 82nd minute.

4 Liverpool beat Newcastle 3-0 in the FA Cup final, their second triumph, and the winning margin is the largest since 1960. 'Man of the Match' – Kevin Keegan, scorer of two goals. There were 50 arrests outside the ground . . . In Glasgow, Celtic complete the Scottish 'double' by beating Dundee U. 3-0 in the Scottish Cup final.

6 Vic Crowe has been fired by Aston Villa . . . Phil Boersma, who walked out on Liverpool when he found that he would not be named as sub. in the Cup Final, says that he will never play for the club again.

7 Sir Alf Ramsey will be given a 'golden handshake', reputed to be £15,000, by the FA.

8 Magdeburg becomes the first East German club to win a major European trophy They beat AC Milan 2-0 at Rotterdam in the Cup-Winners' Cup final . . . As a consequence of the British Lions rugby tour of South Africa, the Zambian Government cancels an amateur soccer tour from England. Previously, Orient's visit to Malawi and Norwich's visit to Black Africa were also called off . . . Brian Doyle, the manager of Stockport is sacked – because he lives in Blackpool, 60 miles from the club's ground . . . Brian Yeo is the League's top scorer with 31 goals. Mike Channon finishes first in Division 1 with 21 . . . Eight league clubs will receive £4000 each, as the teams who would have qualified for next season's Watney Cup competition, which is being discontinued. The clubs: Burnley, Q.P.R., Sunderland, Blackpool, Grimsby, Charlton, Northampton, and Lincoln.

10 David Webb, Chelsea's transfer-listed defender, has denied manager Sexton's allegations that he demanded 'double money' and complained about the club's training programme . . . The new England captains – Emlyn Hughes will skipper the senior side against Wales, and Alan Hudson is in charge of the Under-23 team in Turkey.

11 Denis Law makes a record 54th appearance for Scotland, but they lose 1-0 to N. Ireland at Hampden Park. Tommy Cassidy gets the winner in the second half . . . Joe Mercer has opened his short reign as England caretaker-manager with a convincing 2-0 win at Cardiff over Wales. Bowles and Keegan score their first goals for the national team . . .

Bobby Charlton wants to play again! He has signed registration forms for Preston N.E. and wishes to become the club's player/manager next season. He says: 'I feel it would be a waste of time sitting on the touchline, if I could be out on the field helping the club. The only reason for my comeback is to help Preston get promotion from the Third Division.'

13 Birmingham manager Freddie Goodwin is fined £50 and warned about his future conduct by the FA Disciplinary Committee.

14 Scotland are showing better form! They beat Wales 2-0 in Glasgow.

15 A mixed day for the England teams. While Joe Mercer's seniors beat Ireland 1-0 with a Keith Weller goal at Wembley, Ken Furphy's U-23 side is beaten by the same score in Yugoslavia . . . The Football League have rejected Exeter's appeal, and told them to pay their fines . . . Football history is made in Brussels, where Bayern Munich draw 1-1 with Atlètico Madrid after extra time – the first ever European Cup final to go to a re-play.

16 Roy McFarland is badly injured and could be out of football for six months . . . Stan Bowles leaves the England HQ without permission and says that he will not go to Glasgow with the national squad.

17 The West Ham player and now Gillingham's promotion-winning manager, Andy Nelson, will be in charge of Charlton next season . . . Bayern Munich become the first German team to win the European Champions' Cup. They beat Atlètico Madrid 4-0 in the re-played final at Brussels. Muller and Hoeness each score twice for the brilliant Bundesliga champions.

18 Scotland beat England 2-0 at Hampden and the two countries share the British Championship title . . . Wales score their first goal in this tournament since April 25 1970. Local hero, Dave Smallman of Wrexham, gets the winner v N. Ireland . . . It is reported that Sir Alf Ramsey has been offered the job of team manager at Atlètico Bilbao – salary £40,000 per year.

21 Tottenham draw 2-2 with Feyenoord at White Hart Lane in the first leg of the UEFA Cup final . . . The Scottish squad for the World Cup includes Denis Law and newcomer Peter Cormack of Liverpool. Jimmy Smith has been dropped from the original party.

22 Sir Stanley Rous has made a personal appeal to the UEFA delegates at Edinburgh. 'I ask you to vote for me when the appointment of the FIFA presidency is decided at Frankfurt. It is a Europe v South America issue and we want to retain the leadership of football in this Continent.' . . . An improved England performance at Wembley – 2-2 against a brilliantly skilled Argentinian side. Skipper Emlyn Hughes is involved in an incident with the Argentinian player Glaria, and is later blamed by manager Joe Mercer for some of the unsavoury clashes in the game . . . Sir Harold Thompson of the FA is elected to the executive council of UEFA.

23 'A new code to combat soccer hooliganism has been sent to all 92 League clubs. Denis Howell, Minister for Sport, has written to the FA and the Football League asking them to inform all clubs of the first recommendations of the working party looking into crowd behaviour at football grounds. The top priority is that movement on the terraces be restricted as much as possible, and that the public be denied access to the playing area except in cases of emergency. The recommendations are being sent out now because of the short time available to clubs to undertake any alterations that might be necessary before the start of next season. The working party suggests clubs should build a wall not less than 4ft high around the pitch with gates and access points. The working party also strongly recommends that visiting supporters should be segregated from the home crowd,' writes the Evening Standard.

25 Gordon Jago stays with Q.P.R. The manager says that his resignation was the result of a fit of temper and he has apologised to Chairman Jim Gregory. Gregory was happy to reinstate the man who made Q.P.R. the top club in London.

29 A tragic day for Tottenham on and off the field! They are beaten 2-0 at Rotterdam by Feyenoord in the UEFA Cup final, and their so-called 'fans' initiate a riot during the match. 70 of them are arrested and over 200 people hurt in the crush. Spurs chairman, Mr Sydney Wale, broadcasts an appeal before the kick-off, and at half-time Bill Nicholson speaks on the public address system: 'You hooligans are a disgrace to Tottenham Hotspur and a disgrace to England. This is a football game – not a war' . . . England draw their first tour game at Leipzig – 1-1 v E. Germany. Mike Channon equalises from a free-kick just one minute after the Germans go ahead through Streich . . . David Webb signs for Q.P.R. for £100,000.

30 Tottenham send a letter of apology to the Feyenoord Football Club and to the Rotterdam police, expressing their regret for the shameful behaviour of a section of their supporters.

31 Bulgaria beat Yugoslavia 1-0 in the UEFA Youth Cup final at Malmö. Scotland finish third, after a 1-0 victory over Greece . . . Everton pay £100,000 for Jim Pearson of St Johnstone . . . Stoke City plan to have control over tickets sold to their fans for UEFA Cup away matches next term . . . The chairman of Tottenham Supporters Club, Mr John Harris, would also like to see 'passports' issued to fans. 'The cards should carry photographs of the holders. If there is any misconduct, the passports would be taken away.'

June

1 England beat Bulgaria 1-0 in Sofia with a goal scored by Frank Worthington in the 44th minute. Scotland are beaten 2-1 at Bruges by Belgium. Jim Holton sustains a knee injury and couldn't play in the match. He is now doubtful for the World Cup finals . . . There is also trouble for Scotland on the commercial front. Apparently, the agent, Mr Bill Bain, who deals with the players' 'perks pool', has been appointed by the SFA, and 10% of the income will go to the Association. The players protest against this 'novel idea' and will fight it out with Bain. Skipper Bremner says, 'We shall have just one more meeting with him in Oslo, but we do not want to see him in W. Germany'.

2 Trouble for some British players on tour. Kevin Keegan has a bust-up with the Yugoslav police at Belgrade Airport, is taken into custody and later released. Billy Bremner and Jimmy Johnstone miss the curfew at Oslo and Willie Ormond contacts the Scottish FA. It is decided that the two culprits won't be sent home, but merely warned as to their future conduct.

3 The Yugoslav authorities are not pressing charges against Keegan. Bremner will captain Scotland against Norway on Wednesday.

4 Ron Saunders is the new Aston Villa manager.

5 England draw their last tour game, 2-2, against Yugoslavia. The balance sheet since Joe Mercer took over as caretaker manager is three wins, three draws, and one defeat. Goals for 9, against 7.

6 Scotland beat Norway 2-1 at Oslo – their last warm-up game for the World Cup. Jordan and Dalglish get the goals in a match described as 'untidy' and 'rather disappointing' . . . 16 English clubs are taking part in the Texaco Cup. The new format introduces mini-Leagues, and the early games will be played before the start of the season. The four group winners will be joined by four Scottish clubs in the later 'knock-out' stages of the tournament.

7 Bobby Parker (Coventry) signs for Carlisle for a £60,000 transfer fee. At the League's AGM, the clubs refuse – once again – the TV package deal, and it seems that the television companies might be forced to negotiate fees on a week-by-week basis with the clubs involved in the matches to be screened . . . All four clubs seeking re-election are voted back, as the several non-League teams collect and split a sizeable number of votes . . . Lord Westwood of Newcastle is the new President of the Football League, taking over from Len Shipman, who has resigned for health reasons.

EIGHT GREAT GOALS OF 1973-74

The phrase 'great goal' is perhaps the most common in the language of football, and its continual use stems from the many ways in which a score might be seen to be outstanding. A goal is surely great to the committed spectator if it ensures his team an important victory; it must be great for the scorer if it satisfies a particular ambition; it is undoubtedly great in the eyes of the coach if it conforms to the highest technical and tactical standards.

For the second year, Rothmans Football Yearbook offers in diagram form a selection of eight memorable goals which it is felt fit somewhere under the umbrella of greatness. Selection must fan the flame of argument, but the eight goals are recorded to capture the mood of the year. In essence they are goals memorable in their context and outstanding in their execution. Their order is simply chronological and reflects a significant moment of the 1973-4 season.

Joe Jordan's header could not have had more significance, beating Czechoslovakia at Hampden Park and lifting Scotland to the World Cup finals, a pinnacle that had eluded them for sixteen years. It came early in a season in which the Leeds United player also grew in stature; for club and country his appearances, as against the Czechs, began as a substitute but he achieved more permanent status in both spheres.

England's World Cup hopes evaporated when Jan Domarski's breakaway goal earned Poland a draw at Wembley. Surely no goal throughout the season was greeted with less appreciation, but its effect throughout English football was shattering.

Before England's scars had even begun to heal, Jimmy Mackay, an exiled Scot, aggravated the bleeding when he ensured World Cup qualification for Australia. He fashioned a goal worthy of the occasion when he moved on to a deft lay-off from Rooney and shot emphatically past the South Korean goalkeeper from 20 yards.

Alan Mullery's volley for Fulham against Leicester offered arguably the most spectacular goal of the season. Exhibiting remarkable technique and agility as he met a waist-high cross, he must have drawn extra satisfaction from the thoroughness with which he beat England's first-choice goalkeeper Peter Shilton.

There was a similar flamboyance about the overhead kick with which Burnley's Paul Fletcher scored against Leeds at Elland Road. The Lancashire club's 4-1 success was surely one of the season's most amazing results, and one which restored competition into the race for the League championship.

Certainly the most confident and for many the most effective goalscorer of the season was Malcolm Macdonald. His second goal against Burnley in the FA Cup semi-final at Hillsborough took Newcastle to Wembley and typified his speed and aggressive running when given a sight of the goal. Moreover, it stemmed from one of the season's sweetest passes – a 40-yard first-time chip of irresistible precision from Terry Hibbitt.

Undoubtedly the saddest scorer of the year was Denis Law. Following his re-birth at Manchester City, it fell to him to condemn Manchester United to the Second Division. He could not have contrived a goal more typical of his ingenuity – an imaginative backheel from Francis Lee's driven cross. But the eyes were downcast and the famous fist was not raised as he turned back to the centre.

There was nothing but unbounded joy for Kevin Keegan as his two goals played the leading part in Liverpool's Wembley triumph. The first illustrated the sharpness of his control and shooting technique as he stunned an awkwardly bouncing ball before volleying beyond McFaul. Moreover, the goal shattered the Newcastle morale, and they never looked capable of recovering.

Diagrams by Paul Buckle

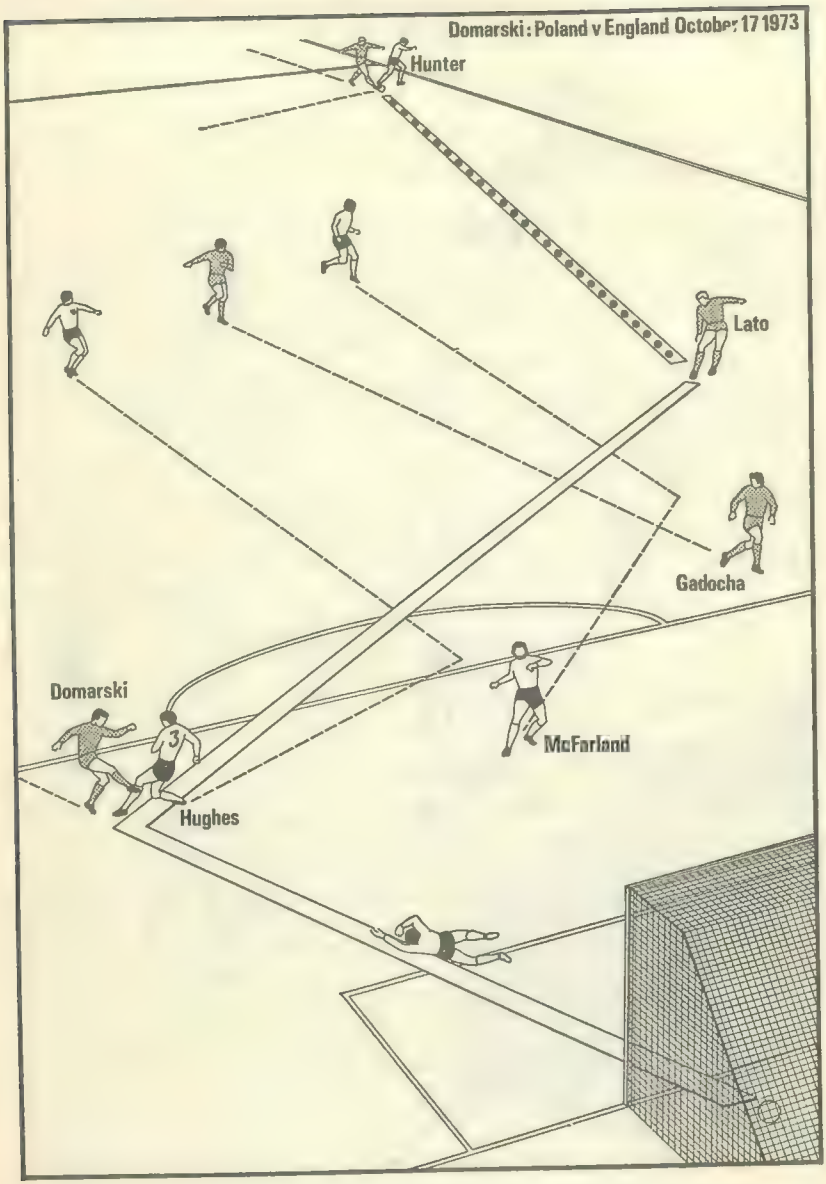
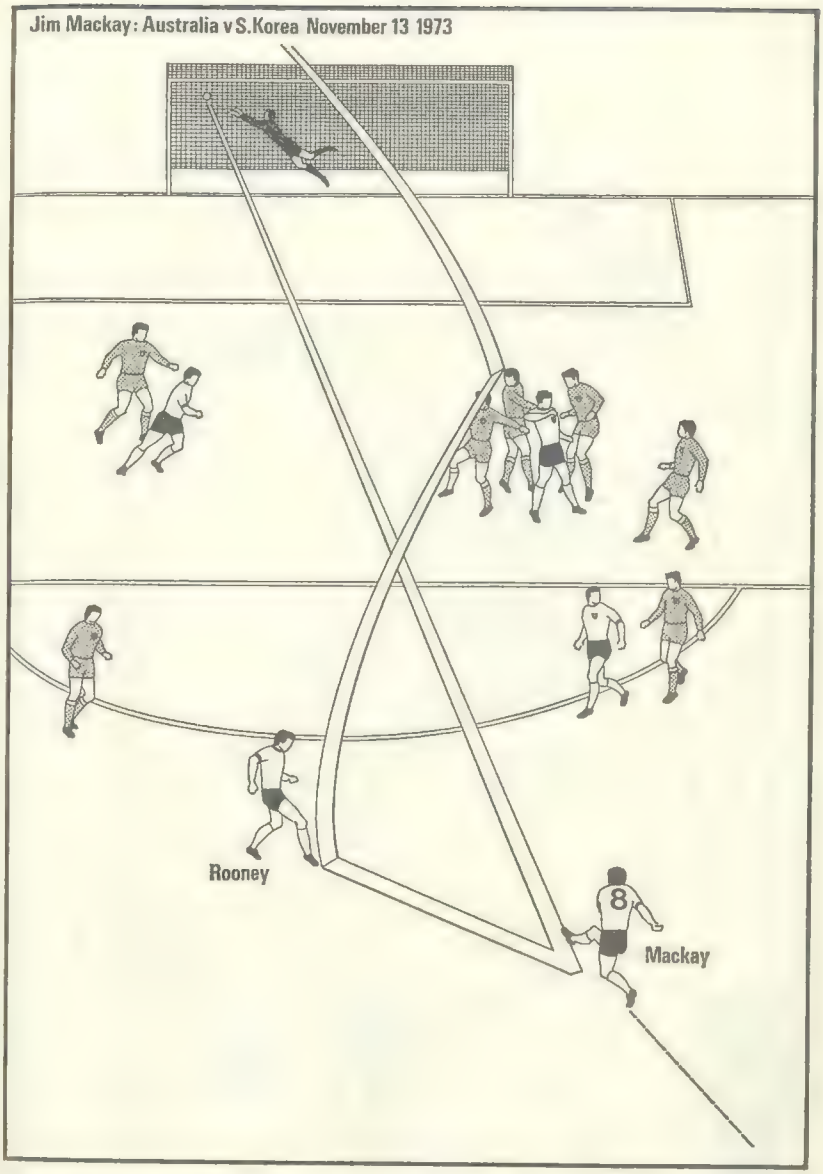
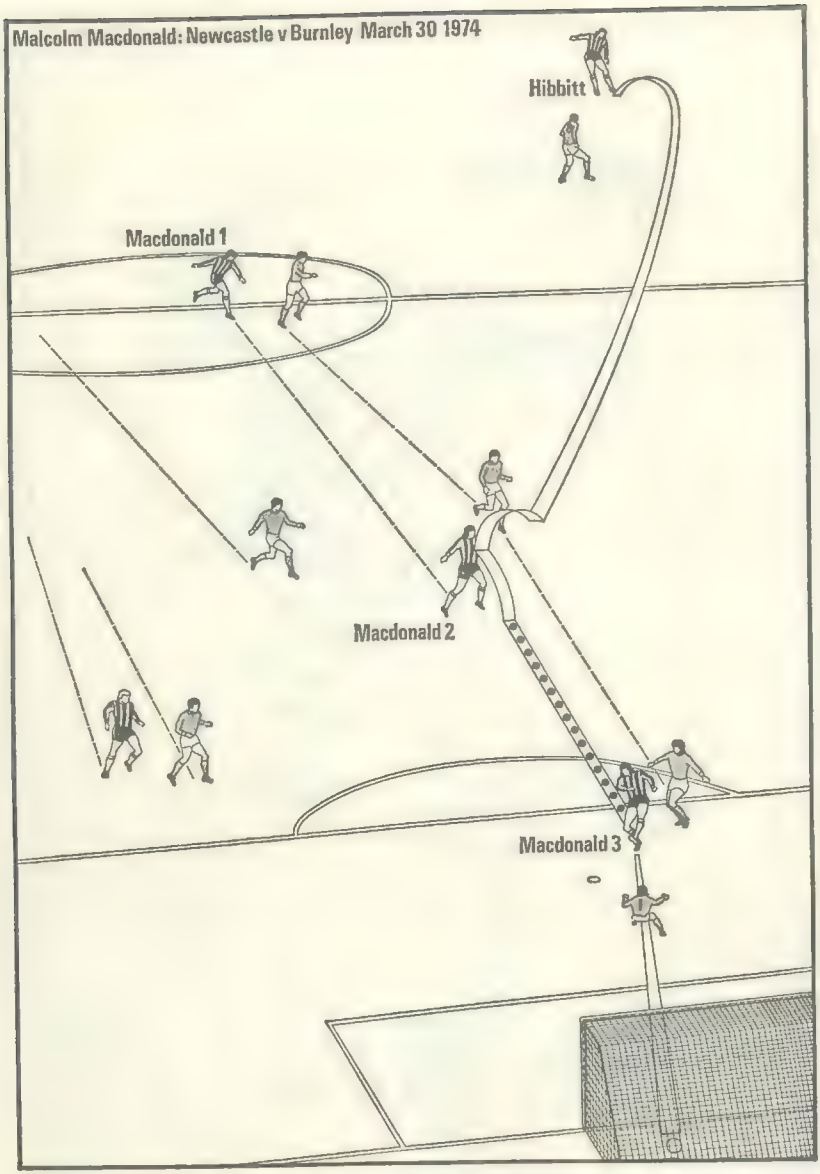
An historic moment for Scotland. With the Czechoslovakia defence in confusion after Bremner had hit a post, a clearance reached Willie Morgan. His sleight of foot made room for a precise cross and substitute Joe Jordan headed the ball firmly into the corner of the net and Scotland into the World Cup finals for the first time in 16 years.



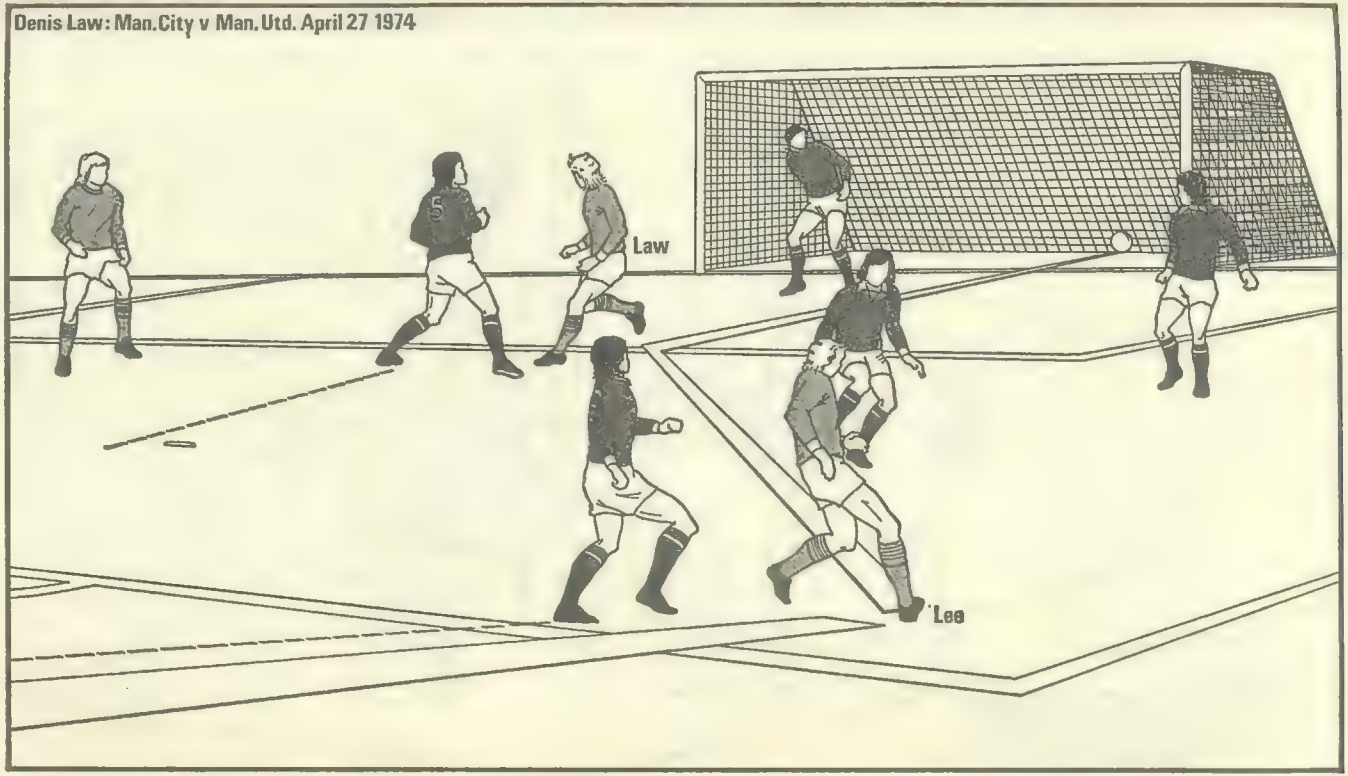
A missed tackle by Norman Hunter on Poland's Lato paved the way for the goal that finally sealed England's World Cup exit. The speedy attacker accelerated forward, drawing defenders towards him. Domarski was left unmarked, and, taking the pass, struck his shot under Peter Shilton as the goalkeeper fell to his left.



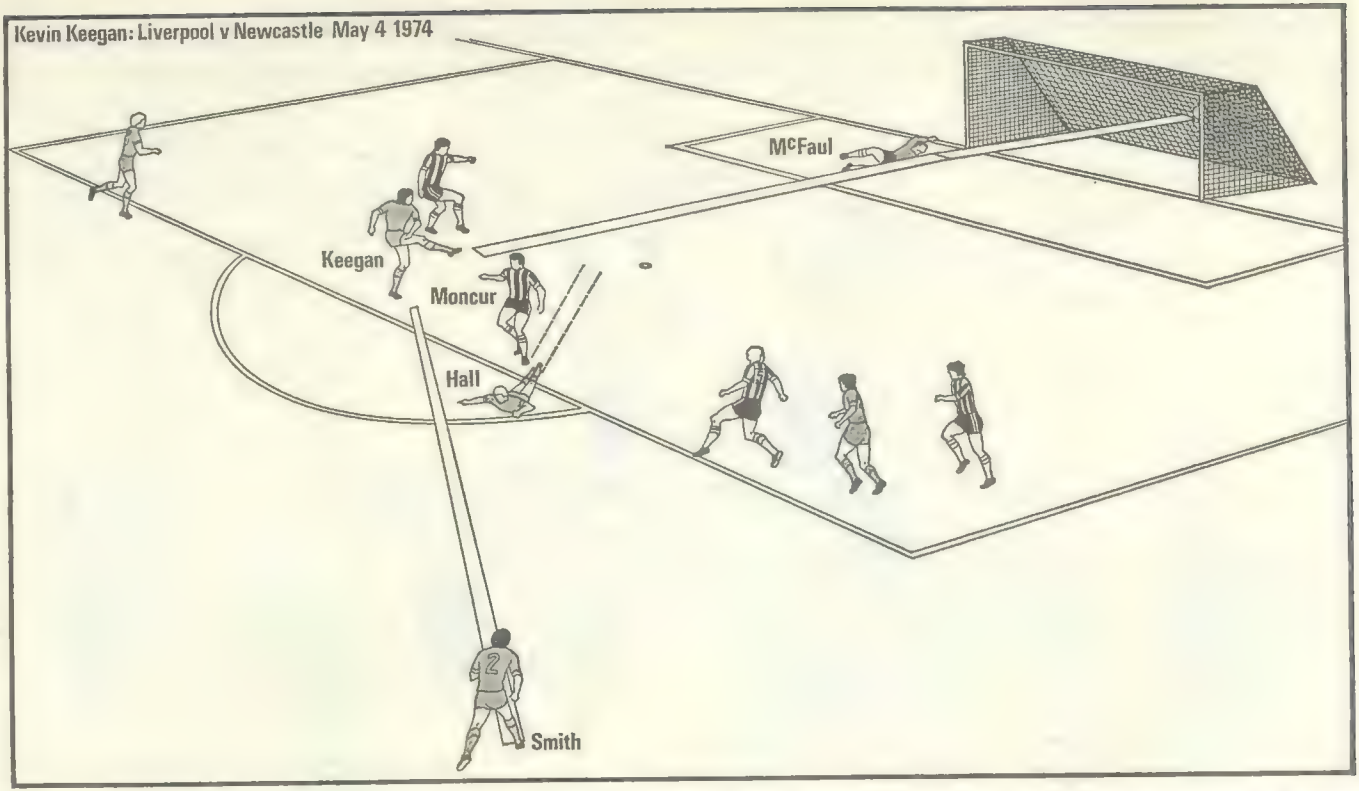
Jimmy Mackay's spectacular drive earned Australia a World Cup place at the expense of South Korea. After two draws between the two countries, the play-off in Hong Kong went to Australia when Rooney played a Korean clearance into Mackay's path and the Scotsman's shot flew irresistibly past the goalkeeper's right hand.



Malcolm Macdonald had predicted that his pace would unlock the Burnley defence in the FA Cup semi-final, and he kept his promise. Hibbitt struck a pass of instant precision beyond the defenders, and Macdonald's powerful stride took him first to the ball; he stroked it into the net through the goalkeeper's legs.



Manchester United seemed to have enough defenders to quell the threat of Lee as he carried the ball into the penalty area but away from the goal. Yet as the cross was driven in, Law reacted sharply and imaginatively, and United lost both game and First Division status.



From Tommy Smith's cross, Newcastle defenders were distracted by Brian Hall's attempted header. As Moncur was drawn towards Hall, Keegan was left unmarked and his instant control and accurate volley turned the FA Cup final Liverpool's way.

FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR

The Football Writers Association was founded in 1947, and it was proposed that the members should elect the Footballer of the Year at the end of each season. The first recipient of the Award, a statuette of a footballer on a square plinth, was one of the all-time greats, Stanley Matthews. The Award, presented at a dinner held in London during Cup Final week, is given 'to the Player, who by precept and example on and off the field, shall have been considered to have done most for football during that season'. To this day, this Award has remained the most prestigious for any player, and the dinner in his honour is an important occasion for English football.

This season, Ian Callaghan of Liverpool was elected, finishing just ahead of Billy Bremner, and his own club colleague, Emlyn Hughes. Callaghan, a model of consistency and sportsmanship, has played over 650 games for Liverpool, won championship and cup medals, and appeared for England in the 1966 World Cup.

Award Winners

1947-48 Stanley Matthews (Blackpool), 1948-49 Johnny Carey (Manchester U.), 1949-50 Joe Mercer (Arsenal), 1950-51 Harry Johnston (Blackpool), 1951-52 Billy Wright (Wolverhampton), 1952-53 Nat Lofthouse (Bolton), 1953-54 Tom Finney (Preston), 1954-55 Don Revie (Manchester C.), 1955-56 Bert Trautmann (Manchester C.) 1956-56 Tom Finney (Preston), 1957-58 Danny Blanchflower (Tottenham), 1958-59 Syd Owen (Luton), 1959-60 Bill Slater (Wolverhampton), 1960-61 Danny Blanchflower (Tottenham), 1961-62 Jimmy Adamson (Burnley), 1962-63 Stanley Matthews (Stoke), 1963-64 Bobby Moore (West Ham), 1964-65 Bobby Collins (Leeds), 1965-66 Bobby Charlton (Manchester U.), 1966-67 Jackie Charlton (Leeds), 1967-68 George Best (Manchester U.), 1968-69 Dave Mackay (Derby) shared with Tony Book (Manchester C.), 1969-70 Billy Bremner (Leeds), 1970-71 Frank McLintock (Arsenal), 1971-72 Gordon Banks (Stoke), 1972-73 Pat Jennings (Tottenham), 1973-74 Ian Callaghan (Liverpool).

THE P.F.A. AWARDS

Under the able Chairmanship of Derek Dougan, the Professional Footballers Association has decided to introduce their own 'Players' Player' awards for the calendar year 1973. The members of the PFA were asked to vote for several individual Awards, and to select four teams representing the divisions of the Football League.

1973 Professional Footballers Association Awards:
Player of the Year—Norman Hunter (Leeds U.)
Young Player of the Year Award—Kevin Beattie (Ipswich T.)
PFA Merit Awards—Bobby Charlton and Cliff Lloyd

DIVISION 2: Bryan King (Millwall); John Craggs (Middlesbrough), Dave Watson (Sunderland), Willie Maddren (Middlesbrough), John Gorman (Carlisle), Bruce Rioch (Aston Villa), Don Masson (Notts Co.), Asa Hartford (W.B.A.), Dennis Tueart (Sunderland), Duncan McKenzie (Nottingham F.), Don Rogers (C. Jack Charlton is Manager of the Year

Jack Charlton, who led Middlesbrough back to the First Division after 20 years with an all-time Football League record winning margin of 15 points, was named as Football Manager of the Year 1974 by the Bell's Scotch Whisky Football Managers Awards panel of 25 leading British soccer journalists and commentators. Charlton was presented with a cheque for £1000 by Mr R. C. Miquel, chairman and managing director of Bell's Scotch Whisky, at a lunch in Glasgow attended by Britain's top managers.

Ashington-born Charlton (38), one of Sir Alf Ramsey's World Cup winning squad of 1966, has won the title in his first season as a manager. As a player he made over 600 appearances for Leeds United in 20 years at Elland Road and won 35 England caps.

DIVISIONAL MANAGERS OF THE SEASON 1973/74

Bill Shankly of Liverpool, FA Cup winners and 1st Division runners-up, was named Divisional Manager of the Season in Division One;

Jimmy Frizzell of Oldham Athletic, in Division Three; and Noel Cantwell of Peterborough United in Division Four.

These awards, nominated by The Football League and presented by the League's president, Mr Len Shipman, were cheques for £250 and inscribed salvers.

SPECIAL AWARD FOR DON REVIE

A special award was made to Don Revie of Leeds United of a cheque for £250 and an inscribed salver to mark his club's all-time record run of 29 League matches without defeat from the start of the season – 'and for the very considerable feat of winning the English First Division P an achievement which many people rate as the highest of all – with such great style'.

European Footballer of the Year 1973

In winning the European Footballer of the Year award in 1973, Johan Cruyff became only the second player to be so honoured on two occasions. He was previously elected in 1971. The only other player to win the award twice was Alfredo Di Stefano in 1957 and 1959. But there is another connection between these two players which is not obvious. Neither Cruyff or Di Stefano was born in Iberia. The former was raised in Holland, the latter first saw the light of day in Argentina, yet they each ultimately found success in Spain.

In contrast to last year's poll when Franz Beckenbauer took first place only two points ahead of his German colleagues Gerd Müller and Gunter Netzer, who tied for second place, Cruyff had a runaway victory. His points total of 96 was more than twice that of the runner-up, Italian goalkeeper Dino Zoff.

Great Britain did not fare particularly well in the ratings. Scottish captain Billy Bremner did well to reach fifth place with 22 points but the former doyen of England in the same leadership role, Bobby Moore, received only two votes and finished joint 19th. The only other British players to figure in the polls were Pat Jennings, the Irish international goalkeeper, and Denis Law, the Scottish international centre forward, who had one point each and were bracketed together in 23rd place.

Twenty-four journalists voted in France Football's annual poll, the notable absentee being the Russian correspondent who did not vote in a year when withdrawal symptoms were a feature of Russian football!

Johan Cruyff was born on April 25 1947 and began his famous association with his local club Ajax Amsterdam at the tender age of 10. He made the first team at 17, won his first cap at 19, and survived the experience of being sent off in his second international against Czechoslovakia and subsequent suspension.

Tall, slim, and with a remarkable turn of speed and skill in control, Cruyff was the inspiration of Ajax's three successive European Cup final victories between 1971 and 1973. In the summer of 1973 the Spanish club Barcelona made an enormous offer for his services. After protracted negotiations, the transfer was arranged at £922,300—a world record fee—but at first he was only allowed to play in friendlies, until the Dutch authorities granted him permission to play in League games. Such permission was necessary because the move was outside the two periods allowed for transfers in Holland. Barcelona went on to win the Spanish title!

Cruyff had scored 150 League goals by 1972, and his greater maturity in recent years has completely eradicated the problem-boy image he once had.

Review of the Season

Where Leeds United have been concerned, the race for the First Division Championship has sometimes seemed like the fabled contest between the tortoise and the hare. As often as Don Revie's side have fled the blocks in a seemingly invincible sprint, they have been caught and overtaken at the end of the race by more durable, if less distracted, opponents. Cynics could be forgiven, during the latter weeks of the 1973–74 season, for sensing the forming of a similar pattern. For between February 23 and March 30, Leeds United were beaten four times – a remarkable statistic in the light of their consistent form over ten First Division years, and particularly odd because until that February afternoon at Stoke's Victoria Ground they had not lost a League game all season.

It had been a start almost without precedent. After 20 games they were still unbeaten and had achieved the best post-War beginning to a Division One season. When they met Stoke they had extended that impressive statistic to 29 matches; nine points ahead of Liverpool, the competition for the Championship was surely at an end. Yet that trophy has been a mirage of the most teasing kind for the Elland Road club. Never less than fourth in nine previous seasons, only once had they been victorious. Throughout March the neurosis of that past began to show. A defeat at Anfield had double significance as Liverpool efficiently started to close the gap; Leed's staggering 4–1 home beating by out-of-touch Burnley added to the slide, while another loss at struggling West Ham pushed them to the brink.

That they never toppled over reflects tremendous credit on the maturity of players who had begun the season with an extra burden upon them. Leeds were on trust from the Football Association because of two years of indiscipline on the field. An appalling record of bookings and sendings-off had been answered by the threat of a fine of £3000, which would be implemented if their conduct failed to improve. Thus their League Championship success, sealed in the week before the last Saturday of the season when Liverpool lost at home to Arsenal, had a double flavour of satisfaction. The real threat of another last moment failure had been thrust aside and, in the main, the undoubted qualtiy of Leeds' play had lost its cynicism without losing its effectiveness.

Leeds undoubtedly enjoyed a rare singleness of purpose which followed an early exit from Europe and a sensational Cup defeat by Bristol City; in the final analysis it was Liverpool, eventual Cup-winners, who suffered the distractions. But the Yorkshire club had their own handicaps in a series of injuries which robbed them of the motivating skills of Giles, the drive of Jones, and the electric if enigmatic Eddie Gray for long periods. In the new climate McQueen and Jordan flourished, while David Harvey threw off for all time the challenge of Gary Sprake.

While Liverpool spent much of the year out of arm's reach, they nevertheless held second place with much of the certainty with which Leeds led. Though they never found goalscoring easy, such was the certainty of their defence that one shot often ensured two points. Even when serious injuries robbed the back four of Lawler and Lloyd, none of the cement was missing in the reconstruction; Hughes and young Thompson sealed the centre of the defence while Tommy Smith, relieved of the captaincy and apparently on his way to another club after an altercation with Bill Shankly, produced revelationary form in a revised role at right-back.

Among the few clubs not tainted by the threat of relegation in the new world of 'three-down' were Derby County, who overcame the internal explosion generated by the departure of Brian Clough, and Ipswich, for whom Bobby Robson continued to produce starlets from his own kindergarten. Promoted Queen's Park Rangers and Burnley both spent almost all of the season in the top half of the table, and Rangers in particular unveiled a side of character, cheek, and an astonishing ability to combine both qualities in creating a succession of goals from free-kicks.

But elsewhere the spectre of Second Division football hovered. Just four Saturdays from the end of the season, ten clubs were in serious danger of going down. Threatened West Ham produced an unbeaten run through January into March that in previous years would have guaranteed salvation but only became technically safe with their last game. Stoke too, down among the early strugglers, showed great form around Christmas with a burst of eleven games without defeat and yet still remained in the mire; only another fine end-of-season show of consistency hauled them to safety and eventually fifth place.

At the end of the dog-fight, Southampton became the first club to suffer under the new ruling, but their plight was eclipsed by the demise of Manchester United. Conceding barely more than a goal a game, United's failure lay in the area that had for so long been their strength. They knew they would be without the goals from Law and Charlton for the first time in a decade, but not the crippling and permanent loss of Ian Moore with an incurable ankle injury. George Best, back once more from 'retirement', was but a shadow of his former self, and on New Year's Day he made what surely was his last appearance in a United shirt.

Tommy Docherty could not muster enough goals from either promising youngsters or expensive Scots to avoid the drop. McIlroy topped their League scoring list with just six goals, and the dearth of attacking power was never more evident than in goalkeeper Alex Stepney's heading of that chart for several weeks with but two penalties to his name. If United's downfall had all the sadness that inevitably surrounds the dereliction of a stately home, the immediate end came in circumstances that were both shameful and ironic. The irony occurred when a sad-faced Denis Law backheeled the goal which finally put United down, and it heralded disgraceful behaviour from a contingent of their supporters. Invading the pitch, they succeeded in their intention of having the game abandoned; their futile act only inflicted wounds on a reputation already beginning to tarnish.

Southampton and Norwich City, successful in their brinksmanship a year earlier, were both relegated under new managers; Laurie McMenemy and John Bond. Much of Southampton's stay in the First Division had been guaranteed by forwards of the calibre of Davies, Chivers, and Channon scoring more goals than a succession of leaky defences conceded. McMenemy's faith in attack again only papered over the cracks at the back. His outlay of £175,000 on Peter Osgood epitomised his philosophy, but neither the uneasy ex-Chelsea forward or the more in-form Channon could fashion enough goals to avoid the drop.

This left Birmingham, who began the season with twelve games without a win, as the more dramatic of the escapists; six points from their last four games tugged them above Southampton, vindicating the gamble of manager Freddie Goodwin, who sold Bob Latchford to Everton in a complicated £350,000 deal which brought Kendall and Styles and spending money to St Andrews in his place.

The Second Division became a tale of two Charltons, both in their first season of managership. Jack cast his Middlesbrough very much in the image of his former club; like Leeds, they built on an utterly reliable defence and though goals flowed at the end of the season they played several goal-less draws in the early period which established their status in the Division. Like Leeds, they stretched out in front of the field, but for Middlesbrough there was no suggestion of a faltering step and they finished champions by a staggering record margin of 15 points. Behind them, Luton, at the end of their journey to the Fourth Division and back, reclaimed the First Division status they lost in 1960, while Carlisle joined the élite for the first time by taking the newly created third spot in the last gasp of the season when Orient failed to beat Aston Villa at home and go up themselves.

For Bobby Charlton, initial managerial experience proved far less salutory. Though he buttressed his side with former United colleagues Stiles, Burns, and Sadler, his team collected only 12 goals and two wins in their last 18 Second Division games, and inevitably relegation followed. Swindon tasted an equally distressing season, while the third relegation place eventually fell to Crystal Palace and Malcolm Allison. In an extraordinary season, Palace did not win until November 10, their 16th League game, Then followed a consistent acceleration that seemed certain to keep them in Division Two until the loss of their last two home games proved fatal.

The Third Division, too, had its own front runner. Bristol Rovers emulated the form of both Leeds and Middlesbrough over the first two-thirds of the season, remaining undefeated for 27 games. But an injury to Alan Warboys disrupted a partnership with Bruce Bannister that produced 40 goals, and in the final run-in Oldham emerged from the pack of clubs behind them to take the Championship by a point. Rovers, in second place, earned promotion along with York City.

The most goals of the season, 90, came from Gillingham – 31 of them from striker Brian Yeo – and it guaranteed them promotion from the Fourth Division. For much of the year they were engaged in a three-cornered battle for the Championship with Colchester and Noel Cantwell's Peterborough, who eventually won it and reclaimed a Third Division place that they had lost through an F.A. punishment. Bury's consistency in the latter part of the year gained them the fourth spot.

Inevitably the pattern of events on the field had its influence from issues and factions off it. One noticeable trend involved a new term 'player-power' which manifested itself in two ways; either the players took public, rather than more personal, issue, with decisions taken in club board rooms, or the views of the players held considerable sway in determining the outcome of those decisions.

Of the former type, the parting of Brian Clough and Derby County almost brought strike action from unhappy players. Clough left after a long-standing dispute with Derby chairman Mr Sam Longson, following a six-year period in which he had refashioned the club from an average Second Division side to First Division champions and European Cup semi-finalists. The players, most of whom had accompanied him all the way along that route, reacted so uneasily to his departure that for several bitter weeks they refused to accept a former team-mate, Dave Mackay, recruited immediately from Nottingham Forest as a replacement.

Ron Saunders, who began the season as manager of Norwich City and ended it out of work, felt the effect of the two faces of the unity of players. When he resigned at Carrow Road after a row with the club chairman only his personal intervention prevented a repetition of events at Derby as the players protested. Four months later it was the voice of his new charges at Manchester City which was influential in his dismissal. Saunders had been openly brought in by directors to alter the 'trendy' image of the club and its performers; though he had brief satisfaction in leading Manchester City out for a League Cup final, just as he had at Norwich 12 months earlier, there was no mix to the philosophies of the old and the new, and it was the old, epitomised by the players, which forced the directors to retract and won the day.

Ironically Saunders' last match in charge was at Queen's Park Rangers, where City limply conceded a three-goal defeat. The next day, while Saunders' fate was being determined, there was much of the voice of the Rangers players behind an announcement that Jackie Mansell, their coach for just two weeks, was being relieved of his duties 'because of a clash of personalities'.

Players, too, had their say on Sunday football, which by necessity was introduced to solve the problem of the lack of floodlights through an industrial dispute in another industry. There were dissenting cries from some who felt that it destroyed a footballer's weekend, but those who spoke out were rarely from the lower divisions, where teams played before much larger crowds on a Sunday morning or afternoon than they had been previously doing on a Saturday. The experiment, which was switched off when floodlighting was switched on again, could not be conclusively tested over such short a period, but it provided a welcome stimulus as overall attendances again dropped. Crowd figures of 5630 for Hartlepool v Stockport and 6000 for Barnsley v Reading made warm reading.

Transfer fees increased in what was inevitably a seller's market. A generally agreed paucity of good players meant that star names were invariably assets that clubs hung on to, so that when a talent became available, the bidding furiously pushed up the fee. Hudson to Stoke for £240,000, Osgood to Southampton for £275,000, Latchford to Everton and Tueart and Horswill to Manchester City in complex deals in which valuations were agreed at well over the £300,000 mark – all transfers in which the buyer was looking for goals scored or created. This overriding logic of the market surely made the bargain-of-the-year Fulham's purchase of Bobby Moore for a mere £25,000.

The problem of discipline on the field showed encouraging improvement in one department; considerably less mis-use was made of the appeal system to free players for important fixtures, and the more dramatic problem of control involved spectators rather than players. The extent to which television should be allowed to cover League matches was also a lively subject for debate as a three-year contract came to its end.

In all, it was a season which fell much under the shadow of England's performance at international level. Consolation could be found in the competitive quality of the play in all four divisions but in the final analysis every Football League club suffered because of England's failure to qualify for the World Cup. And for all the achievement of Leeds, Middlesbrough, and the rest the relationship between the grass roots of the League and the withered blossom of international success is perhaps the crucial issue to carry forward into 1975.

INTRODUCTION TO CLUB SECTION

This now accepted and popular feature of the Rothmans Football Yearbook appears virtually as it was last season, with just a few amendments. The notes about club colours, coaches etc., which hitherto appeared on 'page 4' of the club section have been transferred to 'page 1' to give a more polished look to both and also make more space on 'page 4' which tended to become overcrowded last year.

The 'pages 2 and 3' of the section represent the complete league record of each club during the domestic season of 1973–74 and once more it must be stressed that in the case of goalscorers, the club in question has had the last word although there is no absolute authority for this aspect of football statistics. On 'page 3' the figure 12 represents the substitute who actually played, while an asterisk denotes the player who was replaced. All appearances and goals represent League matches only in the accumulative figures on 'page 4'. As last year we are including the League position of each club throughout the season as on the Saturdays shown on 'page 2'.

We have also retained the use of the + sign to show the number of full and substitute appearances. Thus a player who made full and substitute appearances might be listed as: 14+1. Players not making full appearances but appearing as substitute are listed: 0+1. In addition those players not making appearances are given the notation (—) after their names. Full international players are listed with the country of their honour in brackets underneath.

Our final 'copy date' for compiling information was, with a few exceptions, June 1. Thus some additional details concerning transfers, changes of colours etc., will not have been recorded.

Line-ups have been checked and rechecked with the clubs and with the Football League and Scottish League. And in the case of Scotland, where two substitutes were permitted in 1973–74, the figures 12 and 13 have been used as the players who came on and suitable notation is given to those who were replaced.

Once again we are indebted to the various Club secretaries who were kind enough to supply the relative data. We would like to thank especially those clubs who allowed us to reproduce their badges.

Transfer fees which have always been a source of mystery and are never disclosed correctly became even more difficult to pin down last season with the appearance of VAT. Thus it has been impossible to judge the actual fee paid and we have been guided wherever possible by information supplied by the clubs as well as attempting some form of uniformity in the matter. Thus figures may vary from those which were originally published in the press at the time.

Finally, on the matter of players' ages, many clubs are not keen to have the ages of their players reproduced and we have respected their wishes in this matter, though many readers have asked us again about their inclusion.

It is hoped that the foregoing will help you to follow the information in the Club section and add to your enjoyment of what is a unique feature.

Pat Jennings, of Spurs and Northern Ireland, about to make one of the massive clearances that are a feature of his game. Pat is the 'Golden Boots' goalkeeper for the second successive season.

Paul Madeley in determined action for the Champion club, Leeds United. His versatility has been a great asset to manager Don Revie during the gruelling race to the First Division title.

A third successive 'Golden Boots' award is a tribute to the class and consistency of Derby's Roy McFarland, sadly injured at the end of the season. Often lending vital assistance to the attack, he is probably the most complete centre-half in the country.

Norman Hunter of Leeds and England carves a path between Alan Ball and Ray Kennedy of Arsenal, showing the fierce competitiveness that won him the Professional Footballers' Association Footballer of the Year award.

Alec Lindsay of Liverpool in action at Upton Park. He played consistently well at left back during yet another successful season for Shankly's men, and won his first England cap under caretaker manager Joe Mercer.

Last year we published a picture of Billy Bremner in dejected mood as Liverpool ended Leeds' title hopes, but this year he had plenty to smile about! He is, incidentally, the only player to have won five 'Golden Boots' awards.

Emlyn Hughes shows the FA Cup to the ecstatic Liverpool supporters at Wembley. Hughes' success as captain of his club must have gone some way towards easing the great disappointment he showed when England failed to qualify for the World Cup finals.

Celtic's David Hay was an important part of the Scotland squad during their most important season for many years. He is pictured here in action against West Germany during a mid-season friendly.

Yet another 'Golden Boots' winner from Liverpool – Kevin Keegan. He enjoyed a great season with his club, culminating in his two goals in the FA Cup final, and now seems to be an established international player.

Probably the country's most talented forward and last season's top scorer in Division One, Mike Channon now faces the prospect of Second Division football with Southampton. Along with new team-mate Peter Osgood he will be striving to help his club regain their First Division status.

Tommy Hutchison of Coventry has emerged during the past season as one of Scotland's leading international stars. His silky skills have shone in a First Division which has often been the stage for dull and cynical football.

Colin Todd of Derby County, voted into the substitute's position in the 'Golden Boots' squad for the second successive year. Since the international ban has been lifted from him he has played well for England and will, hopefully, continue to do so.

Closing the generation gap? 'Golden Boots' and PFA Young Footballer of the Year, Kevin Beattie of Ipswich Town, goes in hard on Spurs' veteran striker Alan Gilzean.

Ian Callaghan of Liverpool, whose outstanding record of consistency and calm temperament over such a long period was rewarded this year with the Football Writers' Footballer of the Year award. Ian also collected an FA Cup winner's medal.

Manager of the Year Jackie Charlton collecting the track suits from his Middlesbrough players before one of the matches that took them to the Second Division championship. They won the title with a Football League all-time record margin of 15 points.

The tension shows in Don Revie's face as Leeds' title hopes begin to crumble towards the end of the season, but relief was to come as Leeds pulled themselves together and won a First Division championship which they so richly deserved.

FA Cup 1973-74

After the surprise and romance of Sunderland's FA Cup in 1973, the 1974 competition had a more predictable, down-to-earth plot. Nevertheless it created a Wembley occasion worthy of the tournament, for in the finalists, Liverpool and Newcastle United, it brought together two of the most vociferously-supported clubs in the land. If the passion and single-mindedness of these followers destroyed one facet of Wembley's tradition by their refusal to prelude the final with the hymn Abide With Me, they created a gripping atmosphere for the game.

Neither club earned their Wembley place without tasting the essence of the FA Cup, where football's jungle law of the large devouring the small sometimes loses its validity. Both could have left the competition sensationally in the third round. Liverpool, hosts at Anfield to Doncaster Rovers, then 92nd in the Football League, trailed 1-2, fashioned an equaliser, and then suffered endless dramas around their goalmouth before a replay and a more logical pattern of play followed.

Newcastle escaped worse ignominy when Hendon, in the last year of amateur football, paid a tribute to the standards of the Rothmans Isthmian League (already vaunted by Walton & Hersham's 4-0 first round win at Brighton) by drawing at St James's Park. But Newcastle, like Derby County who were held at home by Boston, came through a second tie to leave Hereford, conquerors of West Ham, and Wrexham, comfortable winners at Crystal Palace, as flag-bearers for the lower ranks.

While Wrexham again played David to Middlesbrough's Goliath in the fourth round, the two finalists had further flirtations with disaster. Newcastle, showing an increasing allergy to devouring small fry at their own table, could only draw 1-1 with Scunthorpe, while Liverpool could not fashion a goal at home to Carlisle. Again replays away from home proved more suited to their tastes.

It was a contradiction of expected form that Arsenal could not match in their fourth round clash with Aston Villa. Unconvincing at home, they were fortunate to draw after the visitors had lost striker Morgan for an alleged transgression of which he was later exonerated. At Villa Park, Morgan's early revenge with a headed goal opened the road to a comfortable win for the Second Division side.

Newcastle's more relaxed mood away from home again paid dividends in the fifth round when they demolished West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns. Liverpool, meanwhile, found First Division opposition more familiar in beating Ipswich, and the stories of the round were to be found elsewhere. At Southampton, a headed goal by the youthful Smallman added another illustrious scalp to Wrexham's belt. And above all at Leeds. Unbeaten in domestic competition, Don Revie's side had been forced to exhibit their resilience in a competitive draw at Bristol City. The replay provided the classic moment of unpredictability on which knock-out competitions thrive; a goal from ex-merchant seaman Don Gillies scuppered the stately progress of Leeds, and caused sufficient waves to roughen the last weeks of a seemingly smooth passage to the League title.

In the sixth round a solitary Liverpool goal from John Toshack accounted for Bristol City, while Wrexham could not quite match their Southampton form at Burnley. With Leicester City earning their semi-final place at the expense of the knock-about skills of Queens Park Rangers, only Newcastle's position in the last four remained in any doubt. They had apparently earned it amid blazing controversy with a 4-3 home win over Nottingham Forest. Forest had taken an early lead through Bowyer, Craig had managed an equaliser but the Second Division side led again through O'Kane and then increased that advantage through a Lyall penalty against which Howard had protested so vigorously as to be sent off. Incensed Newcastle fans could finally contain their emotion no longer; as they spilled on to the playing area in their hundreds referee Gordon Kew had to remove the players from the pitch.

When order was restored, so was Newcastle's form. A two-goal deficit was transformed into a one-goal win, but Forest, like an impeded jockey, objected to the running of the race; Forest protested that their players had been attacked by the supporters and their confidence on the resumption had been thus undermined; Newcastle argued that Forest had accepted the decision to continue and should abide by the consequences. In the event the FA wiped the match from the records and ordered the tie to be re-started on a neutral ground, Goodison Park. Unlike the goal-feast of St James's a goalless draw resulted, and Goodison again staged the replay, much to the chagrin of the Forest camp who felt that by now they had done enough to earn a tie on their own ground. One goal, from Malcolm Macdonald, finally confirmed Newcastle's semi-final place.

It was a goal which prolonged Macdonald's run of scoring in every round, and after much predicting in the mould of Muhammed Ali he extended the feat through the semi-final. There his self-belief, as much as his pace and finishing ability, destroyed Burnley as he scored twice in the second half. The Lancashire side, while creating as many chances, lacked the conviction of the Newcastle striker in converting them and became the losers of an attractive tie.

Liverpool dominated but could not beat Leicester at Old Trafford and the contest produced no goals until the second half of the replay. Then a scrambled goal for Liverpool which went in off Weller was quickly countered by Glover, but Toshack created an electrifying goal for Keegan and then scored himself to turn a Liverpool versus Newcastle final from expectancy into reality.

The final, too, produced a period of stalemate. Throughout the first half Newcastle, sadly without the long-serving but injured Craig, for whom the 19-year old Kennedy deputised, matched the steam-rolling efficiency and endless running of Liverpool. In midfield their four men, Smith, McDermott, Cassidy, and Hibbitt, strung across the pitch to destroy the timing in the Liverpool engineroom of Callaghan, Cormack, and Hall. And though Macdonald and Tudor could find not the slightest chink in the Liverpool defence, there were precious few openings for the opposing forwards.

Any pre-match doubts about Liverpool surrounded their lack of scoring power and it looked particularly significant early in the second half when a stunning shot from Lindsay beat McFaul only to be discounted because Keegan had been flagged offside. But within a few minutes what had looked to be a valuable opportunity lost proved to be just a foretaste of what was to come. In the 57th minute the other full-back, Smith, was allowed to place a cross into the half-circle on the edge of the Newcastle area. Hall's gymnastic attempts to make meaningful contact failed but were enough to draw Moncur towards him away from Keegan. Before the gap could be sealed the agile striker had controlled with great economy and volleyed high to McFaul's left; the Irishman reached the shot but could not divert it sufficiently. There was not enough resilience in Newcastle to recover from the blow.

Toshack's superiority to Howard in the air showed positive reward when he, plus a sensitive, unselfish run off the ball by Keegan, sent Heighway clear for a second goal, all this before Macdonald managed the first of just two mishit drives with his celebrated left foot. Then with the red and white ribbons already tied to the Cup, Keegan became the day's popular hero with his second score. An eleven-pass move had begun with the purpose of maintaining possession, but became distinctly positive in its middle when the ball reached Smith. A one-two with Heighway took him close to the bye-line and the fiercely struck low cross slithered to the far side of the goal where an unmarked Keegan turned the ball in.

For Newcastle, it was a record eleventh Final appearance and their first Wembley defeat. But after 19 years without a major domestic honour one suspected that for them reaching Wembley itself was a triumph; Liverpool already with one second place, in the League, had marginally the greater motivation, and on the day it showed.

Final, Wembley, May 4 1974 Liverpool 3, Newcastle U. 0

Liverpool: Clemence; Smith T., Thompson, Hughes, Lindsay; Hall, Cormack, Callaghan; Keegan, Toshack, Heighway. Scorers: Keegan (2), Heighway.

Newcastle United: McFaul; Clark, Howard, Moncur, Kennedy; Smith J. (Gibb 74th min.), McDermott, Cassidy, Hibbitt; Tudor, Macdonald.

THE FOOTBALL LEAGUE CUP

Match report of the Football League Cup final and round-by-round match details

Football League Cup Finals from 1961

Football League Cup

THE FINAL, WEMBLEY, MARCH 2 1974

Wolverhampton Wanderers 2 Manchester City 1

Handicapped more than any other competition by the restrictions of the nation's energy crisis, the Football League Cup nevertheless provided an enthralling Wembley climax in its fourteenth year. The absence of artificial light led to a series of postponements, re-arrangements, and kick-offs nearer noon than night, all of which, together with a liberal sprinkling of replays, made the preliminaries as difficult to follow as a badly written detective story. But out of the meanderings and into the last chapter came Manchester City and Wolverhampton Wanderers, both semi-final winners when form at last proved reliable.

City ended the romance of a challenge by Plymouth Argyle, who exhibited the same kind of flair for the unexpected that had once brought Third Division success in the League Cup to Queen's Park Rangers and Swindon Town. Plymouth had not been favoured by the draw, but under the shrewd tactical guidance of their young manager Tony Waiters, they travelled with the optimism of the Pilgrim Fathers. Queen's Park Rangers, Burnley, and Birmingham were all beaten on their own grounds, and indeed Plymouth led, through Steve Davey, halfway through the first of their two semi-finals with Manchester City. Then logic and City took over. Booth equalised and Lee and Bell ended the dream with emphatic goals at Maine Road. City might have expected a harder fight, for they had taken three games to beat Walsall, and two to beat both York and Coventry in earlier rounds.

Wolves' progress had been more serene, but they leant heavily on the opportunism of John Richards to reach Wembley for the first time since 1960—the days of Slater, Clamp, and Broadbent. It was to Richards' credit that he lived through an early-season period in which he was starved of goals, but now his pace and finishing ability produced the moment and the goal which ended Liverpool's bid in the fifth round. That match was played on a Wednesday afternoon; the first of their semi-finals came on a Wednesday night; the second was on a Saturday afternoon. If those arrangements emphasised the bittiness of the tournament, they did not confuse Richards, who was the only Wolves scorer in both semi-finals against last year's losing finalists, Norwich City. His second goal, from a definitive Wolves' move—the goalkeeper's clearance flicked on by Dougan and finished by Richards—clinched the tie, and Norwich's only interest at Wembley was that their manager of a year ago, Ron Saunders, was now in charge of Manchester City.

The balance of experience, heavily in favour of Manchester City in the original selections, was tilted further when Parkes was declared unfit and Gary Pierce, with a handful of First Division games behind him, came into the Wolves goal on his 23rd birthday. But it was the Wolves players, who had never savoured the Wembley taste before, who had the larger appetite in a first half in which competitiveness occasionally gave way to violence. The captain, Bailey, became the game's most influential figure, and it was he who began a move just before half-time that included a cross from Palmer. If the full-back's aim was Richards, he unintentionally found a better target, and Hibbitt volleyed home with what he later admitted to be a mis-kick.

City's retaliation in the second half earned a goal from Bell, left unmarked from Marsh's cross, and though Munro and McAlle straight-jacketed Lee and Law, it looked to be City's match until nine minutes from time. Then Richards, playing under the disability of a pelvic strain, once again made the vital move. His chance finally came from a Marsh mis-kick after Bailey and Sunderland had begun the move—leaving the City forward so distressed that he refused to collect his loser's trophy—and simple though it was, Richards scored decisively. For the rest, the second half had belonged to Pierce, whose positive positioning and inspired shot-stopping had prevented City from taking a firmer hold.

Perhaps Wolves won because their motivation had been greater. It was the club's first success since 1960, the first winner's medal for Dougan in 17 years, and for Bill McGarry in a much longer career as player and manager. The City players, with enough mementoes to fill many a glass case, seemed among Wembley's happiest losers.

Review of the Season

by Alex Cameron, of the Daily Record

The phenomenal Celtic have yet again dominated Scottish football with a world record-equalling ninth championship win in a row. Their success, made absolute by beating Dundee United 3–0 in the Scottish Cup final at Hampden Park, has edged legislators at long last to change to a three league set-up next season of 10–14–14 in a bold move to extract the imbalance from the Championship. Celtic, however, have rightly and properly pointed out that while they support change and progress, the one way to beat them is to be more efficient on the field.

Under Jock Stein, Celtic have thrown off every sign of a challenge and, frankly, they could easily win the title for a tenth time before reorganisation takes place. Next year there will be 38 teams and three leagues. Ferranti Thistle, an Edinburgh works side, were called in despite hot opposition, particularly from Highland League club Inverness Thistle, to make up the numbers and ensure that Second Division sides don't have an uneven number and, therefore, a game-less Saturday.

There will be 12 teams in the Super League which ensures, of course, that the prizes this season will be greater than at any other time in the history of Scottish football. The 12 best teams in the present First Division will form the new Super League. The remaining six join the top eight in the minor division to form the new First Division. The remainder will play in the Second Division and there will be promotion and relegation from each League.

Will this be an instant cure for Scottish football? Almost certainly not, but it is a move towards sensible change with clubs forced to find their own level with new and increased guarantees – £1000 among the top 12 – and pay more attention to football than side-attractions such as development funds and the lucrative pools cash which was £345 a point last season. Quite astonishingly, Ferranti Thistle will earn a share of this merely by paying the League a trivial membership fee. However, despite League changes Celtic have set such a fantastic pace that the others will have a lot of catching up to do.

Since the voting was 29 clubs for and only eight against the change, it's clear how apparent it was that a major switch-over was needed after so many abortive attempts that even League Secretary Tommy Maule lost count. Hibs showed, by paying £120,000 to Everton for striker Joe Harper, that they mean business. Celtic, on the other hand – always prudent buyers – argue there is no market for such expensive purchases in Scotland. They prefer to find star men like Billy McNeill as boys and assure them a cash-earning benefit towards the end of their careers. Celtic chairman Desmond White argues logically that this is the only way to keep stars in Scotland, so great are attractions in the South.

Hibs will join Celtic on the European trail, having beaten Rangers for second place in the league and thus qualified for the UEFA Cup. Dundee United, as losing finalists, go into the Cup-Winners' Cup. It is worrying for Rangers that they have to be happy with one of the four Texaco Cup places – the others go to Aberdeen, Hearts, and Ayr – but manager Jock Wallace promises big things this season. He has already produced two of the most promising youngsters of the season in striker Alex O'Hara and wing-half Ian McDougall. Rangers have a potential following of at least 50,000. This has fallen only because their most ardent fans cannot bear to compare their team's record with that of rivals Celtic. So the pressure on Rangers to do well this season is going to be tremendous.

Hibs started well by winning the Drybrough Cup but they fell away at a crucial point much to the disappointment of manager Eddie Turnbull. They will be a team to watch this season, though. Dundee played with much style when they beat Celtic in the League Cup final and in striker John Duncan they certainly have Scotland's best player not picked for the World Cup pool of 22. When Celtic tried to buy him, the Dens Park club priced him at £150,000, which was tantamount to telling the Parkhead club to go to blazes. Ex-Celt Tommy Gemmell says openly that he thinks Dundee will win the championship this season. It would, in fact, be a considerable and much-needed boost for football in the Jute City, as attendances have slumped and even on their Cup run to the final at Hampden, manager Jim McLean, of United, was forced to complain bitterly about lack of support.

The new League set-up will throw out a challenge to supporters as well as clubs. If they don't turn out to see the revamped games, then even more desperate measures will have to be taken. Clubs could disappear and others be forced to amalgamate.

The match most Scots will want to forget was Celtic against Atlètico Madrid. Spurred by their Argentinian manager Juan Carlos Lorenzo, Atlètico booted their way viciously into the final, and it was pretty meagre consolation that Bayern Munich beat the Spanish club 4–0 in the final replay in Brussels.

European and world football is still, of course, the prime target for Scotland and its clubs. But the fact that matches against England are still such a sell-out attraction surely means that the British International Championship will go on. That 2–0 win against Joe Mercer's English side at Hampden was the best possible World Cup boost our team could have been given.

And there is the other point that so long as Scotland can produce 18-year-olds like striker Andy Gray of Dundee United, already much sought and valued at £150,000, we have not a lot to fear.

The future, however, lies in a big-time approach and that is why a club such as Ayr United would have to think seriously about full-time football should they finish in the top 12 at the end of the season, as they are very likely to do. Their performances this season have been outstanding under manager Ally MacLeod, but they and the two promoted teams, Airdrie and Kilmarnock, should face the fact that life at the top is for big thinkers. The clubs who want to live on a shoestring will have to find their place lower down the ladder.

Anyway, Scotland is going to be a football pressure chamber for the next year, which should be great fun for the fans.

IRISH AND WELSH FOOTBALL

Irish competitions

Welsh competitions

If ever FIFA decide to issue a medal for bravery and devotion—a George Cross of soccer—then the first recipient should be Northern Ireland. For five years the Irish FA, League, and member clubs have endured almost unbelievable hardships. They have battled through a virtual civil war and, amazingly, completed their programme without any disruption or incidents—and on schedule too.

Overall attendances revealed a 20 percent increase but, more important, the 'isolation barrier' was broken when European clubs decided to play their matches in Northern Ireland. Standard Liège (Belgium), Dinamo Bucharest (Rumania), Chimia Rimnicu Vilcea (Rumania), Brann Bergen (Norway), and Borussia Moenchengladbach (West Germany) all came to play.

Glentoran, of course, lifted prestige to Everest heights when they reached the European Cup-Winners' Cup quarter finals, only to be defeated by Borussia Moenchengladbach but, nevertheless, it was a creditable show performed against great odds and adversity. Three of their players fractured legs during the season and 12 hours after the first leg against Borussia at the Oval, Belfast, their midfielder Roy Stewart died in his sleep from a heart attack.

Valiant efforts were made by the Irish FA to get the British Championship fixtures resumed at Windsor Park, Belfast, but the Scottish FA declined for reasons which, to quote Irish FA president Harry Cavan, were 'fully understood and appreciated'.

Yugoslavia, Norway, and Sweden in the same European Championship group as Northern Ireland, have provisionally agreed to play their away legs at Windsor Park but, fortunately, this problem does not arise until 1975, by which time it is hoped normality will have been restored to the battle-scarred, riot-weary Province.

Not only did the Irish FA and League ensure competitions proceeded on as smooth a basis as possible, they obtained additional sponsorship, too. A new pre-season tournament, sponsored by Carlsberg, the Danish brewers, was introduced and the Gold Cup is financially backed by Hennessy, the cognac manufacturers. Texaco and Blaxnit also operated their series with increased prize money.

Portadown, who set the pace in many of the competitions, especially the Irish League, were pipped on the post by Coleraine who will, of course, represent Northern Ireland in this season's European Champions' Cup. The real success story, however, was Ards, who won the Irish, Blaxnit, All Ireland, Hennessy Gold, and Ulster Cups and were runners-up in the Carlsberg Cup.

Internationally, it was a season of mixed fortunes. World Cup draws with Bulgaria and Portugal—in Sheffield and Lisbon—were followed by a sensational, and merited 1-0 defeat of Scotland at Hampden Park, Glasgow; England were somewhat lucky to get a 1-0 triumph at Wembley. Then, when the team found itself with an opportunity of sharing the championship with England and Scotland by winning over Wales at Wrexham, they flopped. The score in that dreary match was 1-0—the first goal which Wales have scored in the home international series since April 1970. Manager Terry Neill, who has a perfect liaison with his skipper Dave Clements (Everton), is however, hopeful about the future. Under his control are an excellent corps of dedicated talented youngsters such as Chris McGrath (Tottenham), Sammy McIlroy (Manchester U.), and Tommy Finney (Luton), to name but a few. 'If we avoid injuries and can maintain a flow of young players, then Northern Ireland should make a decisive impact. Players are now beginning to believe in themselves and that is a great step forward. No longer is Northern Ireland, a disciplined organised side, yet looked upon as the underdogs.'

Most people would agree with that viewpoint as the light begins to appear in what has been an interminably lengthy tunnel. Those ominous dark clouds are beginning to break up.

MISCELLANEOUS

Brazil set up a record for undefeated matches in the World Cup in the 1958 and 1962 finals playing 13, winning 11, and drawing two. Their run ended when they lost 3–1 to Hungary in the 1966 World Cup.

Hungary went 13 years undefeated at home from after losing 7–2 to Sweden in 1943 until they lost 4–2 to Czechoslovakia in 1956. The Hungarians also had a run of 29 games before losing from their 5–3 defeat against Austria in May 1950 until they lost the World Cup final 3–2 to West Germany in July 1954.

Real Madrid were undefeated in League matches at home from February 1957 when they lost 3–2 to Atletico Madrid until beaten again by Atletico 1–0 in March 1965. Between these defeats they won 114 matches and drew eight.

Ferenc Deak was one of the most prolific goalscorers in League football in the years immediately after the war. In 1945–46 he scored 66 goals for Szentlorinci AC in Hungary, 48 in 1946–47, and 59 in 1948–49 when with Ferencvaros.

Players who have won international caps for three different countries are Ladislav Kubala, capped for Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Spain in the post-war period, and Alfredo Di Stefano for Argentina, Colombia, and Spain. In pre-war days Jock Kennaway appeared for Canada, the USA, and Scotland between 1928–1934.

The Nordahl brothers Knut, Bertil, and Gunnar won Olympic Gold medals with Sweden in 1948.

In 1955–56 Fiorentina went through 33 Italian League matches without defeat.

Thought to be the longest match on record, Santos (Brazil) and Penarol (Uruguay) played 3½ hours from August 2 to August 3 after kicking off at 9.30 a.m. The match ended 3–3 after interruptions during play, however.

The first international played in Europe other than between British teams was Austria 5 Hungary 0 on October 12 1902. The first match in South America was between Argentina and Uruguay in 1905 and drawn 1–1.

The world record transfer fee is £922,300 for Johan Cruyff from Ajax (Holland) to Barcelona (Spain) in 1973.

Football League

The first five Football League games were played on September 8 1888. Bolton Wanderers were three goals up in about six minutes against Derby County, but were eventually beaten 6-3. Cox of Aston Villa scored the first 'own goal', giving Wolverhampton Wanderers an early lead, but Villa recovered to draw 1-1.

Huddersfield Town became the first team to complete a hat-trick of League Championships — 1924-25-26.

F.A. Cup

Tottenham Hotspur was the first Southern club to win the Cup when they beat Sheffield United in 1901. Spurs were then members of the Southern League and so were the first and only non-League club to carry off the trophy.

King George V was the first reigning monarch to attend a Cup Final. He saw Burnley beat Liverpool at the Crystal Palace in 1914.

David Jack (Bolton Wanderers) scored the first goal in a Wembley Cup Final. This was in 1923 when the crowd broke in to see the Wanderers beat West Ham United 2-0.

Extra time was first played in the Cup Final in 1877. Wanderers and Oxford University were drawing 0-0 at full-time, but Wanderers scored twice in extra time.

Internationals and representative games

The first representative game was played at Battersea Park, March 31 1866, London beating Sheffield by two goals and four touch-downs to nil.

The first official England v Scotland international was played at the West of Scotland Cricket Ground, Partick, November 30 1872, and resulted in a goalless draw.

Wales played their first international in 1876, losing 4-0 to Scotland in Glasgow.

Ireland's first international was against England at Bloomfield, Belfast, in 1882 when the visitors won 13-0.

Caps were first awarded for appearances in internationals in 1886.

The Football League played their first representative game in April 1891. It was against the Football Alliance at Sheffield and resulted in a draw 1-1.

England's first defeat on foreign soil in a full international was against Spain in Madrid in 1929 when the Spaniards won 4-3.

England's first home defeat by a continental country was at Wembley in 1953 when Hungary won 6-3.

Scotland's first home defeat by a foreign team was at Hampden Park in 1950 when Austria won 1-0.

Billy Wright became the first international in Britain to gain 100 caps when he captained England against Scotland at Wembley in April 1959.

Terry Venables was the first player to win international honours for England at five levels – Schoolboy, Youth, Amateur, Under-23 and Full International. He gained his first full cap in October 1964.

Floodlit football

The first-ever game by floodlight was that between two Sheffield Association teams at Bramall Lane, October 14 1878.

The first F.A. Cup tie under floodlights was a replay between Kidderminster Harriers and Brierley Hill Alliance, September 14 1955.

Floodlights were first switched on during an international match in England in November 1955 at Wembley – England v Spain.

The first Football League game under floodlights – Portsmouth v Newcastle United, at Fratton Park, February 22 1956.

The first full international played entirely under floodlights in Britain took place at Wembley in 1963 when England beat N. Ireland 8-3.

Hat-tricks

The first hat-trick in an F.A. Cup Final was that scored by William Townley for Blackburn Rovers v Sheffield Wednesday in 1890.

Equipment, etc.

Shinguards were first introduced and registered by Sam Widdowson of Nottingham Forest in 1874 The cross-bar first replaced the tape in 1875, and the whistle was used by the referee for the first time in 1878. Goalnets were invented and patented by J. A. Brodie of Liverpool in 1890 and were first used in the F.A. Cup Final in 1892.

Substitutes

First substitute in a Football League game – Keith Peacock of Charlton Athletic, at Bolton, August 21 1965.

The first instance of a substitute in a home International Championship game was at Wrexham in 1908 when Dai Davies of Bolton Wanderers took over from the injured L. R. Roose in the Welsh goal against England.

England's first substitute in a full international was Jimmy Mullen (Wolverhampton Wanderers) who took over from the injured Jackie Milburn after 10 minutes of the game against Belgium in Brussels, May 18 1950.

The first substitute to score in a Football League game was Bobby Knox (Barrow) v Wrexham, Division 4, August 21 1965.

Transfers

The first four, five, and six-figure transfer fees between British clubs were as follows:
£1,000 – Alf Common, Sunderland to Middlesbrough, 1905.
£10,890 – David Jack, Bolton Wanderers to Arsenal, 1928.
£110,000 – Alan Ball, Blackpool to Everton, 1966.

Radio and TV
The first match broadcast in England was the First Division game between Arsenal and Sheffield United at Highbury, January 22 1927.
The first Football League game to be televised was Blackpool v Bolton Wanderers, September 10 1960.
The first F.A. Cup tie to be televised – other than the Final – was Charlton Athletic v Blackburn Rovers, 5th Round, February 8 1947.

Corner-kick
Billy Smith was the first player to score direct from a corner-kick in a Football League game – Huddersfield Town v Arsenal, October 11 1924.

Limited Company
The first football club to form itself into a limited liability company was Birmingham City in 1888. At that time they were still known as Small Heath.

Penalty kick
The first player to score from a penalty kick in a Football League match was Heath of Wolverhampton Wanderers v Accrington, Division I, September 14 1891.

Professional
The identity of the first professional footballer may never be definitely established, but it was probably J. J. Lang, a Scot who joined Sheffield Wednesday in 1876 after playing for Clydesdale and Glasgow Eastern.

Tour
Oxford University were the first to send a football team on an overseas tour. This was in 1875 when they visited Germany.

Sunday Football
The first Football League game to be played on a Sunday was that between Millwall and Fulham on the morning of January 20 1974. Eleven other Football League games were played later the same day.

SOME OTHER RECORDS

The oldest player ever to appear in the Football League was Neil McBain who played in goal for New Brighton v Hartlepools United, Division 3(N), March 15 1947. He was then aged 52 years 4 months.
The oldest player ever to appear for any of the home countries in a full international was Billy Meredith. He was nearly 46 years of age when he played for Wales v England, March 15 1920.
The record for most appearances in the Football League during one season by a player over 40 years of age was created by Bob McGrory. In his last season as a player with Stoke City (1934–35) he appeared in all 42 First Division games. Bob was then 43 years of age.
The record for most consecutive appearances in the Football League was created by Harold Bell, Tranmere Rovers centre-half. Commencing with the opening game of season 1946–47 Bell did not miss a single game until August 1955 – a run of 401 consecutive Division 3(N) matches. Including F.A. Cup, Liverpool Senior Cup and Cheshire Bowl games, Bell enjoyed a run of 459 consecutive first team appearances.
Jimmy Dickinson created a club record by making 764 Football League appearances for Portsmouth between 1946 and 1965. In the Scottish League the record for most appearances for a single club was created by Bob Ferrier with a total of 626 for Motherwell between 1918 and 1937.
Billy Wright (Wolverhampton Wanderers) set up a world record by playing in 70 consecutive internationals for England, from 1951 to 1959.
Since substitutes were introduced into League football in 1965, Bristol City is the club that has played through the longest spell without calling upon one of these players – a run of 52 League games, 4 F.A. Cup, and 2 League Cup ties from February 1966 to April 1967.
The shortest player ever to appear in the Football League is outside-right Fred le May who was only 5 ft tall. He played for Thames 1930–31, Watford 1931–32, and Clapton Orient 1932–33. The tallest was Albert Iremonger, Notts County and Lincoln City goalkeeper 1904–27. He was 6 ft 5 in. tall.
The longest F.A. Cup tie was that in the 4th qualifying round between Alvechurch and Oxford City in 1971. This needed 11 hours (six games) before Oxford City won 1-0.
The longest single game on record is that between Stockport County and Doncaster Rovers, March 26 1946. In an effort to reach a decisive result this Third Division (N) cup tie continued for 205 minutes before bad light forced an abandonment.
Rochdale suffered 14 consecutive home defeats in Division 3(N) in 1931–32. This is a Football League record. After beating New Brighton 3-2 on November 7 1931, they did not get another home point until holding Barrow to a goalless draw in their second home game of season 1932–33. During that same period Rochdale suffered one run of 17 consecutive defeats (home and away) – also a Football League record.
In season 1905–06 Bristol City won 14 consecutive Division 2 games. This Football League record was equalled by Preston North End in Division 2 in 1950–51.
The Scottish League record for the longest run of consecutive victories was created by Morton in Division 2 in 1963–64 when they won 23 games in a row.
Leeds United were undefeated in a run of 34 First Division games, October 1968 to August 1969. This is a Football League record.
The longest run without defeat in a single season of Football League games is one of 30 matches by Burnley in Division 1 in 1920–21.
In the Scottish League, Celtic created a record by remaining undefeated in a run of 63 games – November 1915 to April 1917.
Blackburn Rovers hold the record for the longest run of consecutive F.A. Cup ties without defeat. From December 1883 to December 1886 they were unbeaten in 24 Cup ties and won the trophy three times during this period.
The only player to score two goals for each side in a Football League game is Sam Wynne. In Division 2, October 6 1923, he scored with a free-kick and a penalty for Oldham Athletic, but put through his own goal for Manchester United.

Arthur Chandler scored in each of 16 consecutive Football League games for Leicester City in Division 2 during season 1924–25. This is a League record.

Jimmy Cookson was the player who reached a first century of Football League goals in the shortest time. He made his debut for Chesterfield in 1925 and reached his century in December 1927 with West Bromwich Albion when figuring in his 87th Football League game.

The record number of goals scored by a player making his Football League debut is five – by George Hilsdon for Chelsea v Glossop, Division 2, September 1 1906.

The record for scoring the fastest goal in a Football League game is claimed by Jim Fryatt. According to Referee Mr. R. J. Simon this player scored for Bradford v Tranmere Rovers only four seconds after the kick-off, April 25 1964.

The fastest goals scored in the F.A. Cup Final at Wembley were obtained in the first minute. In 1928 John Roscamp put Blackburn Rovers ahead when he charged both the Huddersfield goalkeeper and the ball into the net, and in 1955 Jackie Milburn headed Newcastle United into a first-minute lead over Manchester City.

John McIntyre scored four goals in five minutes for Blackburn Rovers v Everton, Division 1, September 16 1922.

W. G. Richardson also scored four goals in five minutes for West Bromwich Albion, Division 1, November 7 1931, but this was even more remarkable because the feat was achieved in an away game – against West Ham United.

The record number of penalties missed by one side in a Football League Division 1 game is three. Manchester City (Fletcher 2 and Thornley) missed this number against Newcastle United, January 27 1912.

The most penalties scored by a player in a First Division game is three – Billy Walker for Aston Villa v Bradford City, November 21 1921; Charlie Mitten for Manchester United v Aston Villa, March 8 1950, and Ken Barnes for Manchester City v Everton, December 7 1957.

The record number of players from the same club in an England team is seven, Frank Moss, George Male, Eddie Hapgood, Wilf Copping, Raymond Bowden, Ted Drake and Clifford Bastin, all of Arsenal, played against Italy at Highbury, November 14 1934.

The England team twice included all Corinthian players in the 1890s but this cannot be considered a record because the Corinthians were a combined eleven, most of their players also appearing with other clubs.

In season 1925–26 Cardiff City created a Football League record by having as many as 17 internationals on their books. There were 9 Welsh internationals, 4 Scottish, and 4 Irish.

The England team that won the 1966 World Cup created a record for the country by remaining unchanged in six consecutive games – the quarter-final, semi-final and final of the World Cup and their next three games.

England's longest run without defeat is one of 20 games between 1889 and 1896.

The biggest championship winning margin for any division of the Football League is 15 points. Middlesbrough finished that far ahead of the runners-up in Division 2 in 1973–74.

The smallest number of players called upon by a club to complete a season of Football League games is 14 by Liverpool when winning the Championship in 1965–66. Five of their players were ever-present.

In the Scottish League, Dundee called upon only 15 players throughout season 1961–62. They also won the Championship that season and had five players ever-present.

The goalscoring record for a goalkeeper in a single season of Football League games was set up in 1923–24 by Arnold Birch of Chesterfield. In Division 3(N) games that season he scored five goals, all from penalties

Four men have both played in and managed Football League Championship winning teams: Ted Drake, Arsenal, centre-forward, 1933–34, 1934–35, 1937–38; Chelsea, manager, 1954–55. Bill Nicholson, Tottenham Hotspur, right half-back, 1950–51, manager, 1960–61. Alf Ramsey, right-back, Tottenham Hotspur, 1950–51, Ipswich Town, manager, 1961–62. Joe Mercer, left-half, Everton 1938–39, Arsenal 1947–48, 1952–53, Manchester City, manager, 1967–68.

In 1973–74 Leeds United created a Football League record for the longest run without defeat from the start of a season – 29 First Division games before losing 2–3 at Stoke. It could be said that this only equalled Liverpool's run in the Second Division in 1893–94 when they were unbeaten in all 28 games. Their 29th game that season was the extra 'Test Match' to decide promotion and relegation between the First and Second Divisions.

International Stars of the Past

ALBERT, Florian (1941–) Ferencvaros and Hungary. Skilful, enterprising centre-forward with a goalscoring flair, who made his debut for club and country at 17 in 1959. He was leading League scorer three times in 1960 (27 goals), 1961 (21), and 1965 (27), and was capped on 75 occasions. A tall, willowy striker he became European Footballer of the Year in 1967. Injuries in more recent years precipitated his retirement early in 1974.

ALLCHURCH, Ivor (1929–) Swansea Town, Newcastle United, Cardiff City, Swansea City, and Wales. Unorthodox inside-forward of constructive ability whose fair hair helped to earn him the title of 'Golden Boy' of Welsh football. He played 19 seasons in League football from 1949 to 1968, making 694 appearances and scoring 251 goals. He remains the most capped Welsh international with 68 appearances.

ARMFIELD, Jimmy (1935–) Blackpool and England. Fast strong, intelligent full-back who showed tremendous flair for attacking play in the 'overlapping' role. He played for Blackpool from 1954 to 1971, making 568 League appearances, and he won 43 caps, 15 of them as captain. In 1971 he became manager of Bolton Wanderers, and in 1972–73 took his side up into the Second Division.

BANKS, Gordon (1937–) Chesterfield, Leicester City, Stoke City, and England. Outstanding goalkeeper of excellent reflexes and courage who had to retire early in the 1973–74 season following an eye injury sustained in a car crash in October 1972. Won a record (for a goalkeeper in England) 73 caps including the 1966 World Cup. Elected Footballer of the Year in 1972.

BARNES, Walley (1920-) Arsenal and Wales. Cultured, intelligent full-back who began his football life as an inside-forward with Southampton during the war. Won a League Championship medal in 1948 and a Cup winners' medal in 1950, but a serious knee injury in the 1952 final cost Arsenal the chance of beating Newcastle. A regular performer for his country, he was capped 21 times in a playing career of 267 League appearances that ended in 1955.

BASTIN, Cliff (1912-) Exeter City, Arsenal, and England. Goalscoring left-winger who began his career as an inside-forward. Signed for Arsenal by Herbert Chapman at 17, he won every honour in the game before he was 21, and earned the nickname 'Boy'. His speed and power of shot brought him 33 First Division goals in 1932-33, still a record for a winger. He won 21 caps before retiring just after the war. Made 367 League appearances, scoring 157 goals.

BAXTER, Jim (1939-) Raith Rovers, Rangers, Sunderland, Nottingham Forest, Rangers, and Scotland. Elegant midfield player with a superb left foot. His genius on the field was never matched by his controversial behaviour off it. Forest paid Sunderland £100,000 for him in 1967; eighteen months and 48 games later, he left on a free transfer. In retrospect, his career never really recovered from the moment he broke a leg playing for Rangers in 1964. He won 34 caps, and scored both goals in Scotland's Wembley win in 1963. Made 347 Scottish and Football League appearances.

BERGMARK, Orvar (1930–) Orebro, Solna, Roma, and Sweden. Close-marking, consistent full-back and a born leader who won a record 94 caps for his country. Originally a centre-forward, he quickly switched to full-back and later had a spell at centre-half. His international career stretched from 1951 to 1965 and then he took over as Sweden's manager. In 1971 he was appointed manager of his old club, Orebro.

BICAN, Josef (1913–) Hertha, SK Rapid, Admira, SK Slavia, Vitkovice ZKG, Austria, and Czechoslovakia. Resourceful centre-forward and a brilliant goalscorer who was born in Vienna of Czech parents and played for both countries; 19 times for Austria and 14 for Czechoslovakia. Though not powerful in the air or having a particularly strong shot, 'Pepi' as he was known, relied on swerve, direction, and sublety for his goals. When he retired in 1952 he had scored some 500 goals.

BINDER, Franz (1911–) Sturm 19, St Polten, Rapid, Austria, and Germany. Prolific scoring centre-forward or inside-left who hit 1006 goals in 756 matches between 1930 and 1950, losing many years because of the war. He was capped 20 times by Austria and another nine by Germany when his country was annexed. After retiring he became manager of Rapid.

BINGHAM, Billy (1931-) Sunderland, Luton Town, Everton, Port Vale, and Northern Ireland. Aggressive winger with a flair for the unexpected and a goal sense that brought him more than 100 League goals in 419 League games. Won a record 56 caps for his country and was in the side that reached the World Cup quarter-finals in 1958. Later he became manager of Southport, Plymouth, and Northern Ireland before migrating to Greece to guide the national side. Returned to England in the summer of 1973 to manage Everton.

BLANCHFLOWER, Danny (1926-) Barnsley, Aston Villa, Tottenham Hotspur, and Northern Ireland. Studious, astute wing-half whose intelligent play made him a master tactician and brilliant leader. He captained Spurs to the first 20th century double in 1961, and captained the Irish side many times in his 56 appearances for his country. His midfield partnership with John White was the platform from which Spurs built arguably the greatest team of the century. Made 553 League appearances.

BLOOMER, Steve (1874-1938) Derby County, Middlesbrough, Derby County, and England. Direct centre-forward with a priceless gift for goalscoring. In a career that stretched from 1892 to 1914, he hit 352 League goals in about 600 games, adding a further 28 in his 23 international appearances - an England record that stood for almost 50 years. He attributed his success to his ability 'to get to the ball first'.

BOZSIK, Jozsef (1925–) Honved and Hungary. Gifted organiser and tactician of the Hungarian team of the late 1940s and early 1950s; a wing-half of vision and ability who won a record 100 caps between 1947 and 1962. He won an Olympic winners' medal in 1952 and a World Cup runners-up one in 1954. Off the field he was for many years a member of the Hungarian National Assembly. He gave up coaching after a short spell with his old club.

BUCHAN, Charlie (1891–1961) Sunderland, Arsenal, and England. Inside-forward of such individual skill that it was often felt that he was too good to play for England. He played almost 500 First Division games and scored 258 goals, but he was capped only five times. Credited by some sources as inventing the 'third-back game' which was so integral to Arsenal's successes. After retiring in 1928, Buchan found success in broadcasting and journalism.

BUSBY, Sir Matt (1910–) Manchester City, Liverpool, and Scotland. A distinguished wing-half whose playing feats have nevertheless paled in comparison with his managerial achievements at Manchester United. He won a Cup winners' medal in 1934; the same year he gained his only Scottish cap. Made 317 League appearances. Under his managership, United triumphed in five League Championships, two F.A. Cups, and the European Cup. He was knighted in 1968 and the following January retired after 23 years in charge. Now a director at Old Trafford.

CARTER, Raich (1913–) Sunderland, Derby County, Hull City, and England. Brilliantly gifted inside-forward, as conspicuous on the field by his ball skills and passing ability as by his prematurely silver hair. Won Cup medals with both Sunderland and Derby, netting a vital goal in the 1937 final. He was capped six times in the thirties, but only really established himself as an international star during the war. He won his last caps in 1947. Played 451 League games, scoring 216 goals. Later managed Leeds, Mansfield, and Middlesbrough.

CHARLES, John (1931–) Leeds United, Juventus, Leeds United, Roma, Cardiff City, and Wales. At centre-half or centre-forward, his fearsome power in the air made him a force all over the world. His £65,000 move to Juventus in 1957 started a migration to Italy, but only Charles, of the British players, became, and remains, an idol there. Scorer of over 250 Football and Italian League goals, though he often played as a defender. Represented his country 38 times.

CHARLTON, Jackie (1935–) Leeds United and England. Lanky, dominating centre-back who played 629 games for his only club in the League before retiring to take over the management of Middlesbrough and guiding them to the Second Division Championship in his first season, 1973–74. Won 35 caps for England including the 1966 World Cup success. His career in League football spanned 20 years. Awarded the OBE in 1974.

COHEN, George (1939–) Fulham and England. Right-back with an imaginative flair for attack and the power and speed to put it into practice. First capped in 1964 against Uruguay, he established a regular place in the England side. He won 37 caps in all, the most important of which came in the Wembley World Cup triumph of 1966. Strong, industrious, and loyal, he was essentially a Ramsey-type player. A knee injury ended his career in 1968 after more than 400 appearances for Fulham.

COLUNA, Mario (1935–) Benfica, Lyon, and Portugal. Compact, disciplined midfield general with fine control and passing ability allied to a strong finish, he was the mastermind of Benfica's European Cup successes in 1961 and 1962. In 1966 he captained Portugal in their first World Cup finals to finish third. He won his 73rd cap to set up a record for Portugal and finished his playing career in France.

CROMPTON, Bob (1879–1941) Blackburn Rovers and England. England's regular right-back from the turn of the century to World War I, he won 41 caps in an age when only three or four internationals were played each season. Solidly built, he was extremely quick on the turn and solid in the tackle, but always his play was characterised by its fairness.

DEAN, Bill 'Dixie' (1907–) Tranmere Rovers, Everton, Notts County, and England. Prolific goalscoring centre-forward of legendary power in the air. His total of 60 First Division goals in the 1927–28 season remains a Football League record, and he amassed 379 goals in 437 appearances in his career, including 37 hat-tricks. He played 16 times for England – collecting another 18 goals in the process.

DICKINSON, Jimmy (1925–) Portsmouth and England. Supremely consistent defensive wing-half who between 1946 and 1965 played 764 League games for Portsmouth, a League record. The level of his play was equally consistent whether as a firm tackler or a sensible user of the ball. Prominent in the Portsmouth Championship sides of 1949 and 1950, he was a regular international for nine seasons, gaining 48 caps.

DI STEFANO, Alfredo (1926–) River Plate, Huracan, Millionarios, Real Madrid, Espanol, Argentina, and Spain. A deep lying centre-forward who favoured almost exclusively his talented right foot but was able by deft touches to always keep it in play. Was the centre point of the Real Madrid teams of the late 1950s winning five European Cup medals among many honours. Scored a record 49 goals in 58 European ties. Top scorer in Spain 1954 (29 goals), 1956 (24), 1957 (31), 1958 (19), and 1959 (23). Twice European Footballer of the Year in 1957 and 1959. Later coached Elche, Boca Juniors, and Valencia, whom he left in 1974.

DOHERTY, Peter (1914–) Blackpool, Manchester City, Derby County, Huddersfield Town, Doncaster Rovers, and Northern Ireland. Completely skilled inside-forward, regarded by many judges as the greatest player Ireland has ever produced. Won a League Championship medal with Manchester City and a Cup medal with Derby, where he teamed up memorably with Raich Carter, He carried his astute tactical sense into management at Doncaster and Bristol City, and he masterminded Northern Ireland's courageous challenge in the 1958 World Cup. 403 League appearances, 197 goals.

DOUGLAS, Bryan (1935–) Blackburn Rovers and England. Right-winger and later midfield player with exceptional close control and the ability to take on defenders. Played a vital part in Blackburn's promotion to the First Division in 1958 and their Wembley appearance two years later. Capped 36 times, he was England's outside-right in the World Cups of 1958 and 1962, impressing particularly in Chile. 439 League appearances, 102 goals.

EDWARDS, Duncan (1936–1958) Manchester United and England. Though he died after the Munich air crash at the age of 21, Edwards had already proved himself to be a magnificent attacking wing-half. Marvellously powerful, he was at his most exciting carrying the ball forward, always threatening to strike at goal or to slice open a defence with an immense crossfield pass. Played for United at 16, England at 18 and 183 days – still the youngest cap. Made 151 League appearances.

EVANS, Bobby (1928–) Celtic, Chelsea, Newport County, Morton, Third Lanark, Raith Rovers, and Scotland. First at right-half then at the centre of the defence, Evans, red-haired and forceful, won 48 caps. In a 16-year career at Celtic, he won League, League Cup, and Cup honours throughout the fifties. Moved to Chelsea and then had seven seasons with lesser clubs before retirement in 1968.

FLOWERS, Ron (1934–) Wolverhampton Wanderers, Northampton Town and England. Another dominating half-back whose strength was one of the foundations of Wolves' success in the fifties. Blond and tall, but lacking little in skill and balance, he established a regular place in the England side towards the end of the decade only to lose it just before the World Cup finals of 1966 – though he was in the squad of 22. Later became player-manager at Northampton and in non-League football. 529 League appearances.

FINNEY, Tom (1922–) Preston North End and England. For many the most gifted English forward of all time, he played most of his 76 internationals on the wings. Towards the end of his long and loyal career at Preston – he played 431 League games and scored 187 goals – he gave further proof of his excellent all-round skills in the role of deep-lying centre-forward. Voted Footballer of the Year in 1954 and 1957. Totally selfless with unique skills that were matched by his unerring sportmanship.

FONTAINE, Just (1933–) Nice, Rheims, and France. Fast, accurate marksman and goalscoring opportunist who holds the record for goals in the World Cup finals (13 in 1958). Was top League scorer in France in 1958 (34 goals) and 1960 (28) but had his career cut short by double fractures of the leg in 1960 and 1961. After brief spells as national team manager and President of the Players' Union, he left the game.

FRANKLIN, Neil (1922–) Stoke City, Hull City, Crewe Alexandra, Stockport County, and England. Accomplished defender who was England's centre-half in the first 27 matches after the war. His career was ruined when he illegally joined Colombian club Santa Fe. Returned disillusioned in 1950 to suspension and transfer from Stoke and he never re-established himself. After retirement, had a spell as manager at Colchester. 321 League appearances.

FRIEDENREICH, Artur (1892–) Germania, Ipiranga, Americano, Paulistano, Sao Paulo, Flamengo, and Brazil. Certainly the first player to score 1000 goals, he amassed 1329 in a lengthy career. Won his first cap against Exeter City in 1914.

GALLACHER, Hughie (1903–1957) Airdrieonians, Newcastle United, Chelsea, Derby County, Notts County, Grimsby, Gateshead, and Scotland. Centre-forward who, despite being only 5ft 6in., was the complete attacker, his lack of inches rarely handicapping him in the air. Scorer of 387 goals in British League football and capped 19 times by Scotland his fiery temperament and swaggering manner always made him controversial. Tragically committed suicide at the age of 54.

GARRINCHA, Manoel Francisco dos Santos (1933–) Pau Grande, Botafogo, Corinthians, Flamengo, Bangu, Portuguesa Santista, Olaria, and Brazil. Fast, smooth running right-winger with inch perfect control and accuracy in crossing the ball, despite a badly deformed left leg. Was the forward inspiration of the World Cup wins in 1958 and 1962 but increasing injury problems, particularly to his right knee, finally ended his career in 1972. He won 60 caps for Brazil.

GENTO, Lopez Francisco (1933–) Rayo Cantabria, Real Santander, Real Madrid, and Spain. Short, chunky, fleet-footed left winger and a consistent performer for club and country. He played in all Real's six European Cup successes and won 43 caps. 'Paco', as he was known, stayed longest of all the Real stars and played in the 1971 Cup-Winners' Cup Final before becoming trainer to the club's juniors.

GERSON, de Oliveira Nunes (1941–) Canto do Rio, Flamengo, Botafogo, Sao Paulo, and Brazil. A midfield strategist noted for accurate long-distance distribution, he was outstanding in Brazil's World Cup win in 1970. First coming to prominence in the 1960 Olympics, he gradually established himself in the national team and won 84 caps. A broken ankle and subsequent injuries caused a premature retirement in 1973.

GREAVES, Jimmy (1940–) Chelsea, AC Milan, Tottenham Hotspur, West Ham United, and England. Goalscoring prodigy of the fifties who retained a unique knack of accepting chances at the highest levels throughout his career. Scored 357 First Division goals, 492 inall senior matches, before retiring at the premature age of 31. Handicapped by bout of jaundice in 1965, and a shin injury, he lost his place in England's World Cup winning team. Played 57 times for England, scoring 44 goals.

GROSICS, Gyula (1926–) Dorog, Honved, Tatabanya, and Hungary. Athletic, flexible, and highly competent goalkeeper for the Hungarian teams of the 1940s and 1950s, he was capped 86 times between 1947 and 1962. His command of the penalty area was superb. He played in the 1952 Olympics and three World Cup competitions and had spells as a coach after he stopped playing.

GYLMAR dos Santos Neves (1930–) Jabaquara, Corinthians, Santos, and Brazil. The most capped goalkeeper in the world, he won 100 caps and was known as a calm, competent, and resourceful last line of defence. He let in only 95 goals in his international career and finished on the losing side only 14 times. He won World Cup winners' medals in 1958 and 1962.

HANAPPI, Gerhardt (1929–) Wacker, Rapid, and Austria. Constructive midfield player, able defenceman if necessary, and useful goalscorer, he was Austria's most capped player, winning 96 caps including 50 in consecutive games. Footballer of the Year on eight occasions, he finally retired in 1964; a tribute to an all-rounder who was capped in every position except goal and left wing.

HAYNES, Johnny (1934–) Fulham and England. Dominating inside-forward always remembered for his effortless but exact long-distance passing ability , particularly the reverse pass. For 18 seasons he pulled the strings for Fulham, a loyal servant for almost 600 League games, although he sometimes seemed less than tolerant of those not so gifted. An influential international in 56 games, 22 of them as captain including the 1962 World Cup. Reputedly the first £100-a-week footballer after the abolition of the maximum wage in 1961. Scored 148 League goals.

HIDEGKUTI, Nandor (1922–) Herminamezo, MTK Budapest, and Hungary. Clever, deep-lying centre-forward of the great Hungarian teams of the post-war era. Despite his unselfish approach, he still managed to score 39 goals himself in 68 internationals. But his direction of offensive play was his finest quality. After retiring he coached at home and abroad.

HITCHENS, Gerry (1934–) Cardiff City, Aston Villa, Inter Milan, Torino, Atalanta, Cagliari, and England. Forceful centre-forward with an unflappable temperament that helped make him such a success in Italy. Joining Inter in 1961 at a time of several exports, he settled easily and scored regularly against massed defences. He won seven England caps, the last two in the World Cup. In 1969 he returned to England and non-League football.

JACKSON, Alec (1905–1946) Aberdeen, Huddersfield Town, Chelsea, and Scotland. Gifted winger whose hat-trick at Wembley in 1928 spearheaded the success of the Wembley Wizards. His pace and opportunism made an immediate impression in English football, and he won a Championship medal in his first year at Huddersfield. He played in their losing sides at Wembley in 1928 and 1930. Left Chelsea after a dispute and went out of League football at 27. Killed in a road crash in North Africa. Made 278 League appearances, scoring 100 goals.

JAMES, Alex (1902–1953) Raith Rovers, Preston North End, Arsenal, and Scotland. Diminutive inside-forward of classic stature. His two-goal display in the Wembley Wizards match established a reputation that preceded him to Arsenal in 1929. There, he master-minded success after success in the thirties with his incomparable passing and bewildering ability on the ball, despite being severely kicked in every match he played. Prejudice against 'Anglos' meant that he won only eight Scottish caps. 478 Football and Scottish League games, 106 goals.

JONES, Cliff (1935–) Swansea City, Tottenham Hotspur, Fulham, and Wales. Thrusting winger of devastating speed and infinite bravery who contributed greatly to the Spurs' successes of the early sixties. Always willing and able to run at his full-back, he was at his most exciting leaping salmon-like to high crosses or hurling himself head-first into packed goal areas to score at any physical cost. Capped 59 times for his country. 511 League games, 182 goals.

JURION, Joseph (1937–) Anderlecht, La Gantoise, Lokeren, and Belgium. Creative inside-forward of wide vision who enjoyed a lengthy career despite playing with specially fitted spectacles. Won 64 caps for his country and was the key midfield figure in Anderlecht's post-war successes.

KELSEY, Jack (1928–) Arsenal and Wales. Completely sound, unspectacular goalkeeper who performed consistently for Arsenal and Wales in the fifties. In 1955, represented Great Britain against the Rest of Europe, and three years later starred in Wales' audacious successes in the Sweden World Cup finals. A back injury sustained in a collision with the Brazilian Vava ended his career in 1962. He won 41 caps. 327 League games.

KOCSIS, Sandor (1929–) Ferencvaros, Honved, Young Fellows, Barcelona, and Hungary. Formidable goalscoring forward with remarkable heading powers and ability to score with both feet, too. Hit seven hat-tricks for Hungary in a total of 75 goals including 11 in the 1954 World Cup finals. Was top League scorer in Hungary in 1951 (30 goals), 1952 (36), and 1954 (33). After the uprising in 1956 he went abroad.

KOPA, Raymond (1931–) Angers, Rheims, Real Madrid, and France. Gifted, versatile forward who could play in most attacking positions. Had the knack of making telling openings for his colleagues and was the second half of the tandem with Fontaine in the 1958 World Cup. Played in four successive European Cup Finals for two different clubs. Won 45 caps, the last in 1962.

KUBALA, Ladislav (1927–) Ferencvaros, Slovan Bratislava, Vasas Budapest, Barcelona, Espanol, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, and Spain. An all-round forward with a range of skills, he is one of few players to have been capped by three different countries. After his playing career appeared to have ended in Spain he also turned out briefly in Switzerland and North America. In 1969 he became manager of the Spanish national team.

LABRUNA, Angel (1918–) River Plate, Platense, Green Cross, Rampla Juniors, and Argentina. An inside forward of control and individual ability both as a maker and taker of goals. Played 29 years with River and scored close on 500 goals for them, Won 36 caps, the last of them at the age of 40.

LAWTON, Tommy (1919–) Burnley, Everton, Chelsea, Notts County, Brentford, Arsenal, and England. Centre-forward of all-round abilities, but particularly impressive in his timing and power in the air. Succeeded Dixie Dean at Everton and in the England side. Both Everton and later Notts County paid record transfer fees for him. Scored 22 goals in his 23 England appearances, and 231 goals in 390 League games.

LEONIDAS, da Silva (1913–) Havanesa, Barroso, Sul Americano, Sirio Libanes, Bomsucesso, Nacional, Vasco da Gama, Botafogo, Flamengo, Sao Paulo, and Brazil. Centre-forward of extreme agility and scoring success he was capped 23 times for his country, with his first apperance in 1932. Leading scorer (8) in the 1938 World Cup. He retired in 1950 after a long career.

LIDDELL, Billy (1922–) Liverpool and Scotland. Direct forward of great physical power who became Liverpool's greatest idol. Aggressive but always fair, he played a record 492 League games for the club, scoring 216 goals. Played for Great Britain in 1947 and 1955 (Matthews was the only other player to do so). Capped 28 times. Combined his playing career with accountancy, and also served as a J.P.

LIEDHOLM, Nils (1922–) Norrkoping, AC Milan, and Sweden. Accomplished inside-forward with leadership qualities and fine control in possession. Played in the successful 1948 Olympic team and went to Italy a year later. Captained Sweden to second place in the 1958 World Cup and had a distinguished career as a coach back in Italy when he gave up playing.

LOFTHOUSE, Nat (1924–) Bolton Wanderers and England. 'The Lion of Vienna', so called after his brave solo run for the winning goal against Austria in 1952. Aggressive centre-forward who scored in the 1953 and 1958 Cup finals, including a controversial second goal against Manchester United when he charged Harry Gregg and the ball over the line. Footballer of the Year in 1953. 30 goals in 33 internationls and 256 League goals in 452 games.

MACKAY, Dave (1936–) Hearts, Tottenham Hotspur, Derby County, Swindon Town, and Scotland. Wing-half and later centre-back of legendary courage and determination who twice suffered a broken leg, but recovered gamely on both occasions. With Hearts and Spurs, he won every honour in the game before moving to Derby in 1968. There his commanding presence immediately lifted County into the First Division, where he continued to dominate match after match despite his advancing years. Later manager of Swindon Town, Nottingham Forest, and now Derby County. 541 League games and 22 caps.

McCRACKEN, Bill (1883–) Newcastle United and Ireland. Full-back of great tactical perception whose shrewd play eventually forced the change in the offside law in the twenties. Made 377 League appearances. Won 16 caps for Ireland between 1904 and 1923, but was suspended for over 10 years because of a dispute over payments. Won League and Cup honours before World War I. Later manager of Hull City, Millwall, and Aldershot (during World War II). Still scouting for Watford in his 91st year.

McILROY, Jimmy (1931–) Burnley, Stoke City, Oldham Athletic,and Northern Ireland. Inside-forward with tremendous creative skills. Did not miss a Home International between November 1951 and November 1960, winning 55 caps in all and sparking the Irish challenge in Sweden in 1958. With Jimmy Adamson he masterminded Burnley's Championship success in 1960, and later helped Stoke City back into the First Division. Made 567 League appearances.

MANNION, Wilf (1919–) Middlesbrough, Hull City, and England. Deft, skilful inside-forward who had a flair for dribbling through defences to score as well as the scheming strategy to create goals for others. Played in 26 internationals from 1946 to 1941, including the 1950 World Cup. Loyal to Middlesbrough, he played 341 League games for them, scoring 99 goals, and completed his League century during his one season (16 games) at Hull.

MARCHE, Roger (1924–) Rheims, Racing Club, and France. Tall, strong-tackling left-back with a record of consistency for his country, for whom he played a record 63 times. Captained club and country and had an international career which lasted from 1947 to 1959.

MASOPUST, Josef (1931–) Union Teplice, Dukla Prague, Crossing, and Czechoslovakia. Made his name as an attacking midfield player either at wing-half or occasionally at inside-forward. Capped first in 1954, he won 63 such honours and in 1962 was elected European Footballer of the Year. Ended his playing career in Belgium.

MATTHEWS, Sir Stanley (1915–) Stoke City, Blackpool, Stoke City, and England. Shuffling winger who became a legend both for his mesmeric ability to beat full-backs and cross, and for his 33-year playing career. Nicknamed the Wizard of Dribble. On the losing side at Wembley in 1948 and 1951, he won his Cup winners' medal in the 'Matthews Final' of 1953, making the last-minute winner. European Footballer of the Year in 1956, and England's Footballer of the Year in 1948 and 1963. 54 Caps between 1934 and 1957. Made 698 League appearances, the last at 49 years old. Knighted in 1965.

MEAZZA, Giuseppe (1910–) Internazionale, AC Milan, Juventus, Varese, Atalanta, and Italy. Skill and speed, plus a versatile approach to the requirements of forward play made him outstanding in Italian football. He won 53 caps and held the record of goals at 33 until it was beaten in 1973. He scored 265 League goals and won World Cup winners' medals in 1934 and 1938.

MEES, Vicky (1927–) Antwerp and Belgium. Wing-half of consistency, no little skill and a good reader of the game. Held the record number of caps for his country with 68 for many years. Missed few games for his club in nearly 20 years and captained them for half that time.

MERCER, Joe (1915–) Everton, Arsenal, and England. Bandy-legged wing-half who showed flair in attack and solidity in defence and who was also an inspiring captain. Won five caps in the first post-war season, but after the war Everton let him go for a mere £6000. Reborn at Arsenal, he led them to one Cup and two League triumphs before a broken leg ended his career in 1954. Played 417 League games. Manager at Sheffield United andVilla then later with much success at Manchester City. Now manager at Coventry.

MILBURN, Jackie (1924–) Newcastle United and England. Centre-forward, from a famous footballing family, blessed with speed of foot and of shot. Remembered with great affection on Tyneside as 'Wor Jackie'. Won three Cup medals in the fifties – scoring two spectacular goals in the 1951 final and one in the 1955 triumph. Altogether played 354 League games for his only club, scoring 179 goals. Won 13 caps for England and scored 10 international goals. Later manager at Ipswich in succession to Alf Ramsey.

MORTENSEN, Stan (1921–) Blackpool, Hull City, Southport, and England. Powerful forward whose determination to succeed overcame lack of speed in his early career. Cup losers medals in 1948 (when he scored in every round including the final) and 1951. Winners medal in the 'Matthews Final' when he became the only player to score a hat-trick in a Wembley final. Capped 25 times and scored 23 goals – the most memorable from an impossible angle in Turin. Made 395 League appearances and scored 225 goals.

MORTON, Alan (1896–1971) Queen's Park, Rangers, and Scotland. A winger only 5ft 4in. tall and nicknamed the 'Wee Blue Devil', Morton was the highest paid player of his day. Totally elusive, but always direct and alive to the needs of his team, he was a master crosser of the ball. His crosses led to all three of Alex Jackson's goals in the Wembley Wizards match. In an international career from 1920 to 1932 he missed only one game, winning 31 caps. Made around 500 Scottish League appearances and won nine Championship medals.

NETTO, Igor (1930–) Spartak Moscow and Russia. Clever, classy, wing-half and later pivot who made 367 League appearances and won five championship medals with his only club. Captained his country later on, and altogether collected 57 caps. Won an Olympic gold medal in 1956 and a European Nations Cup winners' medal in 1960.

NOVAK, Ladislav (1931–) Dukla Prague, Jablonec, and Czechoslovakia. Full-back with tackling ability, positional sense, and reliability. Captained Dukla and his country and was capped on a record 75 occasions. Played in three World Cup competitions, and ended his playing career with a Second Division side, later coached them, and returned after a similar spell in charge of the national team.

OCWIRK, Ernst (1926–) FAC, FK Austria, Sampdoria, and Austria. Ceaseless forager in midfield, and though ostensibly a centre-half he was without doubt the last of the great attacking pivots. First capped in 1947, he earned 62 caps. Retired in 1962 and embarked on a varied coaching career in Italy, at home, and also in Germany for a time.

ORTH, Gyorgy (1901–1962) MTK Budapest and Hungary. Tall, versatile, and brilliant individualistic player who played in half a dozen different positions for his country in a career started as a teenager in 1917 and ended after recovery from serious injury in 1927. Played in even more positions for his club, scored prolifically, and helped them to numerous championships.

PEACOCK, Bertie (1910–) Celtic and Northern Ireland. Made 318 League appearances for Celtic, first at inside-forward and later as a persistent and whole-hearted wing-half. A key figure in Ireland's win at Wembley in 1957 and in the World Cup a year later. Won 31 caps and later became the Irish team manager. Won Cup, League Cup, and Championship honours with Celtic.

PIOLA, Silvio (1913–) Pro Vercelli, Lazio, Torino, Juventos, Novara, and Italy. Tall, forceful centre-forward, dangerous in the air and on the ground. His career as an international lasted 14 years but was handicapped by the war leaving him with only 34 caps. Starred in the 1938 World Cup. Overtook Meazza's record of 355 first class goals in 1950.

PUSKAS, Ferenc (1927–) Honved, Real Madrid, Hungary, and Spain. Stocky, left-footed striker with an under-rated footballing ability. Scored 83 goals in 84 matches for Hungary before going to Spain. Topped the League scoring lists at home in 1949–50 (31 goals), 1950 (25), and 1953 (27), and in Spain 1960 (26), 1961 (27), 1963 (26), and 1964 (20). Won a European Cup winners' medal in 1960. Took up coaching on retirement in 1966 and led Panathinaikos to the European Cup final in 1971.

RAMSEY, Sir Alf (1920–) Southampton, Tottenham Hotspur, and England. Calculated, thinking full-back who later became, as England's team manager, one of the most influential strategists in the game's history. Played only nine seasons of League football, making 316 appearances and winning a Championship medal in 1951. Nicknamed 'The General' for his cool, assertive style, he won 32 caps. Retired in 1955 to manage Ipswich Town, taking them from the Third Division (South) to the League title by 1962. Left to manage England with equal success, carrying out his prophecy by winning the 1966 World Cup. Knighted in 1967. Lost his England job in 1974.

REVIE, Don (1926–) Leicester City, Hull City, Manchester City, Sunderland, Leeds United, and England. Well-built, resourceful inside-forward who gave his name to the 'Revie plan', a successful Manchester City version of the Hungarian deep-lying centre-forward tactic. With City he won his six caps and Cup winners' and losers' medals. Footballer of the Year in 1955. Dedicated and extremely successful manager of Leeds United, leading his team to wins in the F.A. Cup, League Cup, League Championship, and Fairs Cup.

SANTOS, Djalma (1929–) Portuguesa de Desportos, Palmeiras, Atletico Paranaense, and Brazil. Cool, commanding right-back with a record of fairness and consistency. He won 100 caps between 1952 and 1968. Won World Cup medals in 1958 and 1962, and was an expert penalty taker.

SCHIAFFINO, Juan (1925–) Penarol, AC Milan, Roma, Uruguay, and Italy. Quick-moving inside-forward of great skill who emerged in the 1950 World Cup for Uruguay, the surprise winners. Went to Italy in 1954 after winning 22 caps and started another career, before retiring in 1962 and returning to Montevideo.

SEELER, Uwe (1936–) Hamburg and West Germany. Chunky centre-forward with acrobatic scoring ability on the ground and in the air. Won a then record 72 caps for his country and captained them in two World Cup final competitions in 1966 and 1970. First capped in 1954, he won his last honour 16 years later. He scored 760 goals before retiring in 1972; in later years making light of a series of injuries, too.

SHACKLETON, Len (1922–) Bradford (P.A.), Newcastle United, Sunderland, and England. Suberbly individualistic inside-forward whose rebellious nature earned him the nickname of the 'Clown Prince of Soccer' (the title of his autobiography). Unloved by officials, he won only five caps, despite scoring an electrifying solo goal in his last match against West Germany. Scored six goals on his Newcastle debut in 1946. Made 384 League appearances.

SHANKLY, Bill (1915–) Carlisle United, Preston North End, and Scotland. Superbly fit and wholly dedicated wing-half who brought the same qualitites to bear in a distinguished managerial career. Won a Cup medal in 1938. Made 312 League appearances and won five caps just before the war. Learned the job of manager at Carlisle, Grimsby, Workington, and Huddersfield before joining Liverpool in 1959. At Anfield his relentless drive and enthusiasm have fashioned three League Championship winning sides and a club that has rarely been out of the running for honours.

SINDELAR, Matthias (1903–1939) Hertha, FK Austria, and Austria. Tall, slender centre-forward known as the 'Man of Paper'. Clever dribbler who scored memorable goals and made many others, he won 46 caps in the days of the Austrian 'Wunderteam'. He died in tragic and mysterious circumstances at the hands of the Nazis.

SWIFT, Frank (1915–1958) Manchester City and England. Immensely popular and spectacular goalkeeper who died at Munich, covering the match for the News of the World. He had huge hands that enabled him to pull off breath-taking one-handed saves. Played 19 times for England in the immediate post-war period, twice captaining the side. Won a Cup winners' medal in 1934 and a League Championship medal three years later. Played 338 games for Manchester City.

TOSTAO, Eduardo Goncalves Andrade (1947–) Cruzeiro, Vasco da Gama, and Brazil. Centre-forward of unselfish proportions and quick, decisive penetration. Made his international debut in 1966 and played in the World Cup. Was a vital member of the successful side in 1970 after recovering from an operation for a detached retina in his left eye. In 1973 he had further problems with this injury and was forced to retire.

VAN HEEL, Puck (1904–) Feyenoord and Holland. Christened Gerard but known as Puck, this left-half of constructive ability won 64 caps for his country from 1925, captaining them on 29 occasions. Was an important figure with his club Feyenoord over more than a decade.

VORONIN, Valeri (1939–) Torpedo Moscow and Russia. Midfield attacking wing-half of outstanding flair, who captained his country several times. Had his first cap in 1960 and won 65 honours. Badly injured in a car crash in 1969 he recovered but had to call it a day soon afterwards. Had made his club debut at 17 and was Russia's Footballer of the Year in 1964 and 1965.

WALTER, Fritz (1920–) Kaiserslautern and Germany. Was the architect and inspiration in attack of West Germany's 1954 World Cup win. Captained the side, and usually in one of the three inside forward positions he won 61 caps and scored 33 goals in his international career. But for the war he would have added more in his early days.

WILLIAMS, Bert (1922–) Walsall, Wolverhampton Wanderers, and England. Acrobatic goalkeeper and a fine student of his profession. His magnificent display of agility against Italy in 1949 preserved the unbeaten home record against foreign opposition (excluding Eire). He won 24 caps, playing in the disastrous 1950 World Cup, but oddly was left out in 1954; he was recalled the following season. Made 406 League appearances, winning Cup honours in 1949 and a League medal in 1954. Later opened a school for goalkeepers.

WILSON, Ray (1935–) Huddersfield Town, Everton, Oldham Athletic, Bradford City, and England. Quick, decisive defender with exceptional creative skills, he became England's most-capped full-back, playing in 63 internationals. Totally consistent in the World Cup of 1966, he won his World Cup medal just three months after an F.A. Cup triumph at Wembley. Cost Everton £40,000 in 1964. Made 405 League appearances in a career eventually terminated by a succession of injuries.

WRIGHT, Billy (1924–) Wolverhampton Wanderers and England. Stocky, blond half-back and enthusiastic winner of the ball, whose immense stature in the game is reflected by his 105 caps. He captained his country a record 90 times and led his club to League titles in 1954, 1958, and 1959. At his best at centre-half where his lack of height (5ft 8in.) was never a handicap. Physical, but always fair, he was, through his dedication and enthusiasm, a perfect advert for football. Made 490 League appearances; Footballer of the Year in 1952. Later managed Arsenal before moving into television.

YACHIN, Lev (1929–) Dynamo Moscow and Russia. Tall goalkeeper with long arms, famed for his excellent handling and ability to control his penalty area. Played in 291 League games for his club (a record) and appeared in Olympics and Nations Cup successes in 1956 and 1960 respectively. Won 78 caps and was Europe's Footballer of the Year in 1963. Became General Manager of his club in 1971.

YOUNG, George (1922–) Rangers and Scotland. Massive defender who despite his six-foot, 15-stone frame had the balance and nimbleness of a much smaller man. Regular at either right-back or centre-half for Scotland, he won 53 caps, many of them as captain. Made 293 League appearances for Rangers, winning six League Championship, four Cup, and two League Cup medals. Later managed Third Lanark and Scotland.

ZAMORA, Ricardo (1901–) Espanol, Barcelona, Real Madrid, and Spain. Goalkeeper of excellent anticipation and coverage, he won a record 46 caps before the war. Turned to management in 1939 and coached abroad, too. Won his first cap in the 1920 Olympics and was one of few players to play for both Barcelona and Real.

ZEBEC, Branko (1928–) Borac, Partizan, Red Star Belgrade, Alemannia Aachen, and Yugoslavia. Athletic footballer who had two separate careers: one as a left-winger, the other as a centre-back. In all, he made 65 appearances for Yugoslavia – a record unbeaten until 1972. Played for both rival Belgrade teams in different positions and upon retirement began a new career as a trainer at home and abroad.

ZITO, Jose Eli de Miranda (1932–) Taubate, Santos, and Brazil. Hard-working wing-half of immense capacity and skill who played 53 times for his country and won World Cup medals in 1958 and 1962. Retired in 1967 after playing 706 games for Santos. In his early days with the club he played in several different positions – an experience which helped to broaden his game.

Review of the Season

The public performance of the England team over one period of ninety minutes and the secret deliberations of an FA sub-committee over a considerably longer period combined to provide the most significant event of the domestic international year: together they caused the termination of Sir Alf Ramsey's reign as the England team manager.

The chronology is straightforward. On October 17, England failed to beat Poland at Wembley and were thus eliminated from the final stages of the World Cup for the first time since they began participation in 1950. On February 14, at the Football Association, an internal inquiry commenced on England's standing in international football. On May 1, that inquiry was concluded with a statement which announced that Sir Alf Ramsey had been replaced.

The timing of the execution seemed bizarre. Ramsey had taken England to Portugal early in the month of April as a prelude to a series of seven internationals in the British International Championship and then a summer tour. Afterwards, the Football Association allowed him to announce his squad for that series before declaring that his selections would play under another manager. Moreover, for all the deliberations at committee level, there appeared no immediate replacement for Ramsey; Joe Mercer temporarily filled the breach in a caretaker capacity.

Ramsey's sacking ended a eleven-year period in which he transformed England's approach to international football from something akin to a wandering cricket side to total professionalism. In doing so he won as many important battles in Lancaster Gate as he did at Wembley. Refusing to accept the doctrine of the selection committee, he ensured that professionals were controlled by a professional. Every decision involving England had to be, in Ramsey's own words, 'rubber stamped' by him; his philosophy was simply that 'nothing was too good for the England team'.

The statistics of Ramsey's regime read: Played 113 internationals, won 69, drawn 27, lost 17. In competition, outside the domestic jousts of the home internationals, the World Cup triumph and a third place in the 1968 European Nations Cup were balanced by the cruel quarter-final defeat in the Mexican World Cup, the failure to qualify for Munich, and another quarter-final defeat, by eventual winners West Germany, in the 1972 European Championship. The Football Association's interpretation of these statistics did not fall in Ramsey's favour. Consistency, which through the eleven-year period was equivalent to a League team scoring 61 points in a 42-match season, brought just one conclusive success in knock-out competition. England often earned a tag of being 'hard to beat' rather than that of winners, yet his side won considerably more games than not. If the style of victory rarely embodied swagger, he recognised a better percentage in thoroughness, organisation, and character.

Ironically, fellow professionals posed the major problem of his era; his last official article in the FA News could have been no stronger epitaph as again he severely questioned the system which breeds a critical club versus country battle. For all the revolution he achieved at Lancaster Gate, the League system rarely allowed him to bring together his full complement of players or achieve the continuity so vital to the creation of a team. England were undoubtedly underprepared for the one match which certainly cost Ramsey his job. Meeting Poland knowing that only a win would take the team to the World Cup finals, England had played only once together since the previous June, and that a comfortable victory over Austria late in September. The value of that contest was immediately diluted; Ramsey's attempt at a pre-Poland get-together to attain some real fusion, on the field and off it, was savaged when the Football League decreed that all the England squad should play for their clubs four days before the World Cup tie.

In the event, though the same England attack had fashioned seven goals against Austria, they could make nothing of a succession of chances created against the Polish defence. The only goal came from a calm Clarke penalty, but that after a mistimed tackle by Norman Hunter had been the springboard to a Poland breakaway in which Domarski's scoring shot was the final demolition of England's World Cup dreams.

Another breakaway goal, three minutes from time, cost England a draw against Italy at Wembley a month later. In many ways it was a remake of the horror film of the previous match with England exerting their influence without ever solving the problem of goalscoring. If Ramsey's England career had still one match to live, his lieutenant was discharged after the Italy game. Bobby Moore, who lost his place against Austria and Poland after a disagreement with West Ham had cost him match-practice, played his 108th international that night. By the time England went to Portugal five long months later, he was a Second Division defender at Fulham.

Joe Mercer, avuncular and less protective, guided Ramsey's squad of younger players—Brooking, Dobson, Pejic, Bowles, and Parkes had been blooded in Lisbon—through a summer of education with some success. After the expected wins over Wales and Northern Ireland, he survived a chasing and a chastening defeat from Scotland and the unpleasant sadness of Stan Bowles walking out on his squad. Then draws against Argentina, East Germany, and Yugoslavia, and a win against Bulgaria, all qualifiers for the World Cup, at least ensured that England's head was somewhat higher as the nation's footballers prepared to view the action in West Germany from the outside.

Scotland had ensured their position on the inside very early in the season. Needing only a home win over Czechoslovakia to top their qualifying group, they came from behind with headers by Holton and Jordan amid scenes of such fervent emotion that it is a wonder that any team beats them at Hampden Park. Indeed, Willie Ormond's team earned a creditable draw with West Germany there, and later ravaged Wales and particularly England with displays of endeavour and emotion. Yet for the second year running Northern Ireland took two home international points from Hampden.

But some of the gilt was tarnished in unsavoury off-the-field episodes. The now predictable squabble of a successful side over commercial interests took a new twist when it was learned that the appointed agent was without a business address and that the Scottish Football Association had ordered themselves ten per cent of the profits. The discipline of the squad had to be questioned when Jimmy Johnstone was rescued in the small hours from a rowing boat at the training headquarters three days before the England match; and when Johnstone again and Bremner, the captain, were reprimanded for indiscipline during the two match run-in to the World Cup.

Indeed, Scotland's form abroad—they lost the return to Czechoslovakia, a return friendly against West Germany and were beaten in Bruges by Belgium before beating the amateurs of Norway—continued to be deplorable. In 12 years they had only the scalps of Cyprus, Denmark, Finland and now Norway, to show for all their travels.

For Northern Ireland, again political exiles from Belfast, and Wales, the shadows beckoned. Both finally took their leave of the World Cup early in the season—Wales in a degrading contest in Katowice where they and Poland kicked each other as often as the ball and Trevor Hockey was sent off, while Ireland, managing goalless draws at home to Bulgaria and away in Portugal, finished third in their group. Both sides had to seek their season's solace in just one goal. Ireland's came from Newcastle's Tommy Cassidy at Hampden Park and ensured a quite authentic victory. Wales had to wait until the last of their four games for theirs and it came against Northern Ireland. Wrexham's David Smallman then wrote himself into the record books by scoring Wales' first home international goal for three seasons!

International Appearances

Bobby Charlton, of course, has not won 106 caps. If you happened to sort through his trophies you would find just 87—and no more. For that is the number he has actually won. So where are the other 19? Simple—they do not exist, for caps are awarded not for international matches played, but for international appearances. And the Home International Championship during any one season is regarded as just one appearance. So if Bobby Charlton played against Ireland, Wales and Scotland in any one season he would get only one cap and not three. Hence the missing 19 and one of the commonest misapprehensions about international football.

The word 'cap' comes, obviously enough, from the headgear worn by the earliest footballers. Nottingham F.—the League's second oldest club—recorded in their first minutes that the team's colours ' . . . shall be red caps . . . ', and for several years this was often the only means of distinguishing your own side from the opposition.

The only other players generally accepted to have reached three figures by the end of 1973 were Pele (110), Bobby Moore (108), Billy Wright (105), Leonel Sanchez (Chile—104), Thorbjorn Svennsen (Norway—104), Djalma Santos (Brazil—101), Josef Bozsik (Hungary—100) and the leading goalkeeper, Gilmar (Brazil—100). Bobby Moore became the most 'capped' English player during 1973 and played his 108th international against Italy at Wembley on 14th November, 1973,

In a sense Wright's record is equal to Charlton's in that both started 105 international games. Charlton's extra match came in New York in 1964, when he was substituted for George Eastham after 33 minutes. This game against the USA, which England won 8-1, must be regarded as being of doubtful international quality, though England certainly turned out a full-strength side.

Wright did complete two feats as yet unbeaten—his 70 consecutive internationals between 3rd October 1951 and 28th May 1959 is a world record, as is his 38 appearances in the Home International Championship. Danny Blanchflower, of Northern Ireland, holds the record for consecutive Home Championship appearances, with 33 between 1952 and 1962.

Ivor Allchurch's Welsh record total also causes some confusion as he played one game for Wales versus the Rest of the United Kingdom and his aggregate is 67 or 68 depending on whether it is accepted as a 'full' game or not.

F.I.F.A.'s imprecise and often changing rules on eligibility have caused some strange anomalies. Johnny Carey, for instance, played 29 times for Eire, 7 times for Northern Ireland in the Home International Championship, and once captained the Rest of Europe against the United Kingdom—a game in which he could presumably have been picked for both sides!

Ladislav Kubala, born in Hungary, turned out for his native country but later also for Czechoslovakia and Spain. Alfredo di Stefano has also played for three countries—Argentina, where he was born, Colombia, where he went in search of fabled riches in 1950, and later Spain, where he led Real Madrid.

The only British player to have appeared for three countries is J. Kennaway, the Celtic goalkeeper of the 1930s. After turning out for Canada against the USA in 1928, he reversed his allegiance for the match between those same two countries in 1930, and later made two appearances for Scotland in 1933 and 1934.

But few can have had such a traumatic international debut as Blackpool's Stanley Mortensen did on 25th September 1943. England were playing Wales at Wembley in a wartime match and Mortensen was England's reserve. But when Ivor Powell, the Welsh left-half, was injured it was agreed that Mortensen should take his place. He thus ended up playing against his own side on his international debut.

Editor's note: In the list of international appearances for England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland, the year given is the latter half of the season concerned (e.g. 1967 means that the match was played during the season 1966-67). The actual date of the match can be found in the following list of international line-ups. In the list of appearances for the Republic of Ireland, the year given is the year in which the match was played.

European Footballer of the Year, Johan Cruyff. Last season he was transferred from European Champion club Ajax to Barcelona for a world record fee of £922,300. Within a few short weeks, increased gates had repaid the fee and Barcelona were Spanish champions!

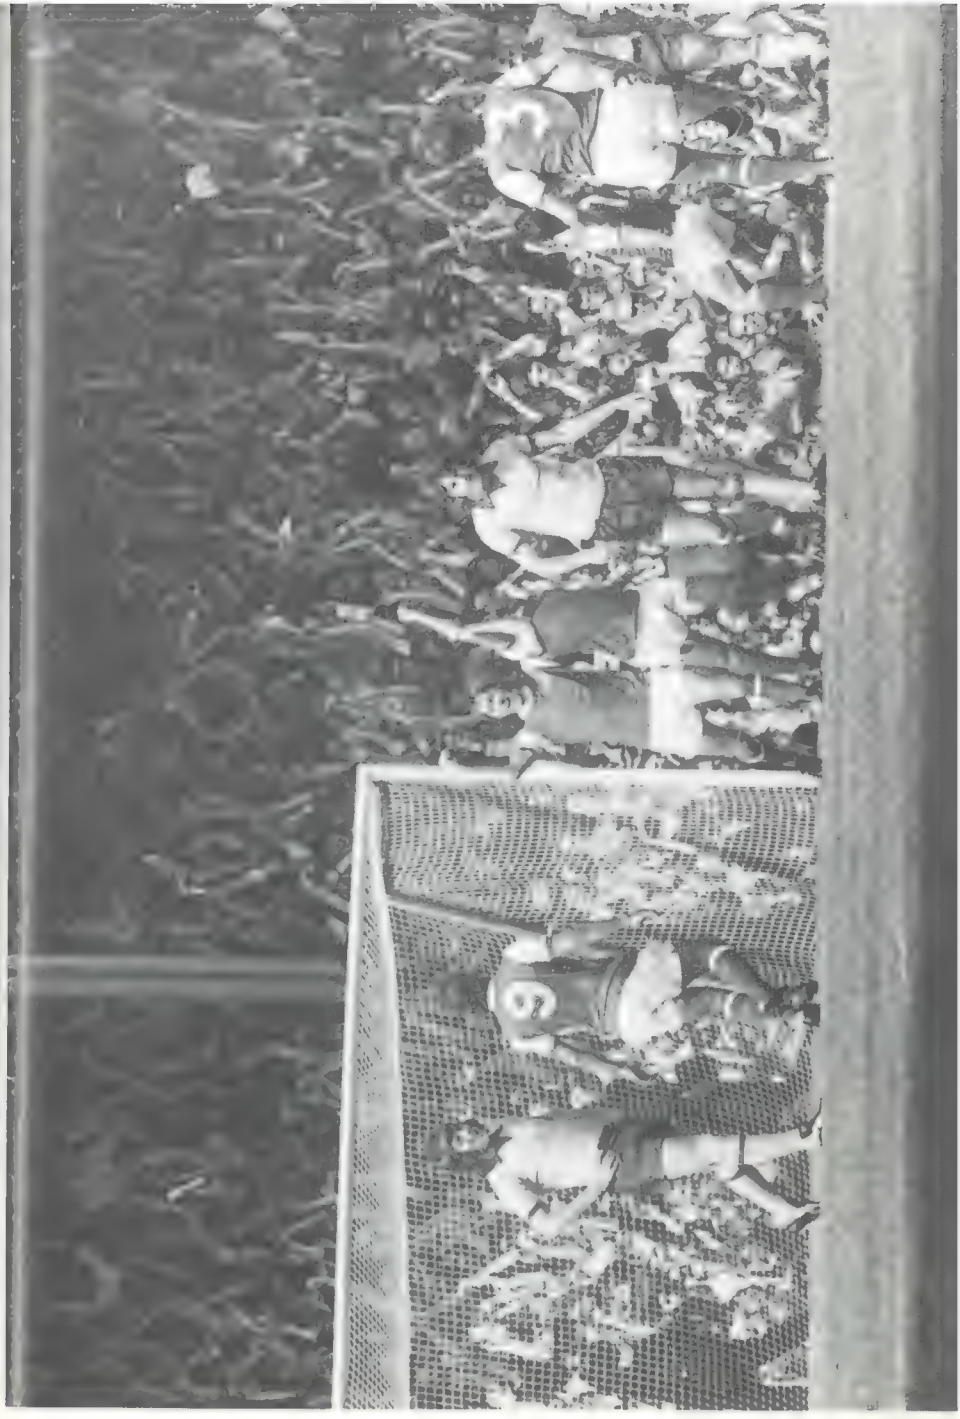
Typical goalmouth action from the England v Poland match at Wembley in October. Kevin Hector (centre) just fails to clinch a last-minute goal, and seconds later England were out of the World Cup.

Joe Jordan of Leeds has more luck with this header against Czechoslovakia at Hampden Park in September. The stadium erupted to acclaim the goal, which put Scotland into the World Cup finals for the first time since 1958.

On the sidelines. This photograph sums up the nightmare FA Cup final that Malcolm Macdonald had to endure against Liverpool. Never once did 'Supermac' create a scoring chance, and Newcastle were comprehensively beaten.

Thrown into the League Cup final at the last minute because of an injury to Phil Parkes, Gary Pierce performed splendidly to help Wolves to victory over Manchester City. Here he fists away under great pressure from Francis Lee.

Leeds United's successful 1973–74 championship squad with the trophy they won. Back row (l–r): Madeley, Gray (E), Stewart, Reaney, Harvey, Cherry, Hunter, Jones, McQueen, Jordan, Clarke, Ellam. Front row: Bates, Gray (F), Lorimer, Bremner, Cooper, Yorath.

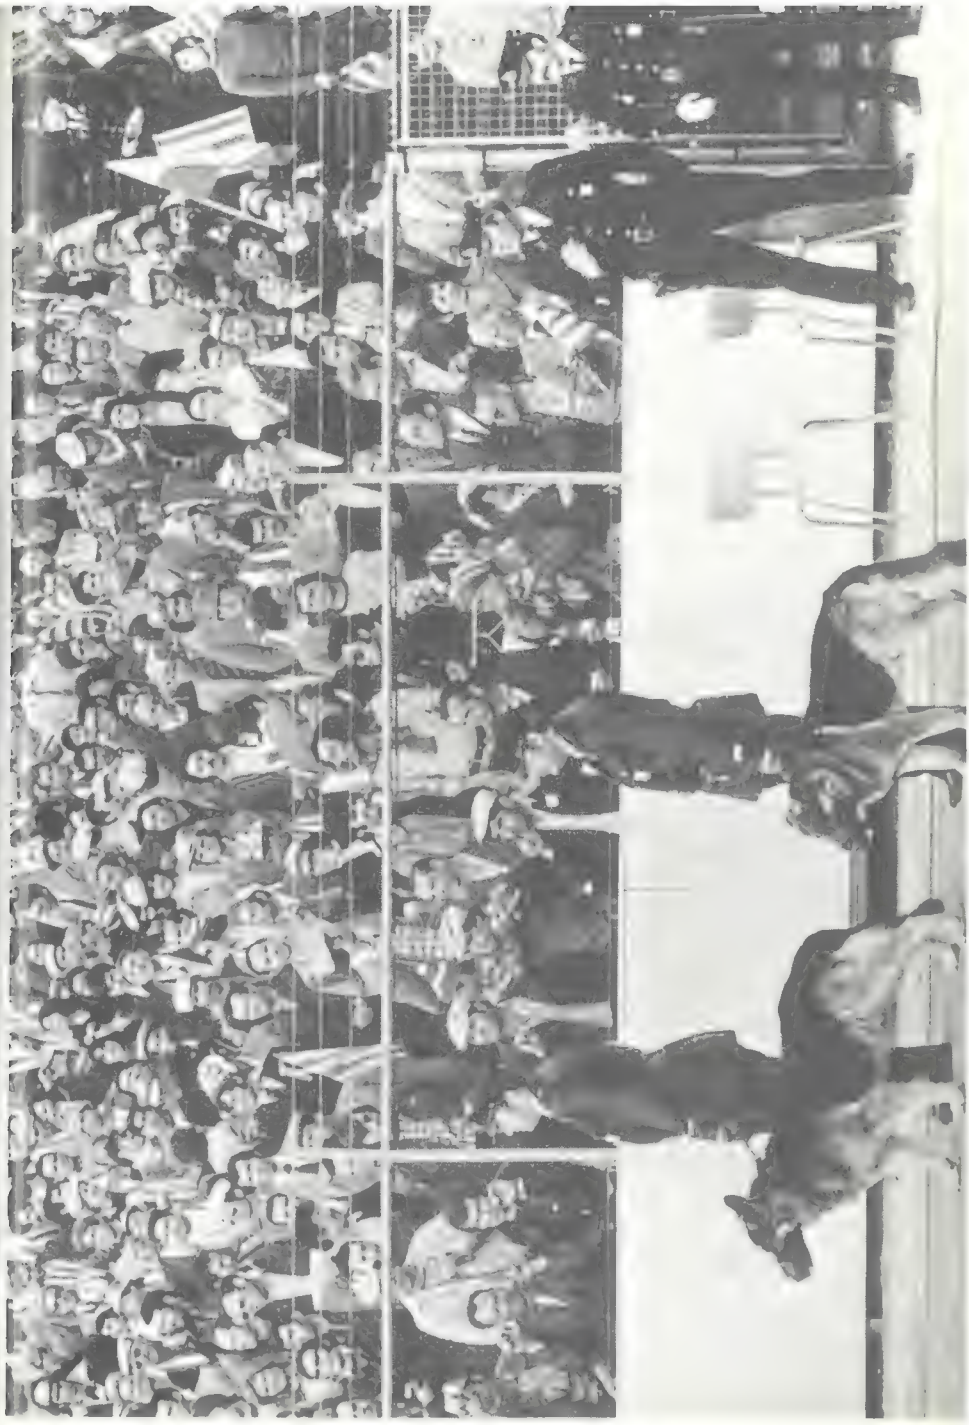


It's the first match of the season, and for Manchester United the pattern is set as Ray Kennedy scores the first of Arsenal's three goals, to the delight of Highbury's North Bank. United eventually slid into the Second Division.

Somewhat happier times for England as Keith Weller scores the winning goal against Northern Ireland during the British Championship. Weller has been a great success in the England side since Joe Mercer gave him his first cap.

Celtic's Kenny Dalglish picks his way through the Dundee United defence during the Scottish Cup final at Hampden Park. Celtic cruised to a 3-0 victory, thus completing their ninth double!

Dave Lawrence, the Bishop's Stortford captain, holds aloft the FA Amateur Cup, won for the last time in its 80-year history. Bishop's Stortford defeated Ilford 4-1 at Wembley in their Centenary year on their first appearance in the final.



This picture, taken at the European Cup final at Brussels, shows the sort of restraints advocated by many 'experts' in England. The disgraceful scenes at Rotterdam a couple of weeks later proved that such measures are not the answer.

The Bayern Munich 'wall' stands in disarray and bewilderment as Atlètico Madrid celebrate the first goal in the European Cup final. Bayern, however, recovered just in time to equalise, and then won the replay easily 4-0.

Bob Latchford gets a pat on the head from team-mate Gordon Taylor and words of praise from Bob Hatton (right) after scoring against Liverpool in September. He later joined Everton for a British record fee of £350,000.

The good old days? It's all smiles during this training session as England stars Tony Currie and Ray Clemence work hard under the benign eye of Sir Alf Ramsey. Ramsey was later dismissed in a storm of controversy.

Britain's only representatives in a European final this year were Spurs, who played Feyenoord for the UEFA Cup (action here from the first leg at White Hart Lane). They were beaten 4-2 on aggregate by the Dutch champions. It was Spurs' first ever defeat in a major Cup Final.

Mervyn Day, West Ham's 18-year-old goalkeeper, has enjoyed a tremendous first season in top football. His great skill and immaculate temperament earned him high praise at club level, and an England Under-23 cap.

Europe Opts for Total Football

by Leslie Vernon

A blank for Britiain and new names on all three trophies – this was the dramatic story of the popular European competitions last season. Bayern Munich was the first West German club to win the Champions' Cup, Magdeburg the first East German outfit to collect the Cup-Winners' Cup, and Feyenoord the first Dutch winners of the UEFA trophy. But behind these statistical curiosities lies a much more important tale. Football – especially big-time international football – has been going through a fascinating tactical revolution during the last few years, and these clubs, triumphant in Europe, are representatives of this comparatively new approach.

Originally, Ajax planted the sign-posts. They were the inventors and advocates of 'total football' – a term which implies fluency, vision, a desire to push forward eight or nine players at a time, and a need for a squad of excellent all-rounders. The ball is intelligently kept on the floor, one-twos are played around the box, and the players are encouraged to use their initiative. A minimum amount of regimentation within a fluid pattern, with everyone 'totally' involved in every facet of the action, has been the blue-print for the success which has made Ajax the leading club in Europe for three years. When the chief architect of this system, Rinus Michels, moved to Barcelona, he preached the same philosophy there, and the Catalans swept to the League title in impressive fashion.

In the meantime, several leading Continental teams copied his methods, modifying and developing them to suit their own requirements. By now, football is quite a different ball-game over there from the one which habitually sends us to sleep in Britain. Most of our coaches still stick to out-dated numerical formations like the stolid 4–3–3 and the defence-orientated 4–4–2. They constantly speak of 'getting a result' and 'doing a job'. This plastic jargon covers an implicit faith in such heresies as 'work-rate', running to the point of exhaustion, one-pace football (too fast), playing the simple ball, and even more dull etceteras. Although Ron Greenwood, a brave and genuine reformer, did try to use three defenders only, and says with pride: 'We do not play with a centre-forward', he is hamstrung by the limited talent at his disposal. Other younger managers (Robson, Bloomfield, Jago, and Milne) are also on the right lines, but they must tread warily, because instant success, in other words, results, are still the most important trump cards on the boardroom tables.

Yet if football, as a popular entertainment, wishes to survive, it must follow the example set by the West Germans. Let us examine the two brilliant matches in the European Cup final, which clearly demonstrated the pitfalls and opportunities created by total football. Bayern Munich lined-up with a flexible 1–3–2–2–2 formation. Beckenbauer, as usual, was their libero behind the constantly interchanging Hansen-Schwarzenbeck-Breitner line, Roth and Zobel were central midfielders, the two wingers, Torstensson and Kappelmann, were slightly withdrawn, while Müller and Hoeness formed the apex of the attack. Juan Carlos Lorenzo, with a less talented squad, stuck to the Latin formula so ably practised by the Italians. He used a purely destructive sweeper behind a man-to-man marking defence, an over-populated midfield and a couple of lone rangers up front.

In the first game, after Torstensson and Roth failed to convert gilt-edged chances created by beautifully flighted through-balls, Bayern lost their momentum, and the curse of never having won this important prize hung over them like the sword of Damocles. Their football became stereotyped – within the confines of their own brand of adventurous attacking play – and the Spaniards took over the match. But their short passing, laborious build-up led them into cul-de-sacs, and consequently their superiority wasn't converted into goals. It was no surprise that Schwarzenbeck, nominally the player with purely defensive duties, got the stunning equaliser to the Luis free-kick seconds before the final whistle.

I am certain that everyone in the Heysel Stadium in Brussels knew that the replay would be a triumph for the Germans. After all, they couldn't possibly play as badly again, and the Spaniards didn't look capable of reproducing their impressive form within 48 hours. Indeed, Bayern were at their brilliant best on Friday, May 17. Hoeness and Müller shook off their lethargy, escaped from the vice-like grip of Heredia, Eusebio and Adelardo, and the team gave us an exhibition of exhilarating football. 4–0 – an ample revenge for the legendary 7–3 scoreline in favour of a Spanish side (Real Madrid) over the only previous West German finalists, Eintracht Frankfurt, in 1960.

Ajax and Juventus, two well-fancied teams, were out-fought early in the competition, and our own Liverpool were beaten by Red Star Belgrade. In fairness to the Shankly boys, one must record that last autumn they went through an indifferent patch, and the Yugoslavs will never play better than they did at Anfield. But, if Leeds or Celtic wish to fulfill the dreams of their managers by bringing home this prestigious trophy, the lessons must be learned. They must study the intricacies of 'total football'. Zonal marking must give way to the man-to-man system, a sweeper must be used behind the centre-back and not alongside him, and – most important of all – they must incorporate changes of pace and rhythm into their natural game. Leeds have shown signs early in the season that they are capable of imitating the best of the Continentals – they must not lose faith if things do not go according to plan in every game!

Magdeburg, flag carriers of the emerging football power of East Germany, were worthy winners of the Cup-Winners' Cup. On the day, they were far superior in every facet of the game than the plodding AC Milan. Latin football is in a sorry state of sterile stagnation at the moment!

But perhaps the defeat of Tottenham hit us hardest. The UEFA Cup has been the exclusive property of English clubs for six years, and with four entries, it was reasonable to expect that this domination of the competition would continue. But once again – and I am glad to be able to say this – the skill factor proved to be decisive. A luminously talented Feyenoord side outplayed the Londoners in both legs of the final tie, and three of the four Dutch goals scored were perfect examples of how football should be played.

Ipswich, to their eternal credit, had a magnificent run in this competition, beating eventual Italian champions, Lazio, the impoverished aristocrats, Real Madrid, and Twente Enshede – runners-up in Holland.

No joy in Europe, a k.o. in the World Cup qualifying competition, a sorry record for our Under-23 team, and elimination before the finals in the UEFA Youth Cup! What a dreary, disappointing season for England. We have a lot of leeway to make up, but one must cling to the immortal wisdom of comedian Bob Hope. 'When you hit rock-bottom, there is only one way to go – up!'

Rothmans Isthmian League

Last season saw Britain's most famous amateur league accept sponsorship, and the new Rothmans Isthmian League set out to encourage sporting, attractive, but still competitive football. The battle for the championship was fiercely contested until the last week of the season, when Wycombe Wanderers, who with Hendon and Bishop's Stortford had upheld all the principles of the sponsorship throughout the season, finally won the title.

Although the league was perhaps even more competitive than ever before, the spirit among member clubs was impressive and the following FA Cup results certainly proved that the playing standards had probably improved through the players' more disciplined approach:—

Wycombe Wanderers	3	Newport County	1
Brighton & H. A.	0	Walton & Hersham	4
Newcastle United	1	Hendon	1

We are pleased that two more leagues, the Rothmans Northern League and Rothmans Western League will next season be adopting exactly the same principles as those now used in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

The awards for high scoring apply to clubs who have not received a cash prize for finishing first, second, or third in their respective divisions.

SPORTSMANSHIP POOL

1st Division—£2000 2nd Division—£1000

Teams lost 4 points for a player sent off, and 1 point for a player officially cautioned. If a team lost 8 points or more in the course of a season it did not qualify for a share of the Sportsmanship Pool. No team who lost more than 8 points qualified for seasonal goal scoring awards or prize money for the top three places. The money they would have won was added to the Sportsmanship Pool, with 10% deducted for the league.

0	Barking, Bromley, Clapton, Dulwich Hamlet, Enfield, Hayes, Walton & Hersham, Walthamstow Av.

66 shares remained intact at the end of the season and the £2000 pool was supplemented by £225 (£250 less 10% for the League) through Dulwich Hamlet forfeiting £200 and Walton & Hersham £50 in the season's goalscoring awards. One share is therefore worth £33.71.

Sportsmanship Points Retained	Division Two	Amount Won
5	Dagenham, Hampton, Maidenhead U.	£317.50
2	Chesham U.	£127.00
1	Harwich & Parkeston, Slough T. Southall	£63.50

Twenty shares remained intact at the end of the season and the £1000 pool was supplemented by £270 (£300 less 10% for the League) through Hertford T. forfeiting their £150 for third place, and Aveley (£100), Tilbury (£25), and Horsham (£25) forfeiting goalscoring awards. One share is therefore worth £63.50.

Note: Slight alterations may be made if late appeals against cautions are upheld.

ROTHMANS SPONSORSHIP OF THE HELLENIC LEAGUE 1973-74

The 1973-74 season was the first of sponsorship for the Hellenic League. The awards were not similar to those adopted by the Rothmans Isthmian League although the aims of more sporting and attractive play were the same. The most encouraging features of the season have been the good conduct records of the successful clubs, Moreton Town, Clanfield and Abingdon, and the 31 five goal bonuses awarded. Final League tables can be seen on page 964.

The full details of the prize winners are:—

Premier Division: Champions: Moreton Town (£300); Runners-up: Clanfield (£100); Cup Winners: Clanfield (£100); Finalists: Abingdon Town (£50).

Division 1*:* Champions: Cirencester Town (£75); Runners-up: Oxford City (£30).

Div. 1 Reserve Section: Champions: Hungerford Town (£50); Runners-up: Bicester Town (£25); Cup Winners: Pinehurst (£40); Finalists: Hungerford Town (£20).

Div. 2. Reserve Section: Champions: Thame United (£30); Runners-up: Easington (£20).

Best overall Club Record 1st and Reserve Teams (judged on League Places, and if equal, on goals):
1. Clanfield 2 + 4 & 150 goals £50
2. Bicester Town 4 + 2 & 122 goals £30

Good conduct bonus:—
Premier Division: Abingdon Town £100

Amateur Cup Award (for reaching 4th Qualifying Round)
Abingdon Town £50

Referee Awards
1. R. Logan
2. H. F. Hutton

Goalscoring Bonuses (£20) (for five goals in a match without conceding more than two goals or having a player cautioned in the game): Clanfield £120; Abingdon Town £80; Moreton Town £80; Pinehurst £60; Wallingford £60; Hazells £40; Hungerford Town £40; Wantage Town £40; Burnham £20; Chipping Norton £20; Didcot Town £20; Thame United £20; Thatcham £20.

LAW 1

THE FIELD OF PLAY

The Field of Play and appurtenances shall be as shown in the following plan:

(1) Dimensions. The field of play shall be rectangular, its length being not more than 130 yards nor less than 100 yards and its breadth not more than 100 yards nor less than 50 yards. (In International Matches the length shall be not more than 120 yards nor less than 110 yards and the breadth not more than 80 yards nor less than 70 yards.) The length shall in all cases exceed the breadth.

(2) Marking. The field of play shall be marked with distinctive lines, not more than 5 inches in width, not by a V-shaped rut, in accordance with the plan, the longer boundary lines being called the touch-lines and the shorter the goal-lines. A flag on a post not less than 5 feet high and having a non-pointed top, shall be placed at each corner; a similar flag-post may be placed opposite the halfway-line on each side of the field of play, not less than 1 yard outside the touch-line. A halfway-line shall be marked out across the field of play. The centre of the field of play shall be indicated by a suitable mark and a circle with a 10 yards radius shall be marked round it.

(3) The Goal-area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 6 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 6 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a goal-area.

(4) The Penalty-area. At each end of the field of play two lines shall be drawn at right-angles to the goal-line, 18 yards from each goal-post. These shall extend into the field of play for a distance of 18 yards and shall be joined by a line drawn parallel with the goal-line. Each of the spaces enclosed by these lines and the goal-line shall be called a penalty-area. A suitable mark shall be made within each penalty-area, 12 yards from the mid-point of the goal-line, measured along an undrawn line at right angles thereto. These shall be the penalty-kick marks. From each penalty-kick mark an arc of a circle, having a radius of 10 yards, shall be drawn outside the penalty-area.

(5) The Corner-area. From each corner-flag post a quarter circle, having a radius of 1 yard, shall be drawn inside the field of play.

(6) The Goals. The goals shall be placed on the centre of each goal-line and shall consist of two upright posts, equidistant from the corner-flags and 8 yards apart (inside measurement), joined by a horizontal cross-bar the lower edge of which shall be 8 feet from the ground. The width and depth of the goal-posts and the width and depth of the cross-bars shall not exceed 5 inches (12 cm.). The goal-posts and the cross-bars shall have the same width.

Nets may be attached to the posts, cross-bars and ground behind the goals. They should be appropriately supported and be so placed as to allow the goalkeeper ample room.

The Board has approved this table of measurements for the Laws of the Game.

	Metres		Metres
130 yards	120	8 yards	7.32
120 yards	110	6 yards	5.50
110 yards	100	1 yard	1
100 yards	90	8 feet	2.44
80 yards	75	5 feet	1.50
70 yards	64	28 inches	0.71
50 yards	45	27 inches	0.68
18 yards	16.50	5 inches	0.12
12 yards	11	½ inch ..	12.7 millimetres
10 yards	9.15	⅜ inch ..	10 millimetres

THE BALL

The ball shall be spherical: the outer casing shall be of leather or other approved materials. No material shall be used in its construction which might prove dangerous to the players.

The circumference of the ball shall not be more than 28 inches and not less than 27 inches. The weight of the ball at the start of the game shall not be more than 16 oz. nor less than 14 oz. = 396 to 453 grammes. The pressure shall be equal to one atmosphere, which equals 15 lb/sq in. (= 1 kg/cm^2) at sea level. The ball shall not be changed during the game unless authorised by the referee.

LAW 3
NUMBER OF PLAYERS

(1) A match shall be played by two teams, each consisting of not more than eleven players, one of whom shall be the goalkeeper.

(2) Substitutes may be used in any match played under the rules of a competition, subject to the following conditions:

(a) that the authority of the international association(s) or national association(s concerned, has been obtained.

(b) that, subject to the restriction contained in the following paragraph (c) the rules of a competition shall state how many, if any, substitutes may be used, and

(c) that a team shall not be permitted to use more than two substitutes in any match.

(3) Substitutes may be used in any other match, provided that the two teams concerned reach agreement on a maximum number, not exceeding five, and that the terms of such agreement are intimated to the referee, before the match. If the referee is not informed, or if the teams fail to reach agreement, no more than two substitutes shall be permitted.

(4) Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the referee is informed before the change is made, and provided also that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.

(5) When a goalkeeper or any other player is to be replaced by a substitute, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) the referee shall be informed of the proposed substitution, before it is made,

(b) the substitute shall not enter the field of play until the player he is replacing has left, and then only after having received a signal from the referee, and

(c) he shall enter the field during a stoppage in the game, and at the half-way line.

Punishment.

(a) Play shall not be stopped for an infringement of paragraph 4. The players concerned shall be cautioned immediately the ball goes out of play.

(b) For any other infringement of this Law, the player concerned shall be cautioned, and if the game is stopped by the referee, to administer the caution, it shall be re-started by an indirect free-kick, to be taken by a player of the opposing team, from the place where the ball was when play was stopped.

LAW 4
PLAYERS' EQUIPMENT

A player shall not wear anything which is dangerous to another player. Footwear (boots or shoes) must conform to the following standard:

(a) Bars shall be made of leather or rubber and shall be transverse and flat, not less than half an inch in width and shall extend the total width of the sole and be rounded at the corners.

(b) Studs which are independently mounted on the sole and are replaceable shall be made of leather, rubber, aluminium, plastic or similar material and shall be solid. With the exception of that part of the stud forming the base, which shall not protrude from the sole more than one quarter of an inch, studs shall be round in plan and not less than half an inch in diameter. Where studs are tapered, the minimum diameter of any section of the stud must not be less than half an inch. Where metal seating for the screw type is used, this seating must be embedded in the sole of the footwear and any attachment screw shall be part of the stud. Other than the metal seating for the screw type of stud, no metal plates even though covered with leather or rubber shall be worn, neither studs which are threaded to allow them to be screwed on to a base screw that is fixed by nails or otherwise to the soles of footwear nor studs which, apart from the base, have any form of protruding edge rim, or relief marking or ornament, should be allowed.

(c) Studs which are moulded as an integral part of the sole and are not replaceable shall be made of rubber, plastic, polyurethane or similar soft materials. Provided that there are no fewer than ten studs on the sole, they shall have a minimum diameter of three-eighths of an inch (10 mm.) In all other respects they shall conform to the general requirements of this law.

(d) Combined bars and studs may be worn, provided the whole conforms to the general requirements of this law. Neither bars nor studs on the soles shall project more than three-quarters of an inch. If nails are used they shall be driven in flush with the surface.

The goalkeeper shall wear colours which distinguish him from the other players and from the referee. The usual equipment of a player is a jersey or shirt, shorts, stockings and footwear. In a match played under the rules of a competition, players need not wear boots or shoes, but shall wear jersey or shirt, shorts, or track suit or similar trousers and stockings. The Law does not insist that boots or shoes must be worn. However, in competition matches Referees should not allow one or a few players to play without footwear when all the others players are so equipped.

Punishment. For any infringement of this Law, the player at fault shall be sent off the field of play to adjust his equipment and he shall not return without first reporting to the Referee, who shall satisfy himself that the player's equipment is in order; the player shall only re-enter the game at a moment when the ball has ceased to be in play.

REFEREES

A Referee shall be appointed to officiate in each game. His authority and the exercise of the powers granted to him by the Laws of the Game commence as soon as he enters the field of play.

His power of penalising shall extend to offences committed when play has been temporarily suspended, or when the ball is out of play. His decision on points of fact connected with the play shall be final, so far as the result of the game is concerned. He shall:

(a) Enforce the Laws. He shall, however, refrain from penalising in cases where he is satisfied that by doing so he would be giving an advantage to the offending team.

(b) Keep a record of the game; act as timekeeper and allow the full or agreed time, adding thereto all time lost through accident or other cause.

(c) Have discretionary power to stop the game for any infringement of the Laws and to suspend or terminate the game whenever, by reasons of the elements, interference by spectators, or other cause, he deems such stoppage necessary. In such a case he shall submit a detailed report to the competent authority, within the stipulated time, and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(d) Caution any player guilty of misconduct or ungentlemanly behaviour and, if he persists, to suspend him from further participation in the game. In such cases the Referee shall send the name of the offender to the competent authority ,within the stipulated time,* and in accordance with the provisions set up by the National Association under whose jurisdiction the match was played. Reports will be deemed to be made when received in the ordinary course of post.

(e) Allow no person other than the players and Linesmen to enter the field of play without his permission.

(f) Stop the game if, in his opinion, a player has been seriously injured; have the player removed as soon as possible from the field of play, and immediately resume the game. If a player is slightly injured, the game shall not be stopped until the ball has ceased to be in play. A player who is able to go to the touch- or goal-line for attention of any kind shall not be treated on the field of play.

(g) Send off the field of play any player who, in his opinion, is guilty of violent conduct, serious foul play, or the use of foul and abusive language.

(h) Signal for recommencement of the game after all stoppages.

(i) Decide that the ball provided for a match meets with the requirements of Law 2.

The Referee shall report to the appropriate authority misconduct or any misdemeanour on the part of spectators, officials, players, named substitutes or other persons which takes place either on the field of play or in its vicinity at any time prior to, during or after the match in question so that appropriate action can be taken by the authority concerned.

LINESMEN

Two linesmen shall be appointed, whose duty (subject to the decision of the Referee) shall be to indicate when the ball is out of play and which side is entitled to the corner-kick, goal-kick, or throw-in. They shall also assist the Referee to control the game in accordance with the Laws. In the event of undue interference or improper conduct by a Linesman, the Referee shall dispense with his services and arrange for a substitute to be appointed. (The matter shall be reported by the Referee to the competent authority.) The Linesmen should be equipped with flags by the Club on whose ground the match is played.

LAW 7
DURATION OF THE GAME

The duration of the game shall be two equal periods of 45 minutes, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon, subject to the following:

(a) Allowance shall be made in either period for all time lost through accident or other cause, the amount of which shall be a matter for the discretion of the Referee.

(b) Time shall be extended to permit of a penalty-kick being taken at or after the expiration of the normal period in either half.

At half-time the interval shall not exceed five minutes except by consent of the Referee.

LAW 8
THE START OF PLAY

(a) At the beginning of the game, choice of ends and the kick-off shall be decided by the toss of a coin. The team winning the toss shall have the option of choice of ends or the kick-off.

The Referee, having given a signal, the game shall be started by a player taking a place-kick (i.e., a kick at the ball while it is stationary on the ground in the centre of the field of play) into his opponents' half of the field of play. Every player shall be in his own half of the field and every player of the team opposing that of the kicker shall remain not less than 10 yards from the ball until it is kicked-off; it shall not be deemed in play until it has travelled the distance of its own circumference. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

* In England, within two days, Sundays not included.

(b) After a goal has been scored, the game shall be restarted in like manner by a player of the team losing the goal.

(c) After half-time; when restarting after half-time, ends shall be changed and the kick-off shall be taken by a player of the opposite team to that of the player who started the game. Punishment. For any infringement of this Law, the kick-off shall be retaken, except in the case of the kicker playing the ball again before it has been touched or played by another player; for this offence, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred. A goal shall not be scored direct from a kick-off.

(d) After any other temporary suspension; when restarting the game after a temporary suspension of play from any cause not mentioned elsewhere in these Laws, provided that immediately prior to the suspension the ball has not passed over the touch- or goal-lines, the Referee shall drop the ball at the place where it was when play was suspended and it shall be deemed in play when it has touched the ground; if, however, it goes over the touch- or goal-lines after it has been dropped by the Referee, but before it is touched by a player, the Referee shall again drop it. A player shall not play the ball until it has touched the ground. If this section of the Law is not complied with the Referee shall again drop the ball.

BALL IN AND OUT OF PLAY

The ball is out of play:

(a) When it has wholly crossed the goal-line or touch-line, whether on the ground or in the air.

(b) When the game has been stopped by the Referee.

The ball is in play at all other times from the start of the match to the finish including:

(a) If it rebounds from a goal-post, cross-bar or corner-flag post into the field of play.

(b) If it rebounds off either the Referee or Linesmen when they are in the field of play.

(c) In the event of a supposed infringement of the Laws, until a decision is given.

LAW 10

METHOD OF SCORING

Except as otherwise provided by these Laws, a goal is scored when the whole of the ball has passed over the goal-line, between the goal-posts and under the cross-bar, provided it has not been thrown, carried or propelled by hand or arm, by a player of the attacking side, except in the case of a goalkeeper who is within his own penalty-area.

The team scoring the greater number of goals during a game shall be the winner; if no goals, or any equal number of goals are scored, the game shall be termed a 'draw'.

LAW 11

OFF-SIDE

A player is off-side if he is nearer his opponents' goal-line than the ball at the moment the ball is played unless:

(a) He is in his own half of the field of play.

(b) There are two of his opponents nearer to their own goal-line than he is.

(c) The ball last touched an opponent or was last played by him.

(d) He receives the ball direct from a goal-kick, a corner-kick, a throw-in, or when it was dropped by the Referee.

Punishment. For an infringement of this Law, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

A player in an off-side position shall not be penalised unless, in the opinion of the Referee, he is interfering with the play or with an opponent, or is seeking to gain an advantage by being in an off-side position.

LAW 12

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT

A player who intentionally commits any of the following nine offences:

(a) Kicks or attempts to kick an opponent;

(b) Trips an opponent, i.e., throwing or attempting to throw him by the use of the legs or by stooping in front of or behind him;

(c) Jumps at an opponent;
(d) Charges an opponent in a violent or dangerous manner;
(e) Charges an opponent from behind unless the latter be obstructing;
(f) Strikes or attempts to strike an opponent;
(g) Holds an opponent with his hand or any part of his arm;
(h) Pushes an opponent with his hand or any part of his arm;
(i) Handles the ball, i.e., carries, strikes or propels the ball with his hand or arm.
(This does not apply to the goalkeeper within his own penalty-area); shall be penalised by the award of a direct free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred.

Should a player of the defending side intentionally commit one of the above nine offences within the penalty-area he shall be penalised by a penalty-kick.

A penalty-kick can be awarded irrespective of the position of the ball, if in play, at the time an offence within the penalty-area is committed.

A player committing any of the five following offences:

1. Playing in a manner considered by the Referee to be dangerous, e.g., attempting to kick the ball while held by the goalkeeper;
2. Charging fairly, i.e., with the shoulder, when the ball is not within playing distance of the players concerned and they are definitely not trying to play it;
3. When not playing the ball, intentionally obstructing an opponent, i.e., running between the opponent and the ball, or interposing the body so as to form an obstacle to an opponent;
4. Charging the goalkeeper except when he
   (a) is holding the ball;
   (b) is obstructing an opponent;
   (c) has passed outside his goal-area;
5. When playing as goalkeeper
   (a) takes more than 4 steps whilst holding, bouncing or throwing the ball in the air and catching it again without releasing it so that it is played by another player, or
   (b) indulges in tactics which, in the opinion of the Referee, are designed merely to hold up the game and thus waste time and so give an unfair advantage to his own team shall be penalised by the award of an indirect free-kick to be taken by the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred.

A player shall be cautioned if:

(j) he enters or re-enters the field of play to join or re-join his team after the game has commenced, or leaves the field of play during the progress of the game (except through accident) without, in either case, first having received a signal from the Referee showing him that he may do so. If the Referee stops the game to administer the caution the game shall be restarted by an indirect free-kick taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the offending player was when the Referee stopped the game. If, however, the offending player has committed a more serious offence he shall be penalised according to that section of the law he infringed.
(k) He persistently infringes the Laws of the Game;
(l) he shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the Referee;
(m)he is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct.

For any of these last three offences, in addition to the caution, an indirect free-kick shall also be awarded to the opposing side from the place where the offence occurred, unless a more serious infringement of the Laws of the Game was committed.

A player shall be sent off the field of play if:
(n) in the opinion of the Referee, he is guilty of violent conduct or serious foul play;
(o) he uses foul or abusive language;
(p) he persists in misconduct after having received a caution.

If play be stopped by reason of a player being ordered from the field for an offence without a separate breach of the Law having been committed, the game shall be resumed by an indirect free-kick awarded to the opposing side from the place where the infringement occurred. If, when a referee is about to caution a player, and before he has done so, the player commits another offence which merits a caution, the player shall be sent off the field of play.

FREE-KICK

Free-kicks shall be classified under two heads: 'Direct' (from which a goal can be scored direct against the offending side), and 'Indirect' (from which a goal cannot be scored unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal).

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick inside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall remain outside the area, and shall be at least ten yards from the ball whilst the kick is being taken. The ball shall be in play immediately it has travelled the distance of its own circumference and is beyond the penalty-area. The goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands, in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked direct into play, beyond the penalty-area, the kick shall be retaken.

When a player is taking a direct or an indirect free-kick outside his own penalty-area, all of the opposing players shall be at least ten yards from the ball, until it is in play, unless they are standing on their own goal-line, between the goal-posts. The ball shall be in play when it has travelled the distance of its own circumference.

If a player of the opposing side encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the ball, as the case may be, before a free-kick is taken, the Referee shall delay the taking of the kick, until the Law is complied with.

The ball must be stationary when a free-kick is taken, and the kicker shall not play the ball a second time, until it has been touched or played by another player.

In order to distinguish between a direct and an indirect free-kick, the referee, when he awards an indirect free-kick, shall indicate accordingly by raising an arm above his head. He shall keep his arm in that position until the kick has been taken.

Punishment. If the kicker after taking the free-kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the spot where the infringement occurred.

PENALTY-KICK

A penalty-kick shall be taken from the penalty-mark and, when it is being taken, all players with the exception of the player taking the kick, and the opposing goalkeeper, shall be within the field of play but outside the penalty-area, and at least 10 yards from the penalty-mark. The opposing goalkeeper must stand (without moving his feet) on his own goal-line, between the goal-posts, until the ball is kicked. The player taking the kick must kick the ball forward; he shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball shall be deemed in play directly it is kicked, i.e., travelled the distance of its circumference, and a goal may be scored direct from such a penalty-kick. If the ball touches the goalkeeper before passing between the posts, when a penalty-kick is being taken at or after the expiration of half-time or full-time, it does not nullify a goal. If necessary, time of play shall be extended at half-time or full-time to allow a penalty-kick to be taken.

Punishment. For any infringement of this Law:

(a) by the defending team, the kick shall be retaken if a goal has not resulted;

(b) by the attacking team, other than by the player taking the kick, if a goal is scored it shall be disallowed and the kick retaken.

(c) by the player taking the penalty-kick, committed after the ball is in play, a player of the opposing team shall take an indirect free-kick from the spot where the infringement occurred.

N.B. 1. When the referee has awarded a penalty-kick, he shall not signal for it to be taken, until the players have taken up position in accordance with the Law.

2. (a) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball is stopped in its course towards goal, by an outside agent, the kick shall be retaken.

(b) If, after the kick has been taken, the ball rebounds into play, from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, and is then stopped in its course by an outside agent, the referee shall stop play and restart it by dropping the ball at the place where it came into contact with the outside agent.

3. (a) If, after having given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, the Referee sees that the goalkeeper is not in his right place on the goal-line, he shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball has been kicked, the goalkeeper moves his feet, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

(c) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of the defending team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. It shall be retaken, if a goal is not scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

4. (a) If, when a penalty-kick is being taken, the player taking the kick is guilty of ungentlemanly conduct, the kick, if already taken, shall be retaken if a goal is scored.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a colleague of the player taking the kick encroaches into the penalty-area or within ten yards of the penalty-mark, the Referee shall, nevertheless, allow the kick to proceed. If a goal is scored, it shall be disallowed, and the kick retaken.

The player concerned shall be cautioned.

(c) If, in the circumstances described in the foregoing paragraph, the ball rebounds into play from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or a goal-post, the Referee in addition to cautioning the player, shall stop the game, and award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred.

5. (a) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, the goalkeeper moves from his position on the goal-line, or moves his feet, and a colleague of the kicker encroaches into the penalty-area or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The colleague of the kicker shall be cautioned.

(b) If, after the Referee has given the signal for a penalty-kick to be taken, and before the ball is in play, a player of each team encroaches into the penalty-area, or within 10 yards of the penalty-mark, the kick, if taken, shall be retaken.

The players concerned shall be cautioned.

6. When a match is extended, at half-time or full-time, to allow a penalty-kick to be taken or retaken, the extension shall last until the moment that the penalty-kick has been completed, i.e. until the Referee has decided whether or not a goal is scored.

A goal is scored when the ball passes wholly over the goal-line.

(a) direct from the penalty-kick.
(b) having rebounded from either goal-post or the cross-bar, or
(c) having touched or been played by the goalkeeper.

The game shall terminate immediately the Referee has made his decision.

7. When a penalty-kick is being taken in extended time:—
(a) the provisions of all the foregoing paragraphs, except paragraphs 2 (b) and 4 (c) shall apply in the usual way, and
(b) in the circumstances described in paragraph 2 (b) and 4 (c) the game shall terminate immediately the ball rebounds from the goalkeeper, the cross-bar or the goal-post.

LAW 15
THROW-IN

When the whole of the ball passes over a touch-line, either on the ground or in the air, it shall be thrown in from the point where it crossed the line, in any direction, by a player of the team opposite to that of the player who last touched it. The thrower at the moment of delivering the ball must face the field of play and part of each foot shall be either on the touch-line or on the ground outside the touch-line. The thrower shall use both hands and shall deliver the ball from behind and over his head. The ball shall be in play immediately it enters the field of play, but the thrower shall not again play the ball until it has been touched or played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from a throw-in.

Punishment:

(a) If the ball is improperly thrown in the throw-in shall be taken by a player of the opposing team.

(b) If the thrower plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be taken by a player of the opposing team from the place where the infringement occurred.

LAW 16
GOAL-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the attacking team, it shall be kicked direct into play beyond the penalty-area from a point within that half of the goal-area nearest to where it crossed the line, by a player of the defending team. A goalkeeper shall not receive the ball into his hands from a goal-kick in order that he may thereafter kick it into play. If the ball is not kicked beyond the penalty-area, i.e., direct into play, the kick shall be retaken. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has touched or been played by another player. A goal shall not be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the goal-kick shall remain outside the penalty-area whilst the kick is being taken.

Punishment. If a player taking a goal-kick plays the ball a second time after it has passed beyond the penalty-area, but before it has touched or been played by another player, an indirect free-kick shall be awarded to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred.

CORNER-KICK

When the whole of the ball passes over the goal-line, excluding that portion between the goal-posts, either in the air or on the ground, having last been played by one of the defending team, a member of the attacking team shall kick the ball from within the quarter circle at the nearest corner flag-post, which must not be moved, i.e., a corner-kick. A goal may be scored direct from such a kick. Players of the team opposing that of the player taking the corner-kick shall not approach within 10 yards of the ball until it is in play, i.e., it has travelled the distance of its own circumference, nor shall the kicker play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Punishment:

(a) If the player who takes the kick plays the ball a second time before it has been touched or played by another player, the Referee shall award an indirect free-kick to the opposing team, to be taken from the place where the infringement occurred.

(b) For any other infringement the kick shall be retaken.

KNOCK-OUT COMPETITIONS—OBTAINING A RESULT

The International Board at its Meeting on the 27th June, 1970 accepted a proposal by the Federation Internationale de Football Association that the practice of drawing lots to determine which of two teams in a drawn match should proceed to alter stage of a Knock-Out Competition or receive the trophy (if any) be discontinued and be replaced by the taking of kicks from the penalty spot which shall not be considered part of the match, subject to the following conditions:—1. The Referee shall choose the goal at which all of the kicks from the penalty spot shall be taken. 2. Each team shall take five kicks from the penalty spot. The kicks shall be taken alternately. 3. The Referee shall toss, and the team whose captain wins the toss shall take the first kick. 4. The team which scores the greater number of goals shall be declared the winner. 5. Only the players who are on the field at the end of the match, which shall mean at the end of extra time, in so far as a match in which extra time is authorised, is concerned, shall be eligible to take part in the kicking from the penalty spot. 6. If, after each team has taken five kicks, each has scored the same number of goals, the taking of kicks from the penalty spot shall continue, in the same order, until such time as each has taken the same number of kicks and one team has scored a goal more than the other. The kicks shall not continue after one team has scored a total of goals which establish them as winners. 7. Each kick shall be taken by a different player, and not until all eligible players of any team have taken a kick may a player of the same team take a second kick. 8. Any player who was on the field at the end of the match (see section 5) may change places with his goalkeeper at any time during the taking of the kicks from the penalty spot. 9. Other than the player taking a kick, and the opposing goalkeeper,all players shall remain within the centre circle whilst the taking of the kicks from the penalty spot is in progress. 10. Unless stated to the contrary herein, the conditions of Laws 5 and 14 will apply in the taking of these kicks. The relevant paragraphs of F.A. Board Deceisions of Law 14 shall be interpreted by analogy.

I.P.C. National Press Awards

SPORTS WRITER CATEGORY

Peter Batt, columnist and reporter of 'The Sun', was chosen as Sports Writer of 1973. These are the highly personal observations of Batt on Batt . . .

Age 40. Born within the sound of Bow Bells at Stepney. Failed and frustrated schoolboy footballer. Only claim to athletic fame now is the scars from two cartilage operations. In intoxicated moments has been known to roll up trouser legs and demonstrate said scars when challenged on his knowledge of the game.

Worked as a news and sports reporter on three East London weekly papers (Stratford Express, Romford Times, Walthamstow Guardian). News reporter on The Scotsman, The Scottish Daily Mail. Reached Fleet Street 1960. News and Features for The Daily Herald, The Sun (IPC version). Was itching to return to sport but would not sacrifice Saturday afternoons because of fanatical devotion to Spurs and a place on the White Hart Lane terraces.

When double team broke up was cured of above phobia and took job as football writer for The People covering the Midlands (1966). Returned to London for The People in 1968. Switched to The Sun on its conception in November 1969. Covered Mexico World Cup. Appointed Sports Columnist in September 1972. Favourite footballer: Jimmy Greaves.

Odd points: Was a navvy (hod carrier and ditch digger) for brief spell in his teens but soon gave up when promised muscles failed to appear. Must be one of the only sports writers to have covered the Profumo-Christine Keeler 'affair' and The Great Train Robbery. Has interviewed several prime ministers and at least one sovereign (Hussein of Jordan) but found some football managers harder going.

Previous winners of the award:

ROTHMANS FOOTBALL YEARBOOK

The fifth edition of the most successful football yearbook ever published. 1012 pages contain millions of facts and figures, making this the most respected work of reference on the world's most popular sport. Covers every aspect of football, including full details of Football League and Scottish League clubs, players, managers, league tables, goalscorers, and attendances. Complete coverage of domestic and European cup competitions, and a day-by-day diary of 1973-74.

The most comprehensive coverage of the 1974 FIFA World Cup, plus results of all World Cup final tournaments since the competition started in 1930. Every English, Scottish, Welsh, and Irish international team line-up since the birth of international football — never before published in one book. Biographies of 100 international stars of the past, and a new World Football Directory.

The Rothmans Golden Boots Award to the top eleven players in Britain, and the Young Player of the Year Award.

The European Nations Section, with league tables and past league and cup winners. Eight great goals from the 1973-74 season, and the usual coverage of other league, youth, amateur, and schools football. The laws of the game, as recently revised by FIFA, and a complete fixture list for the Football League and Scottish League in 1974-75.
